We're behind you all the way!

That's what it is all about.
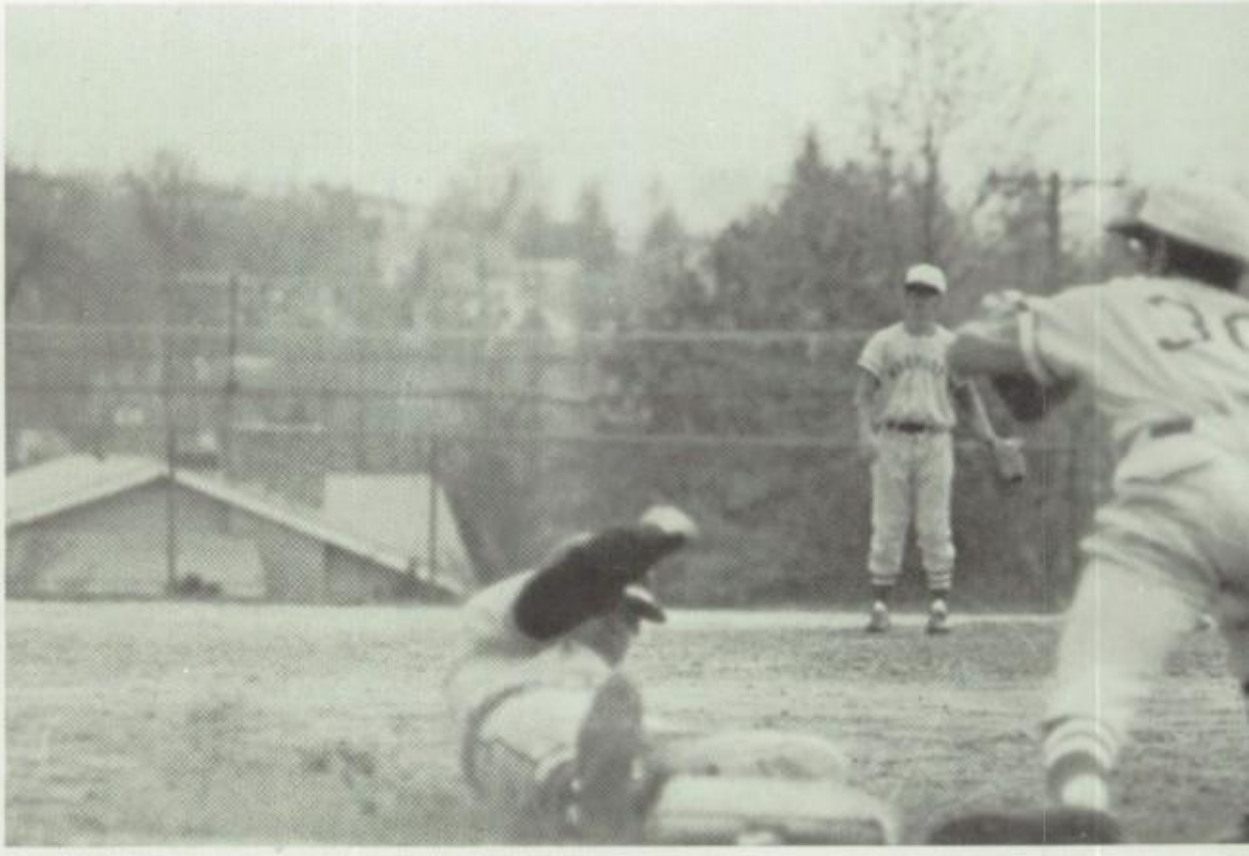
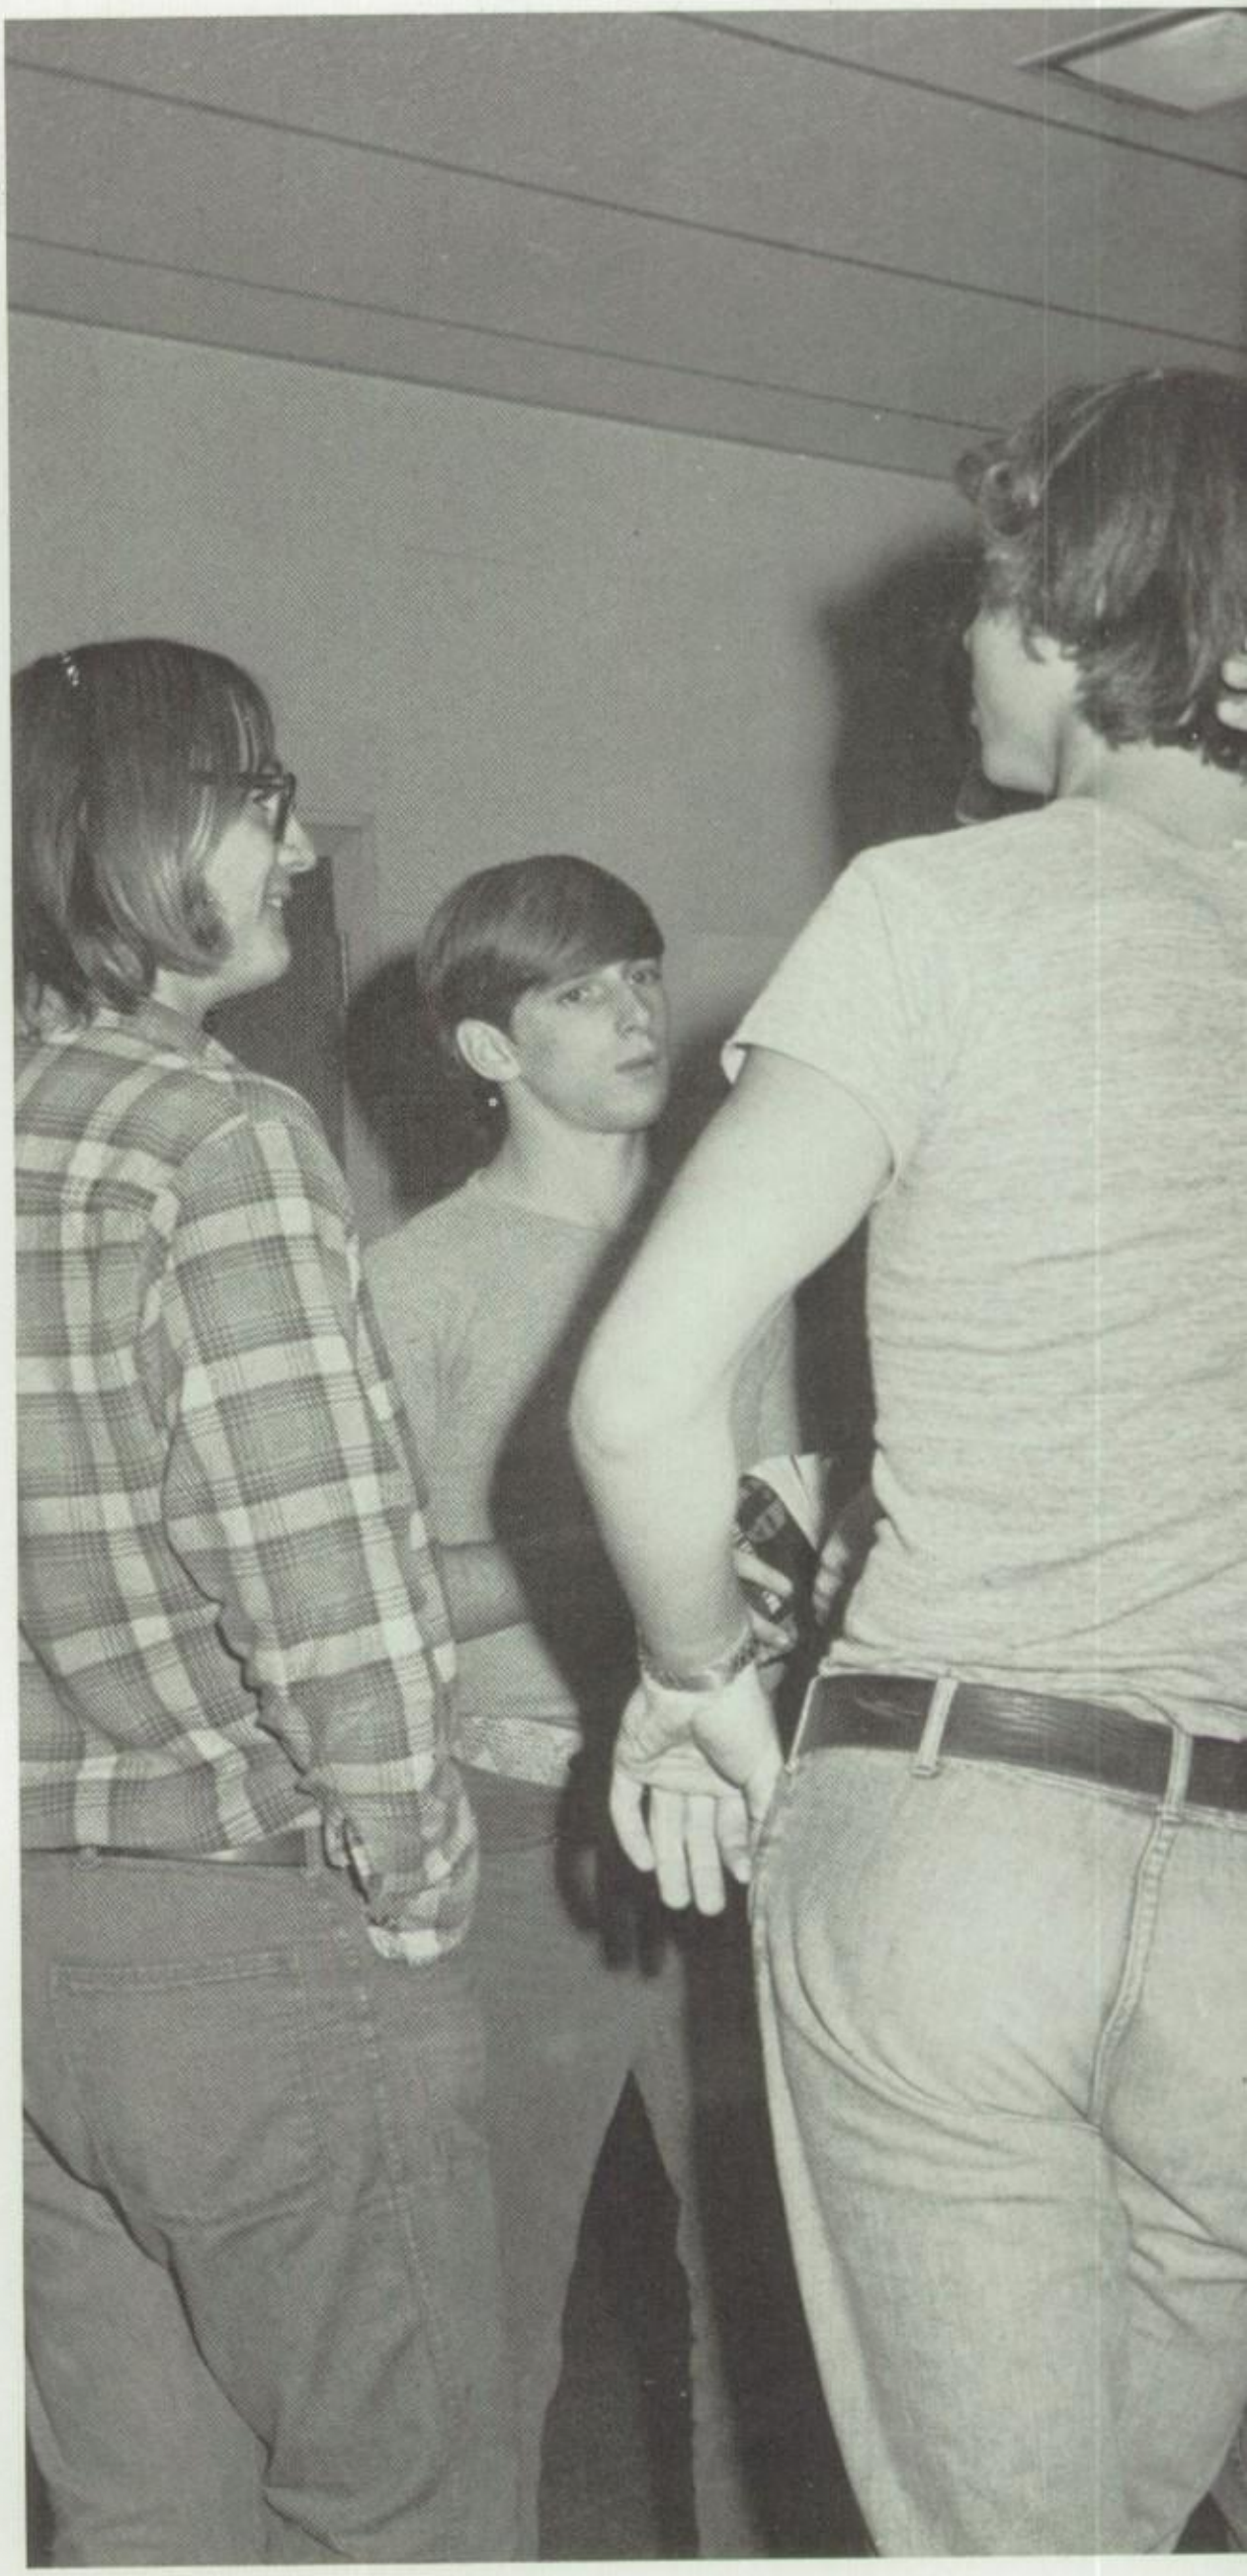
People.
And what people do.





It is from people,
the occasional smile of a stranger, the laughter of an acquaintance, and the understanding of a friend, that strength is gained.

It is to people that this

Academics

With eighty percent of York Suburban's student body aiming for a college education, the school's college preparatory curriculum is exceptionally strong. The program stresses the importance of a broad academic background with the curriculum including social studies, science, English, foreign language, and math.

Practicals

In addition to the standard academic courses, the students of York Suburban are offered several courses that can be categorized as "practical courses." These courses include a full business education curriculum, safety and driver education, shop, home economics, health, and physical education. As the word "practical" suggests, the students should be able to use the knowledge gained from those courses in the outside world.

Band

Hard work and dedication are required for the making of any good band, and the York Suburban organization is no exception.

Many hours are spent preparing original band shows for football games, marching in parades and perfecting challenging music for the annual spring concert.

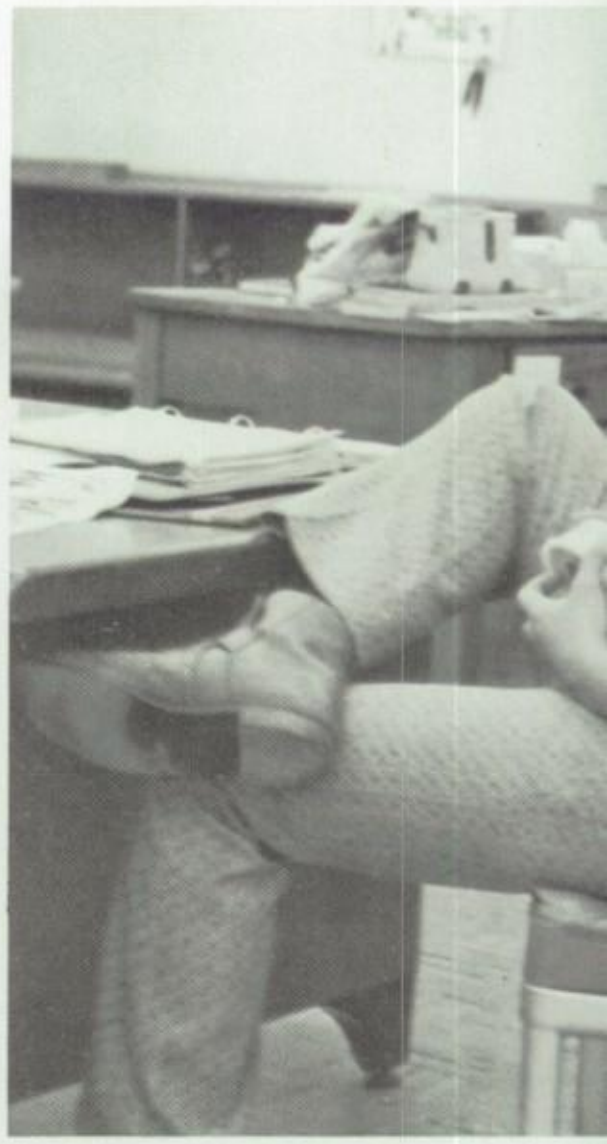
Through their travels and appearances in the United States and Canada, the Knights have carried the name of York Suburban.

Choir

Designed to give students an opportunity to participate in various musical and community programs, the senior choir presented to the community and student body a Christmas concert, a musical and a spring concert.

Under the direction of Mrs. Edna Kraus, the senior choir provided five members to the district chorus.

Mrs. Kraus rated the 90 students in the choir as "exceptionally good," and noted that she was particularly pleased with the increase in the number of boys who contributed their talents during the year.



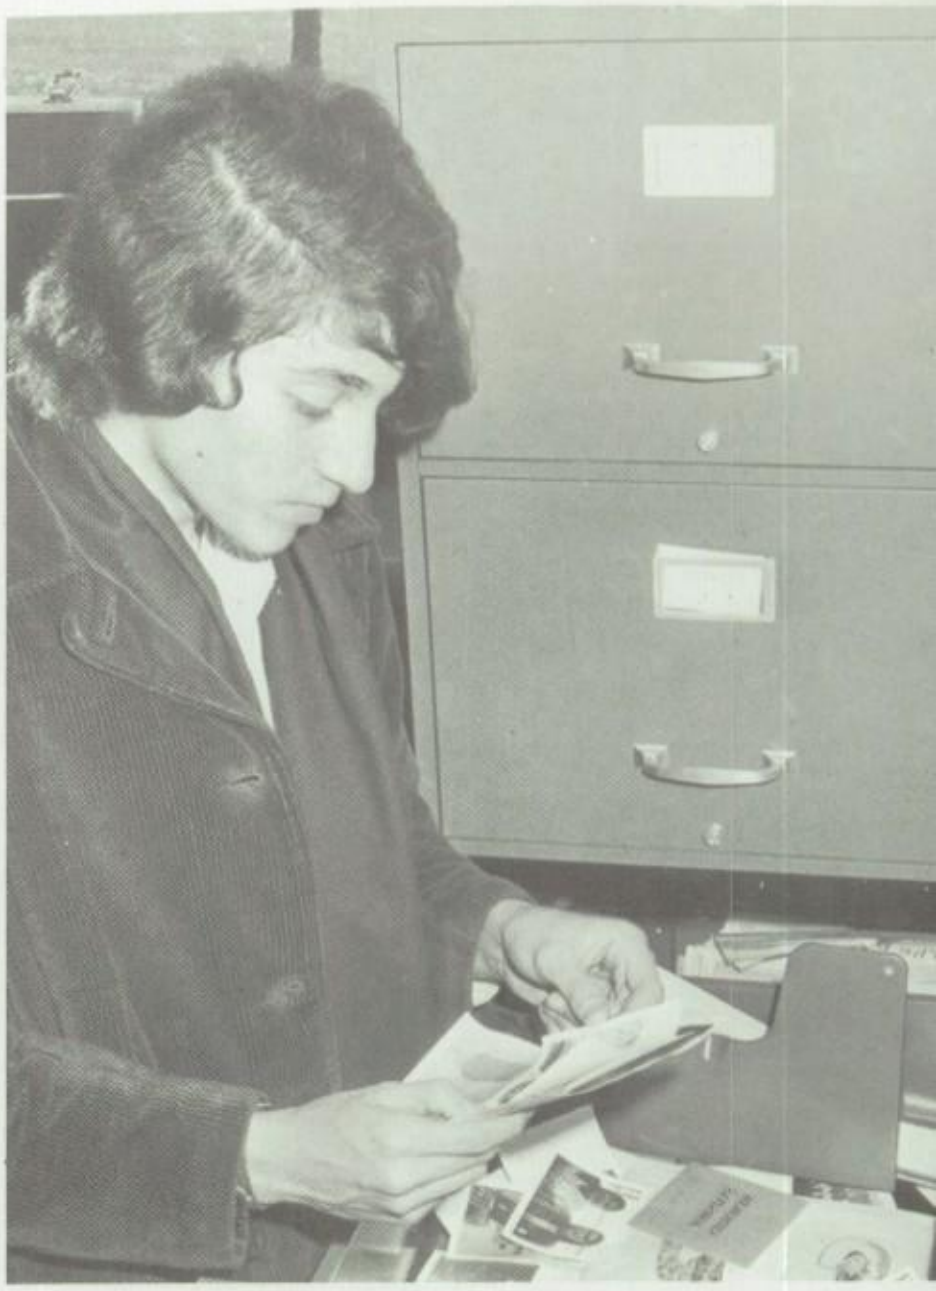
Profile

The year of 1972 found a reorganization and resultant new look in the yearbook. Sections were dissolved, pages added, and a generally more modern, faster paced product was born.

If notoriety has its virtues, then the Profile office is saintly. Despite the continuous party and general melee that hallmarks the Profile, the yearbook slowly ground out.

Blazer

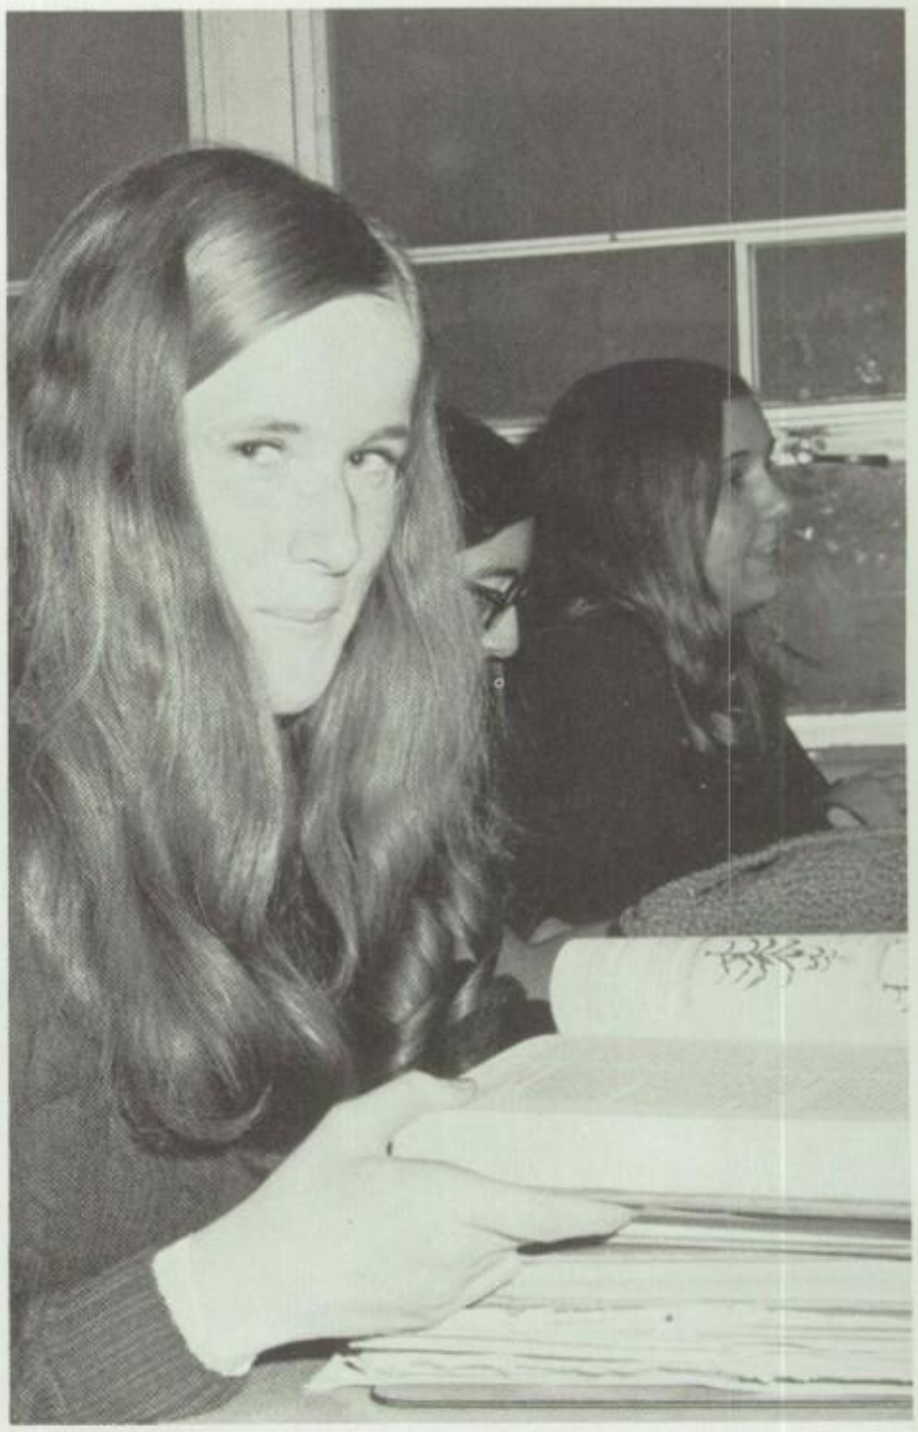
A new editor, a new advisor, a new Blazer — The very first issue of the Blazer proved to the student body that the 1971-72 publication was to be a different newspaper. The Blazer used more feature and student interest articles rather than the straight reporting style previously used. In an interview section, which appeared in each issue, the student body expressed their opinions on various contemporary issues. Although the frequency of publication was disappointing to the student body, the general concensus of opinion was one of approval.

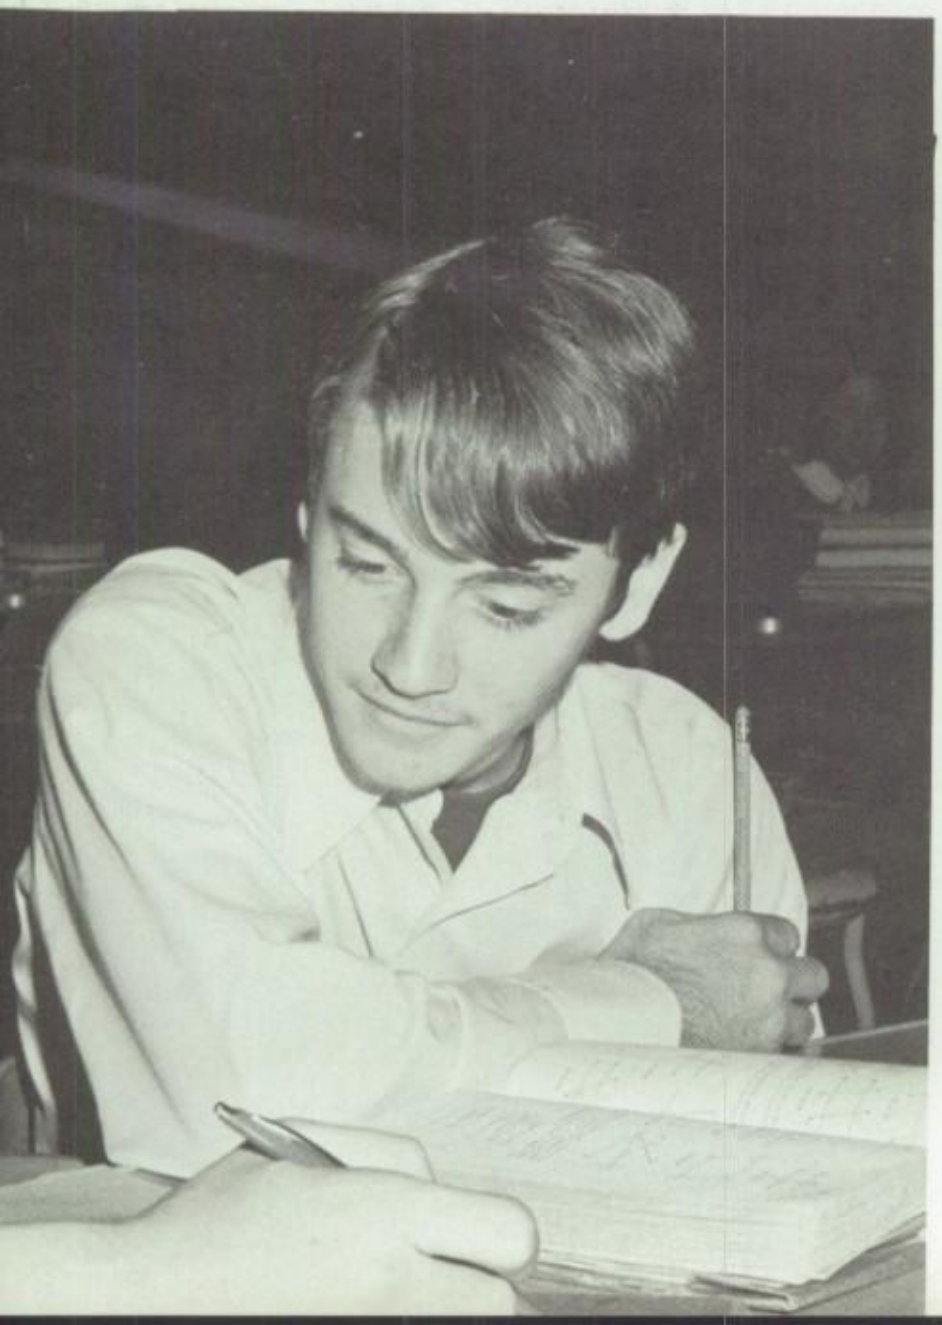


Rap Room

After numerous requests by the students for a student lounge, the administration finally relented and the Rap Room was instituted, a room where sophomores, juniors, and seniors could go during study halls to talk and meet with their friends.

The Rap Room thus alleviates the age-old problem in the library — too many students with nothing to do. Students now have the option of staying in their assigned study hall, going to the library to work, or going to the Rap Room.





KING SIZE

Strike

On May 17, 1971, the students and teachers of York Suburban became a part of the nationwide movement regarding an increase in teachers' salaries. When it became time for teacher contracts to be negotiated, the teachers asked that some of the points of their contracts be revised and that salaries be increased. When it became evident that the School Board would not accept their proposals, a strike date was set. The students arrived at school May 17 only to be greeted by their striking teachers. Some substitutes were called, but there were not enough to cover all the classes. Consequently, the day was chaotic. Later that afternoon, however, a court injunction was issued forcing the teachers back to their classrooms on Tuesday morning.

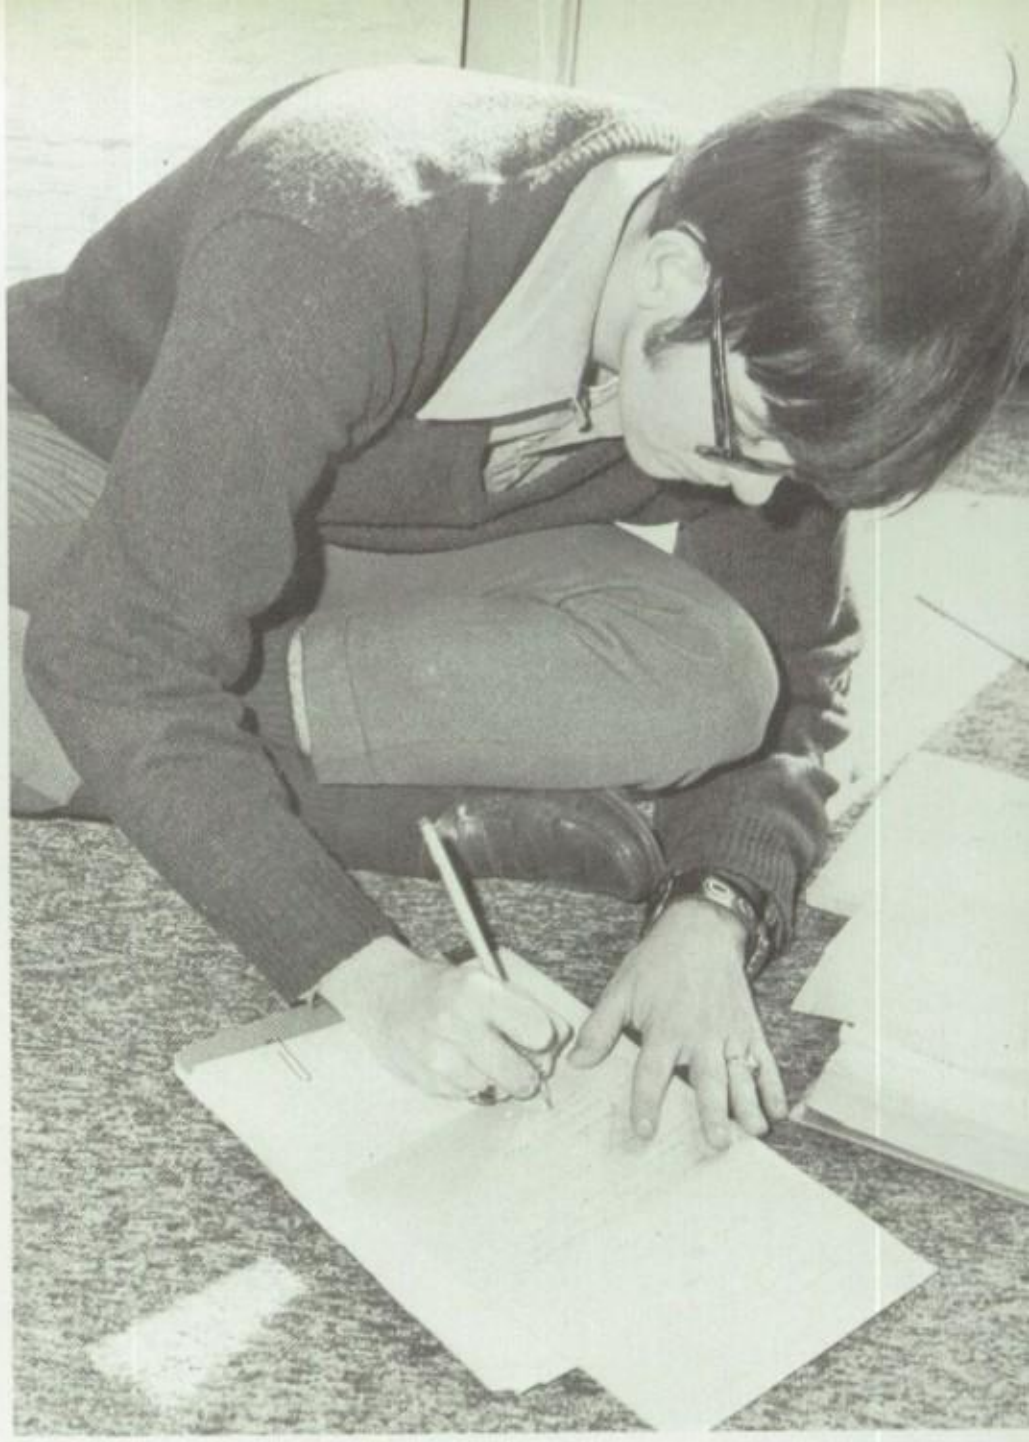
Senior Lounge

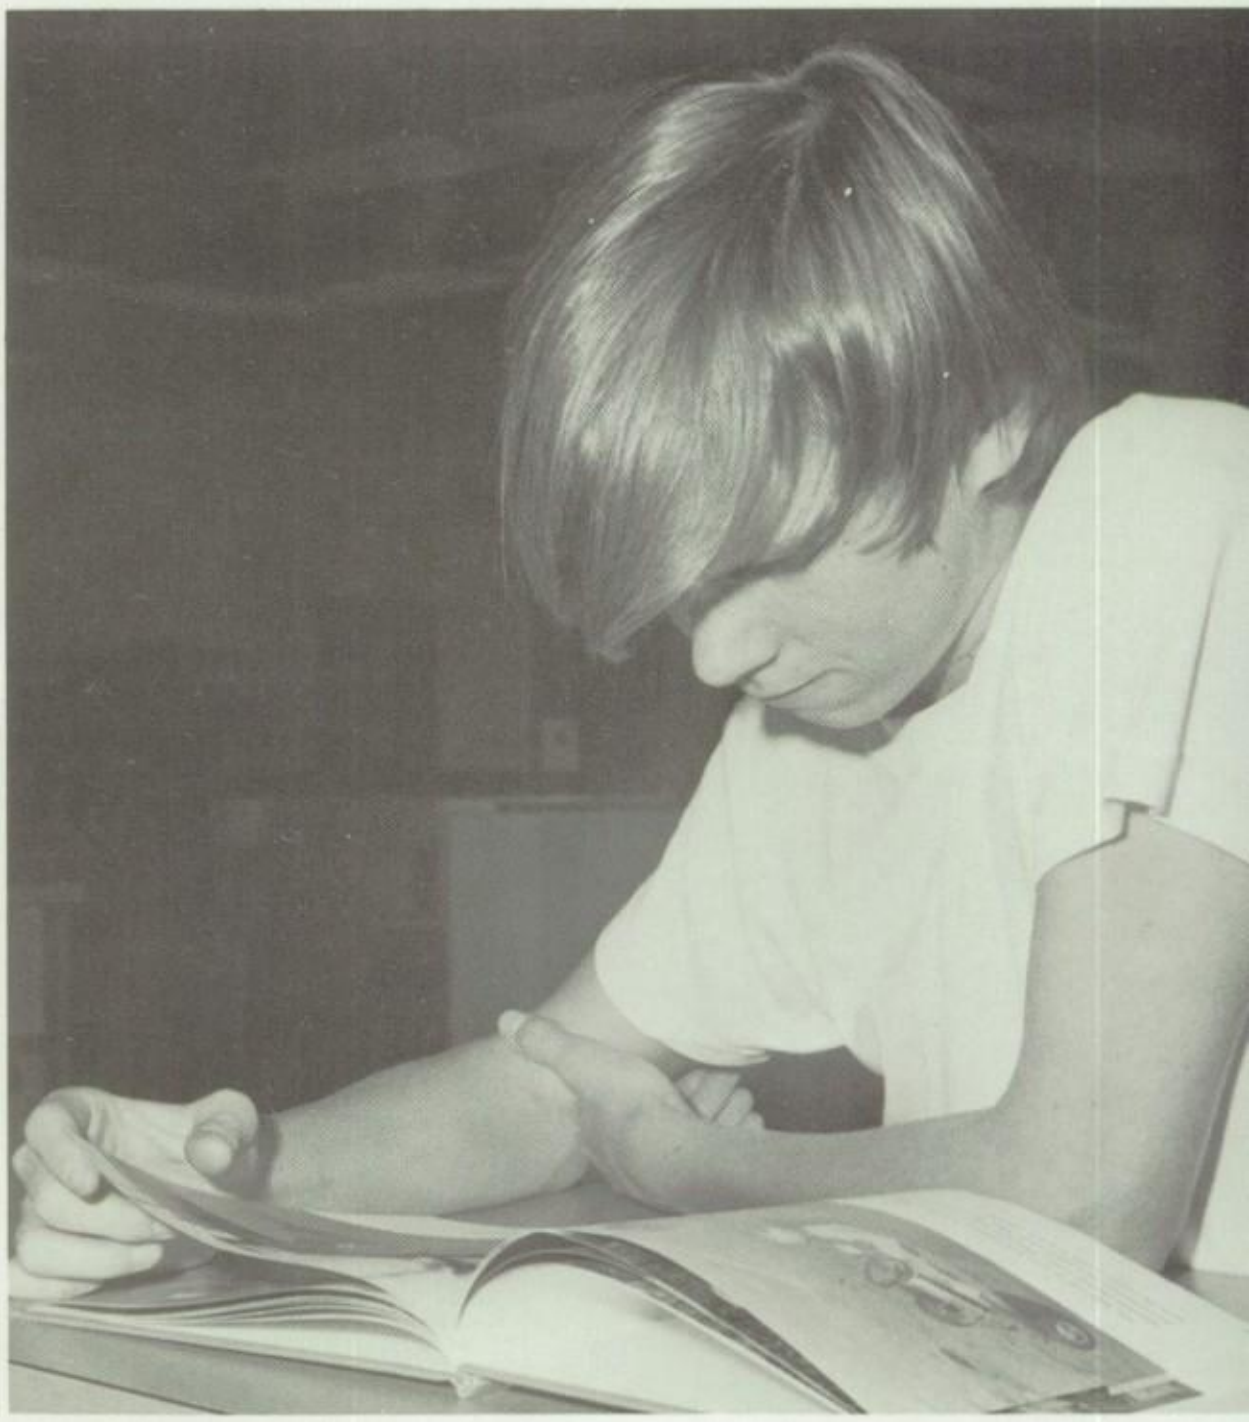
During their study halls, seniors at York Suburban may go to the senior lounge. In the lounge, students listen to the blaring music, drink soda, play cards and trade homework.

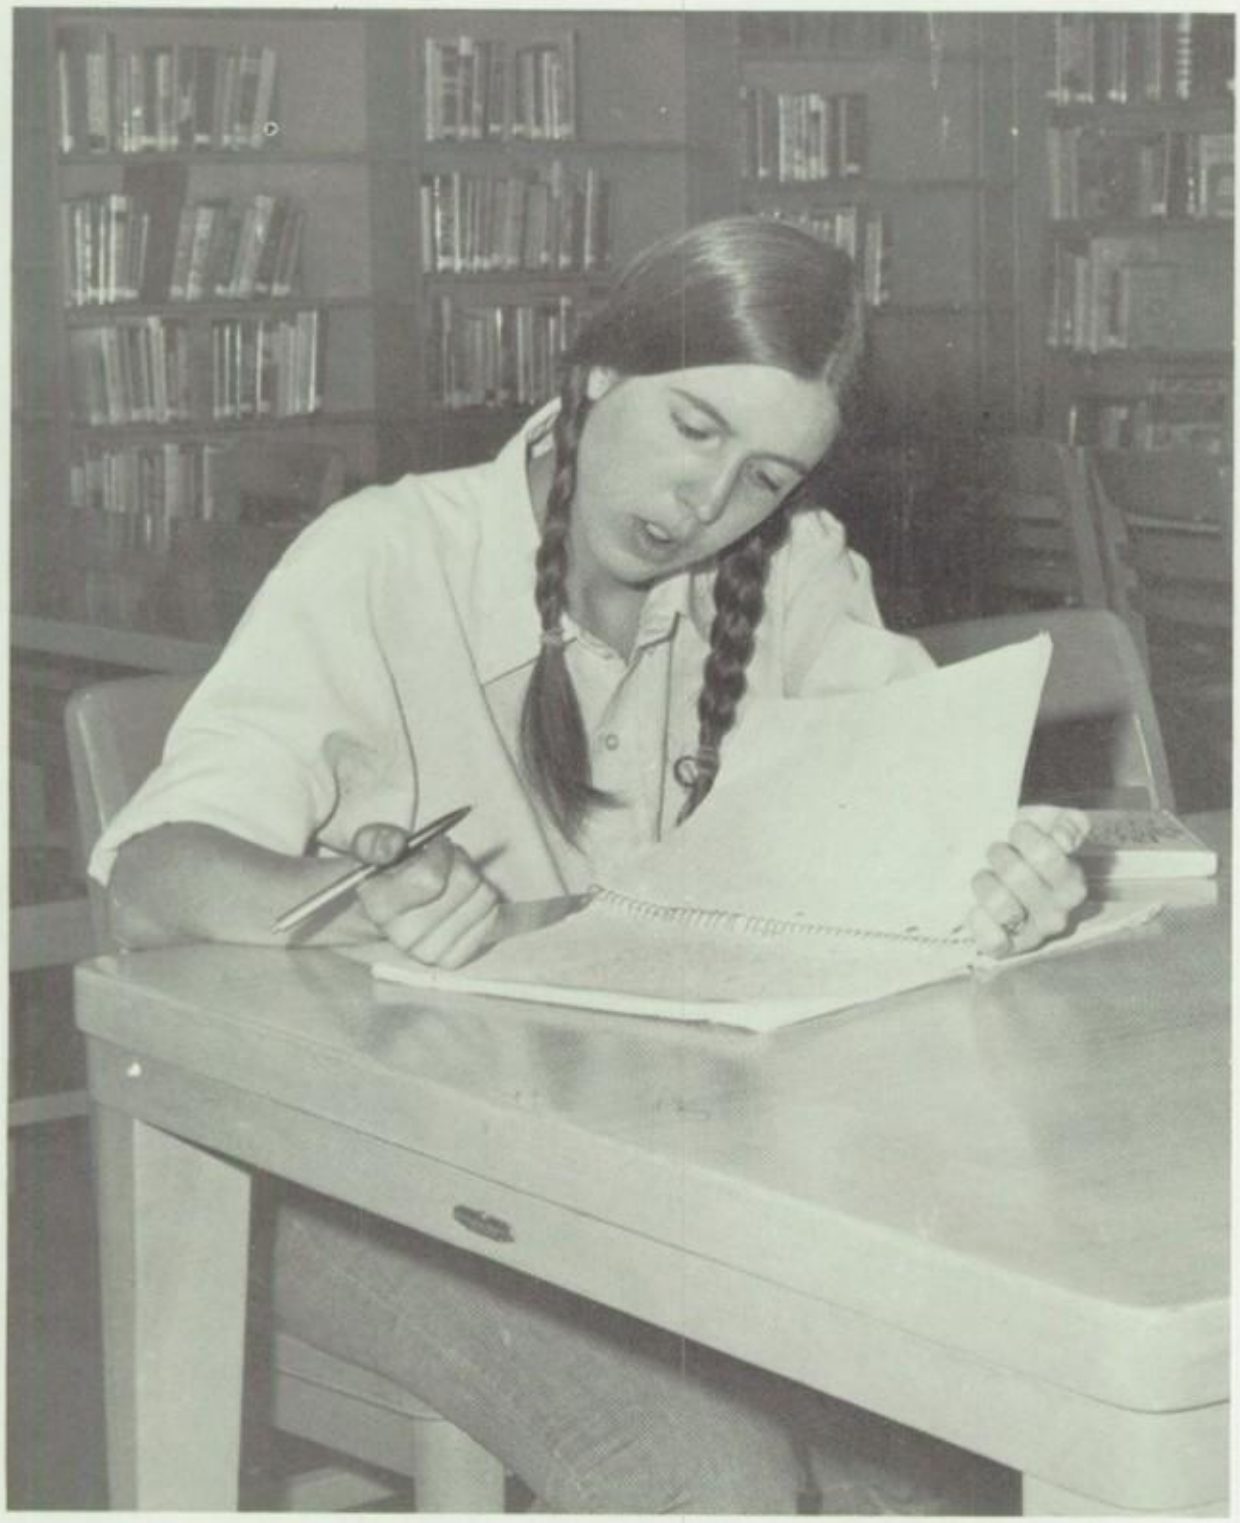
The Senior Class is totally responsible for the maintenance of the lounge, a room which theoretically provides a place for the seniors to get away from the pressures of class without adult supervision.

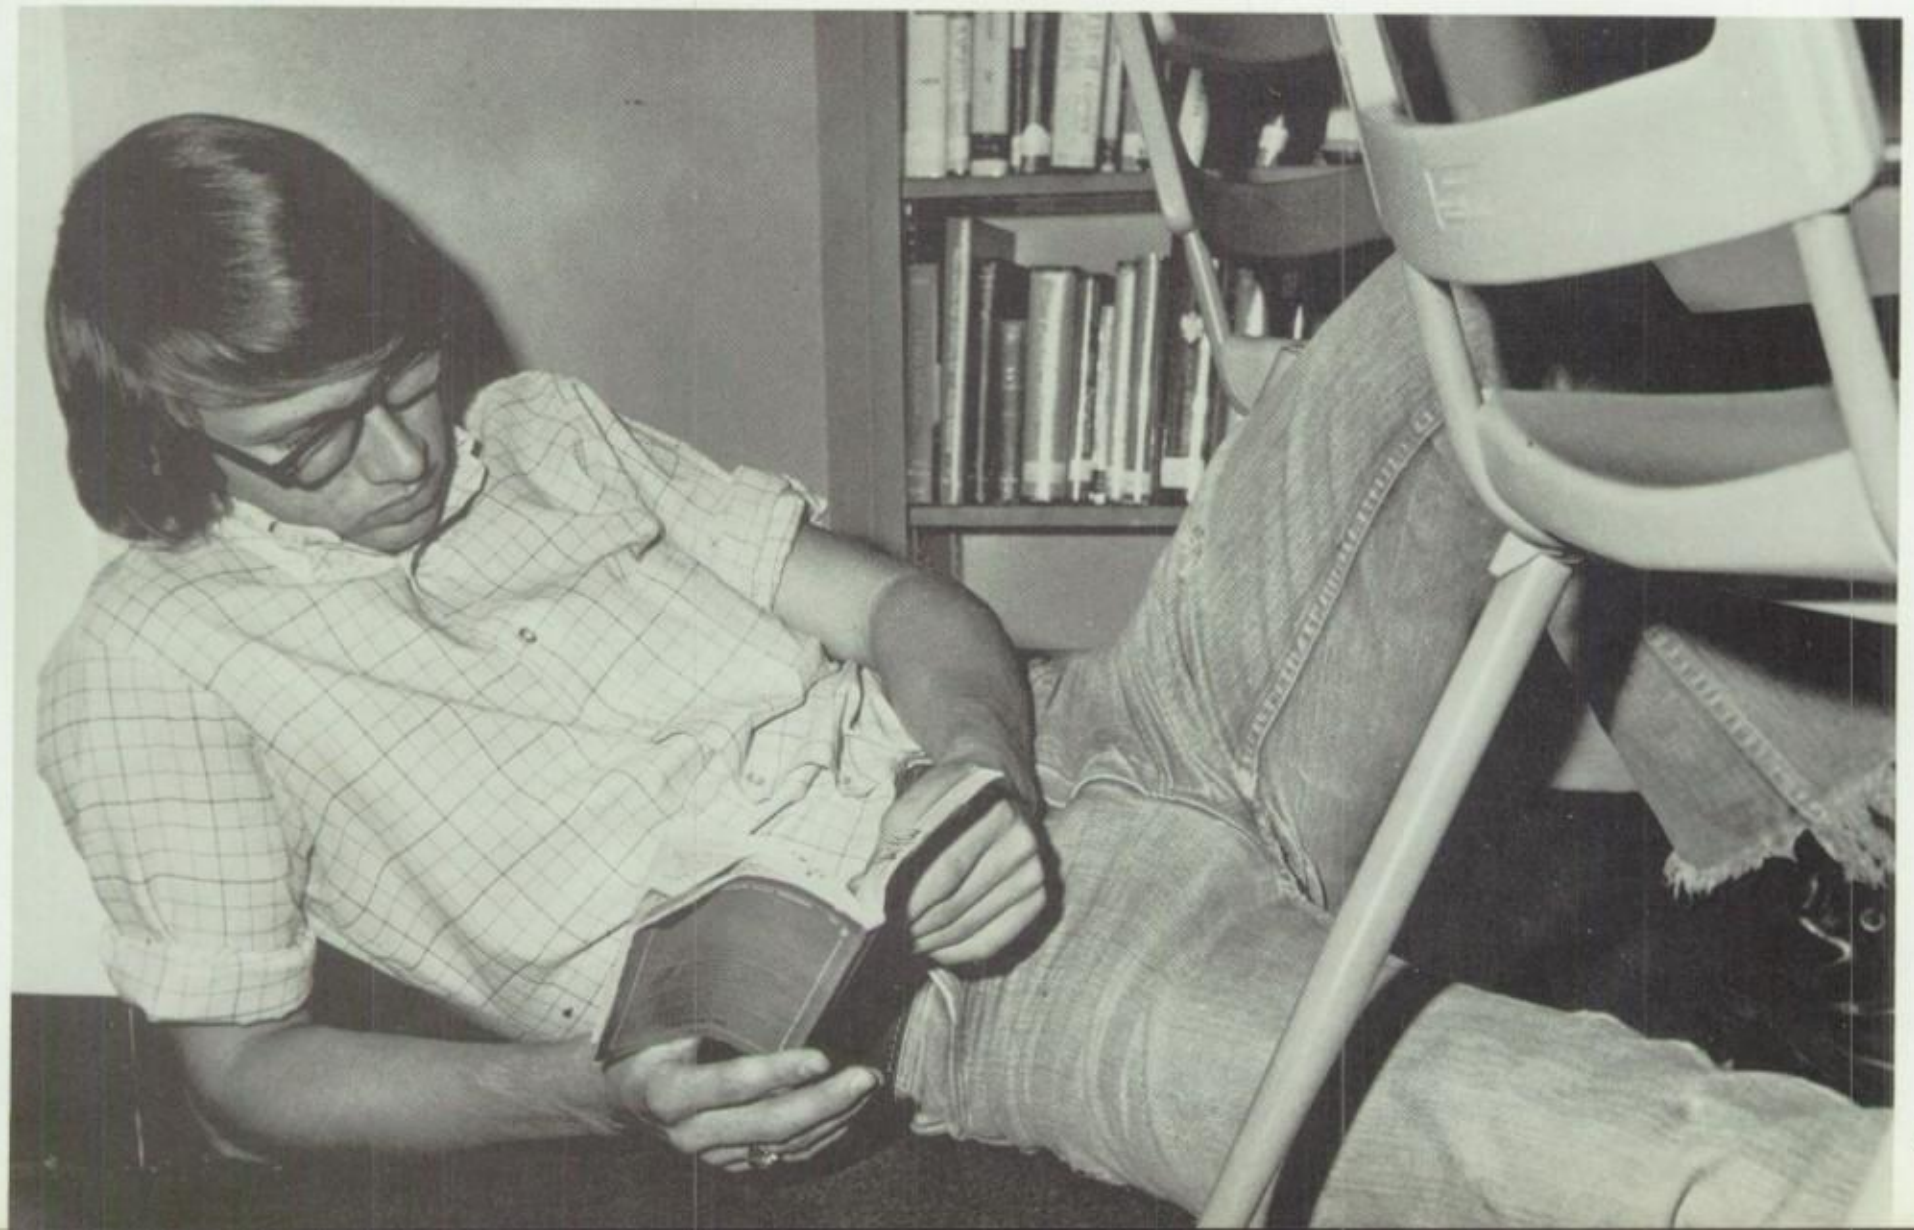


Library

What is a library? Despite the efforts of most librarians, a library is basically defined by the students who use or misuse its resources. For some students, the library is a place where they can take advantage of Suburban's excellent research material. For other students, the library is a sanctuary where they can relax, listen to records, read magazines, and converse with friends. Whether the description of citadel or sanctuary is most appropriate, there is little doubt that Suburban's library is a showcase throughout York County.







Cafeteria

All the students spend at least one period of the school day in the cafeteria. Although the cooks attempted to prepare the best meals possible with their limited budget, the students continued to cry jokingly about food poisoning and chronic indigestion. Some of the famous menus include deep sea dogs, school pizza, and spam. After the students finished eating, the cafeteria was magically transformed into a gambling casino, a night club room for telling jokes, or a study hall for last minute cramming.

Plays 86-91

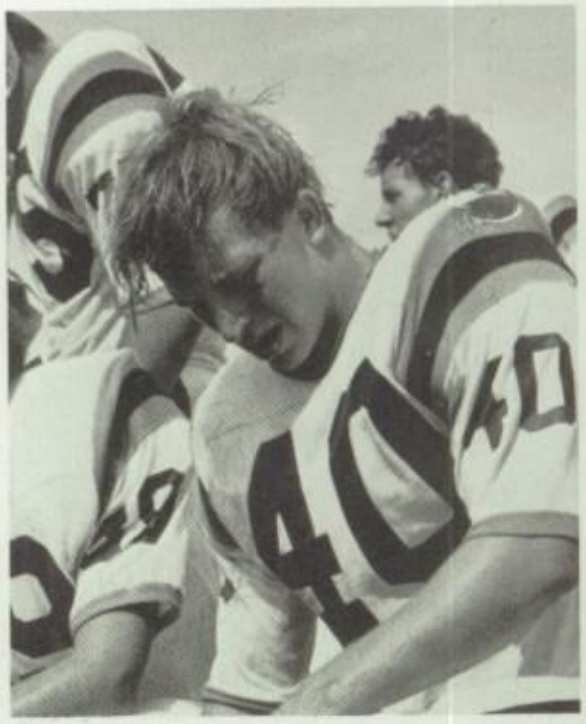
Organizations 91-103

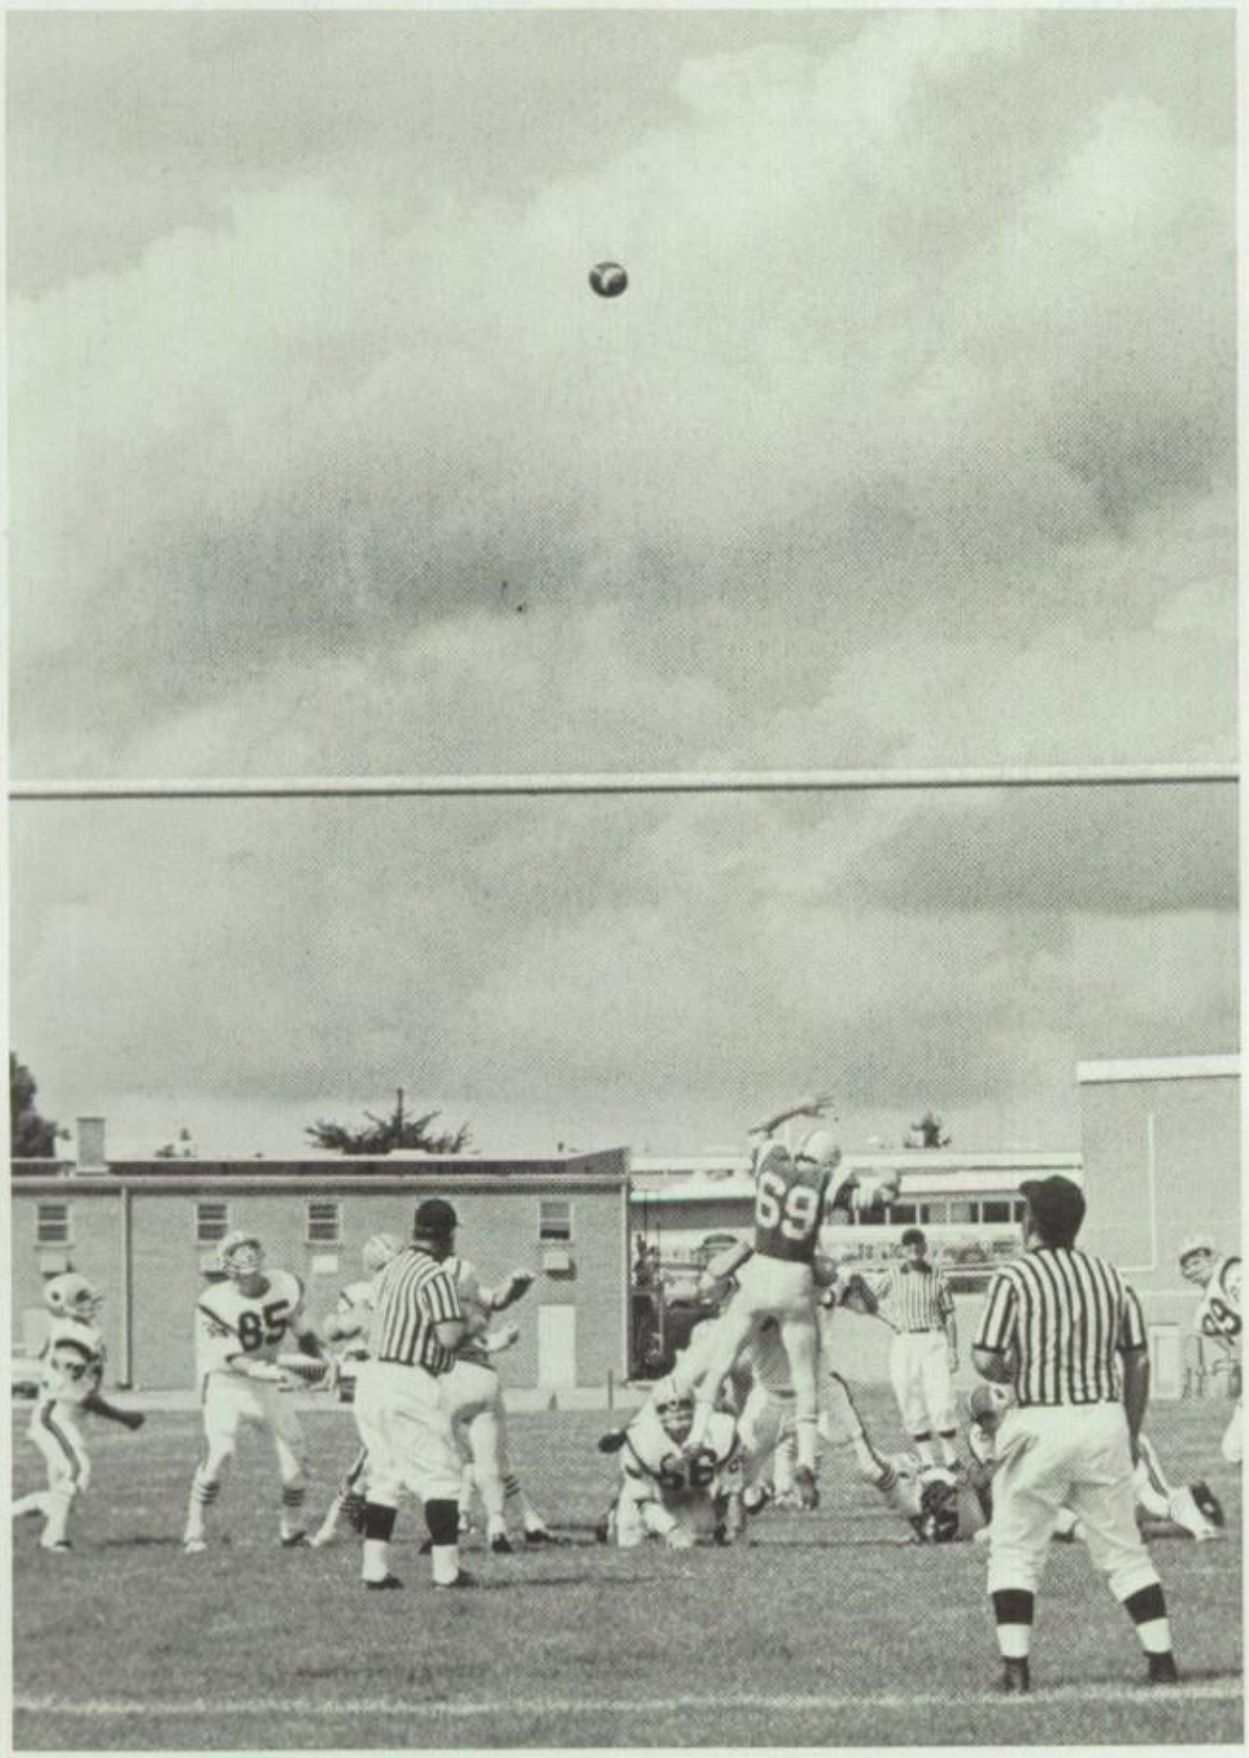
Football

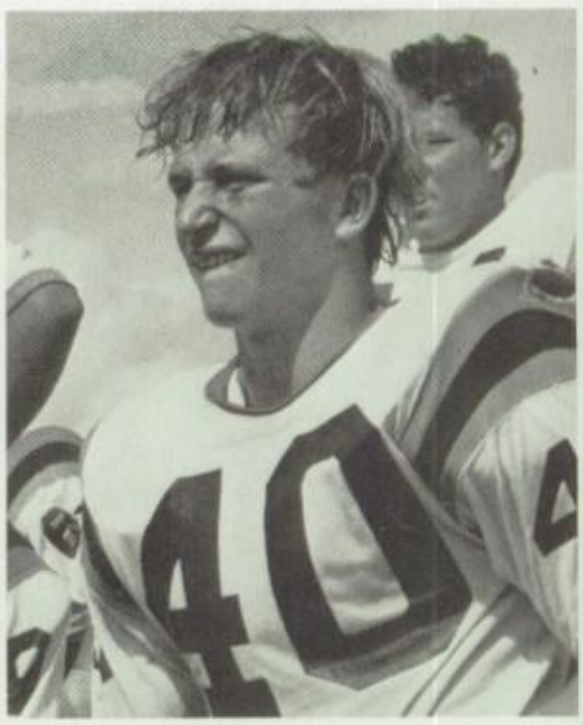
The football season started out to be very heartbreaking for dedicated Suburban fans. After losing to Central by 1 point, tying West York and losing to Dallastown by a mere two points, the students made an all-out effort to prove to the football team that the fans really did care. Several seniors weekly decorated a van complete with music, sirens, and microphones to incite student support. The end of the season was different. Red Lion, Southwestern, Susquehannock, and Vo-Tech all received crushing blows courtesy of the Trojans.

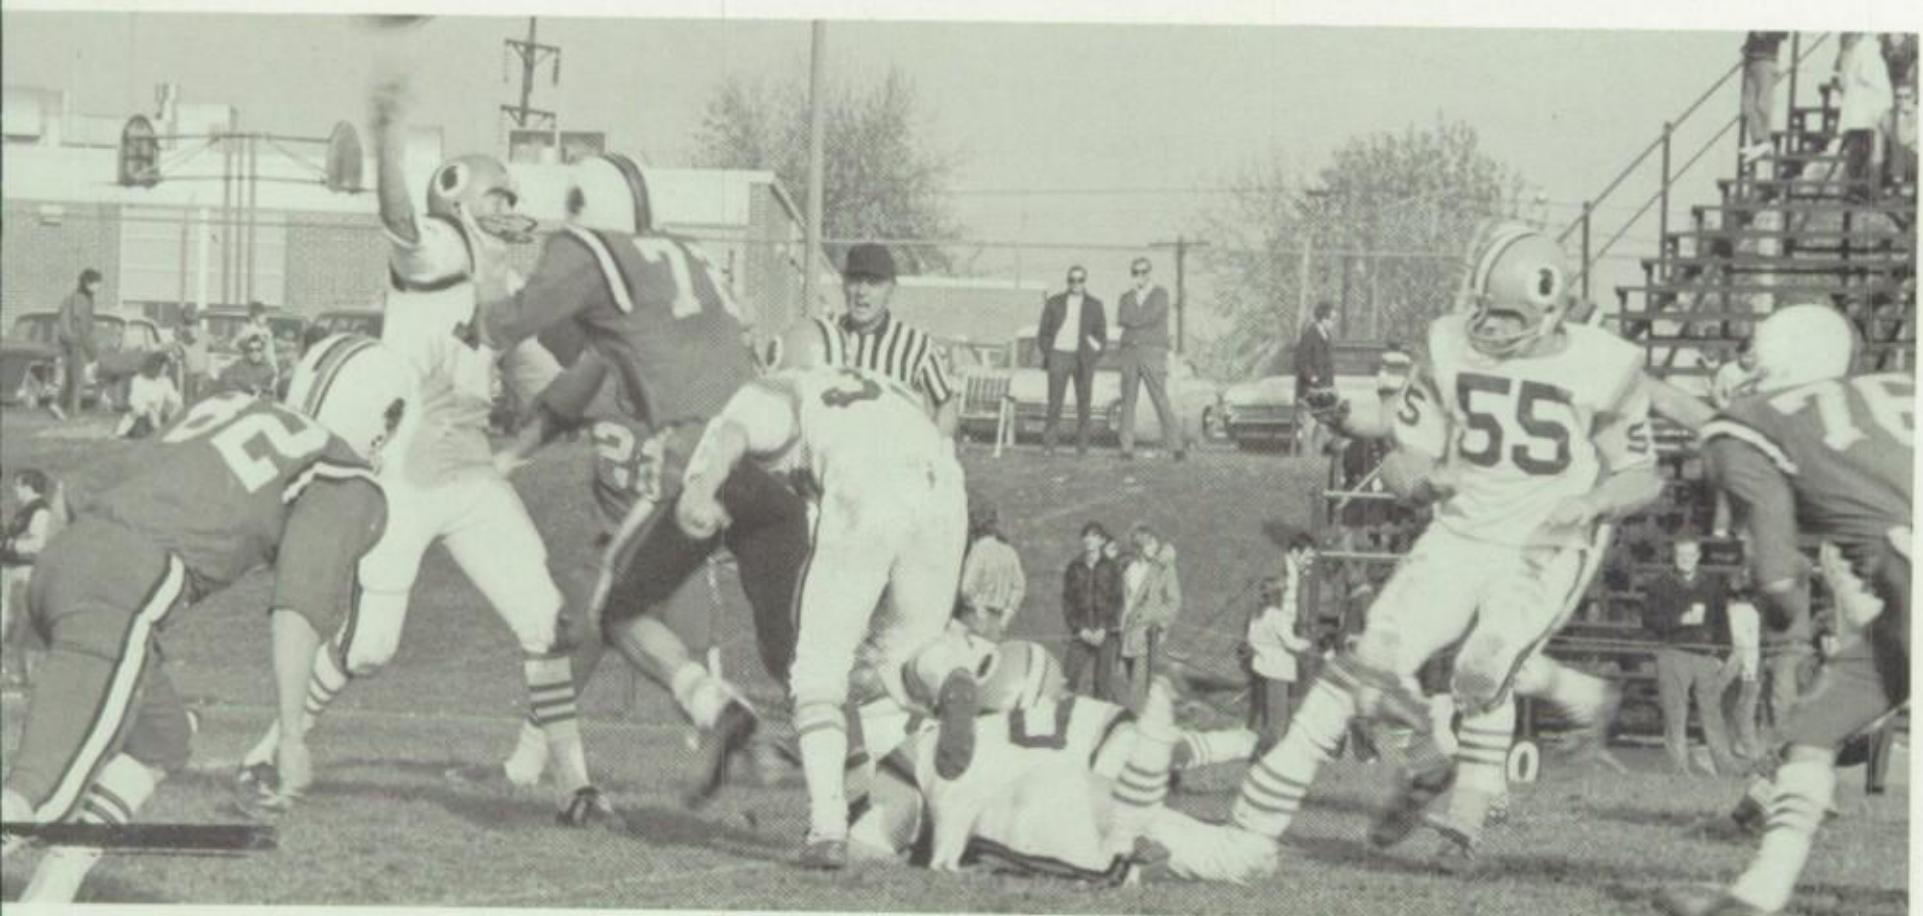
The standings were:

win	lost	tie	pts.
5	3	1	11









Field Hockey

The spirited 1971 field hockey team, under the direction of Coach Peggy Zarfos, tied Dallastown for second place. In the first game the team shut out Southwestern, but the girls were stopped in their bid for the championship by a tie with Central and a loss to Spring Grove. A winning streak was started again with a win over Red Lion and continued until the next to last game when they again battled to a scoreless tie, this time with West York. The team ended the season with a win over Dallastown, the team with whom they shared second place.

The standings were:

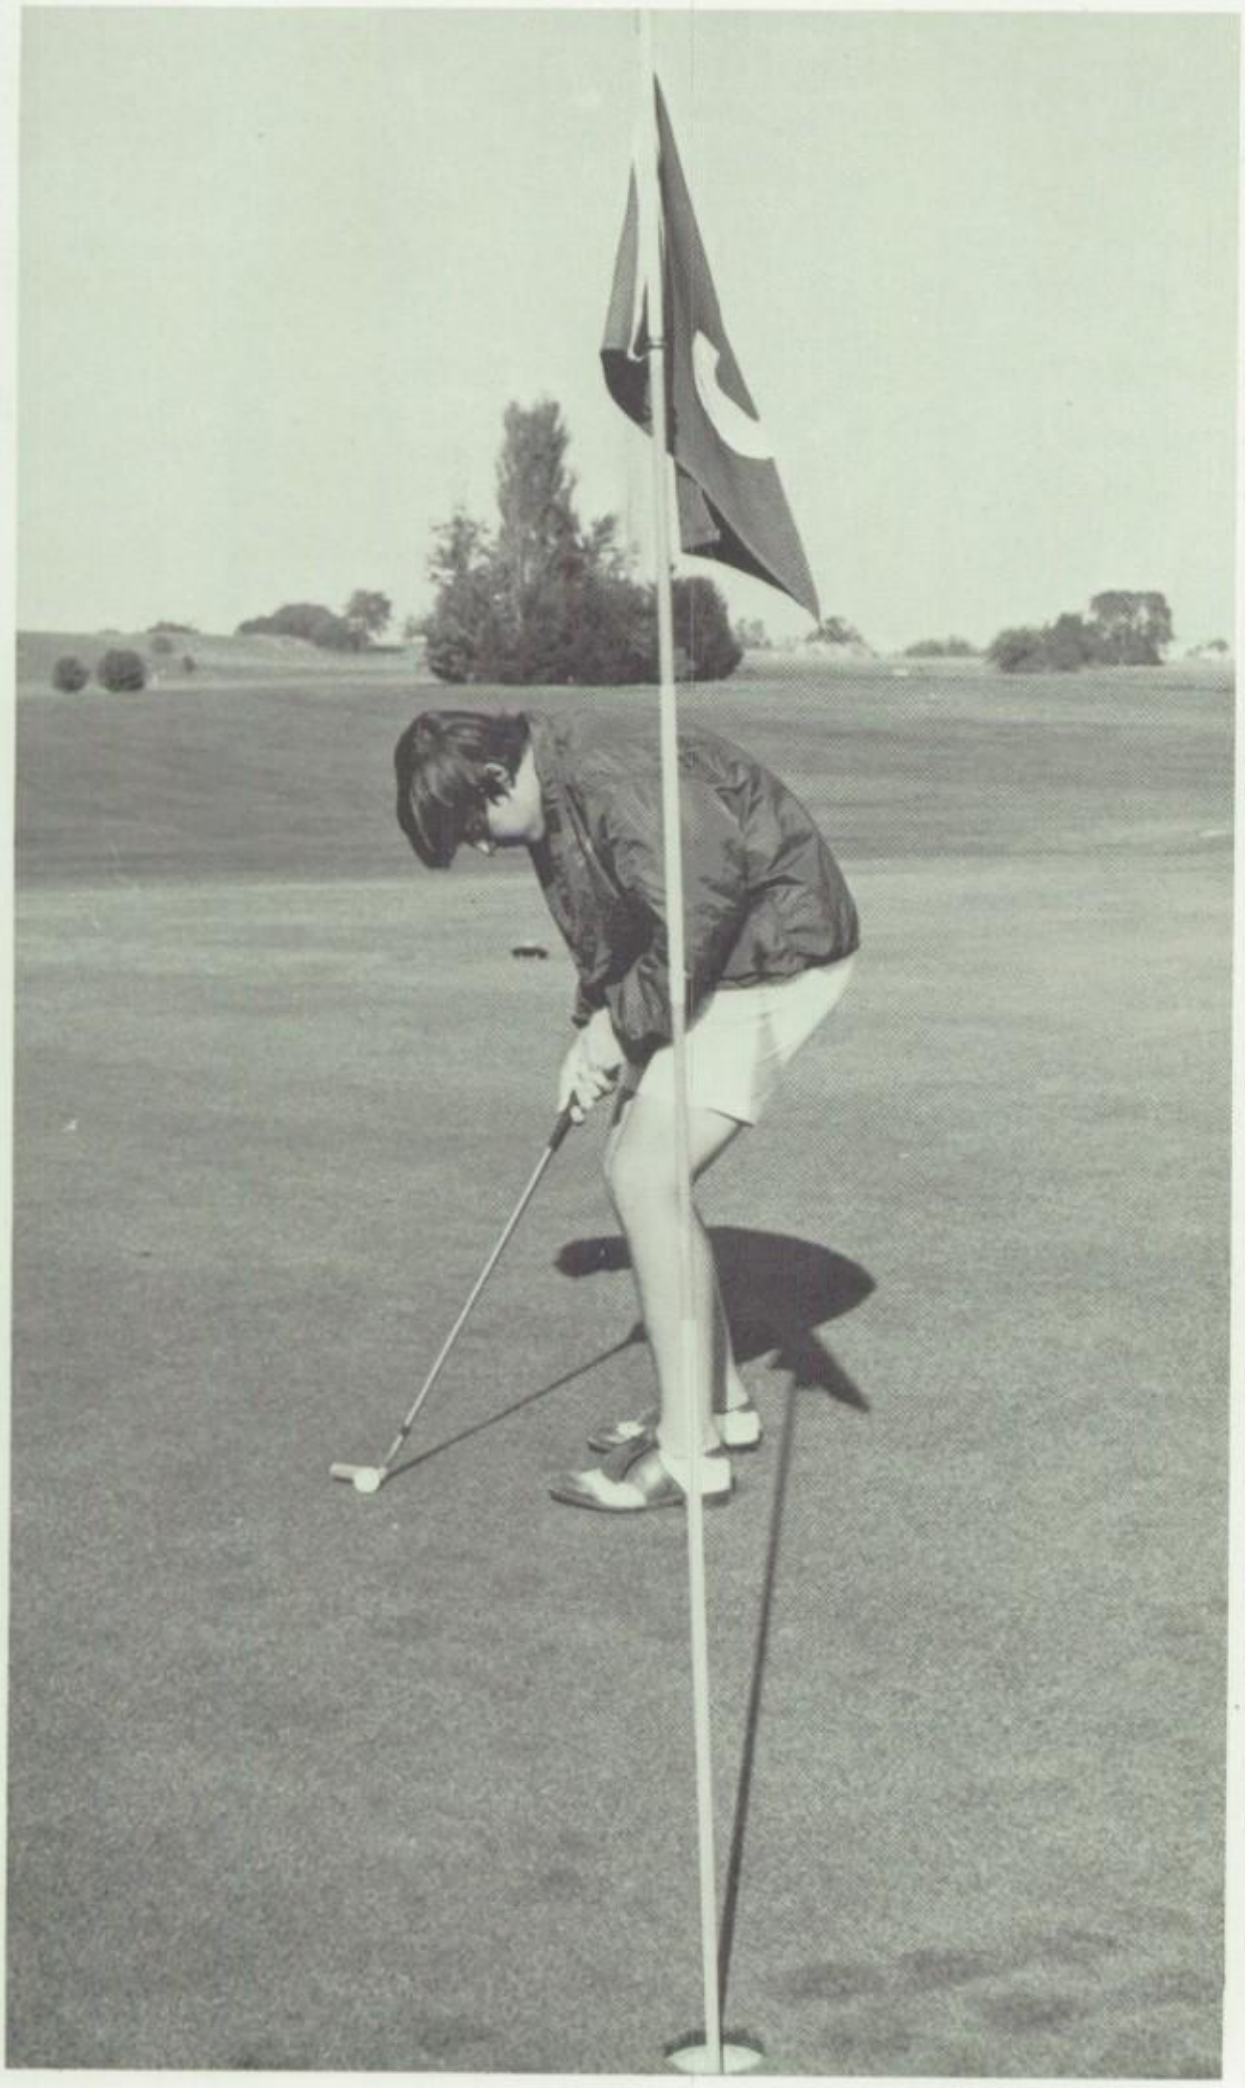
win	lose	tie	pts.
7	1	2	16

Cross Country

Before school started, Mr. David Meanor had the cross country team practicing. The boys could be seen running, skipping, and hopping around the track. Running several miles daily, the people in the neighborhood often saw the Suburban striders. An outstanding runner, Geof Weeks, established a new school record, shortening the old one by six seconds.

The standings were:

won	lost	tied	pts.
3	5	0	6



Golf

With skill and ambition, Suburban golfers placed second in the Eastern division of the YCIAA Golf League. After losing the first two games to York Catholic and Susquehannock, the Trojans captured their initial victory by bouncing D-Town from the unbeaten ranks by a score of 15 to 5. The next game with Red Lion was an easy win, followed by a triumph over Eastern. As the schedule began again, the linksmen lost to York Catholic, who won the championship. From then on, the golfers were victorious in all matches.

Final standings:

wins	losses	ties	pts.
7	3	0	14

Tennis

During 1971 competition, the York Suburban tennis squad was slighted by score but boosted by morale.

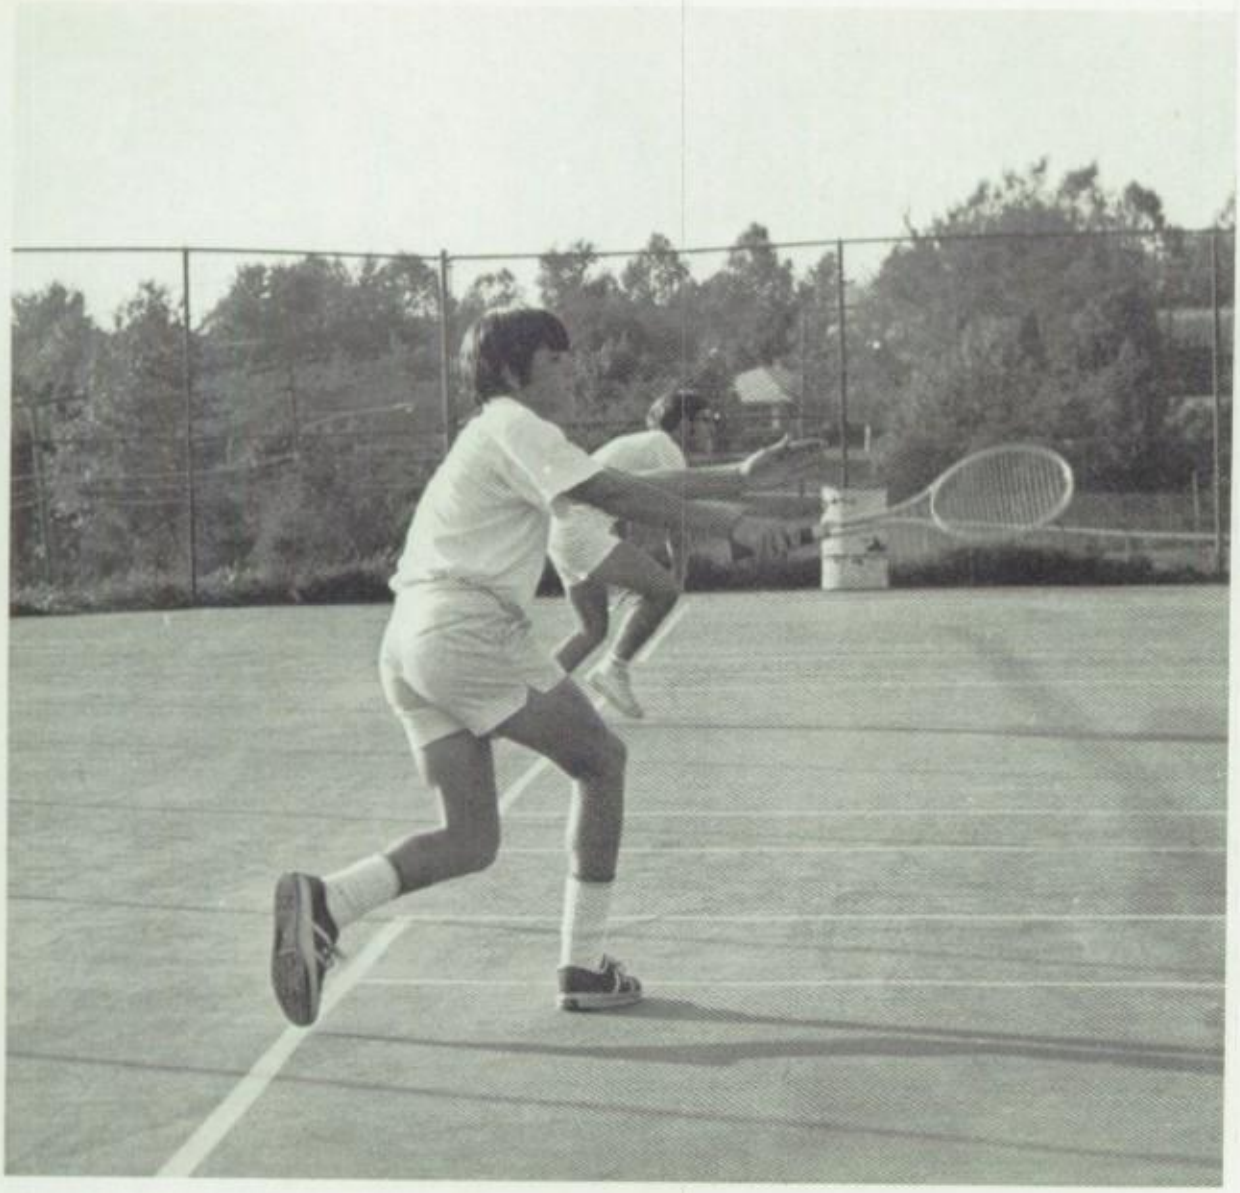
The climax of the season was the important match with Northeastern, the eventual league champion. Though defeated by the Bobcats, the Suburban netmen did not go down without a struggle.

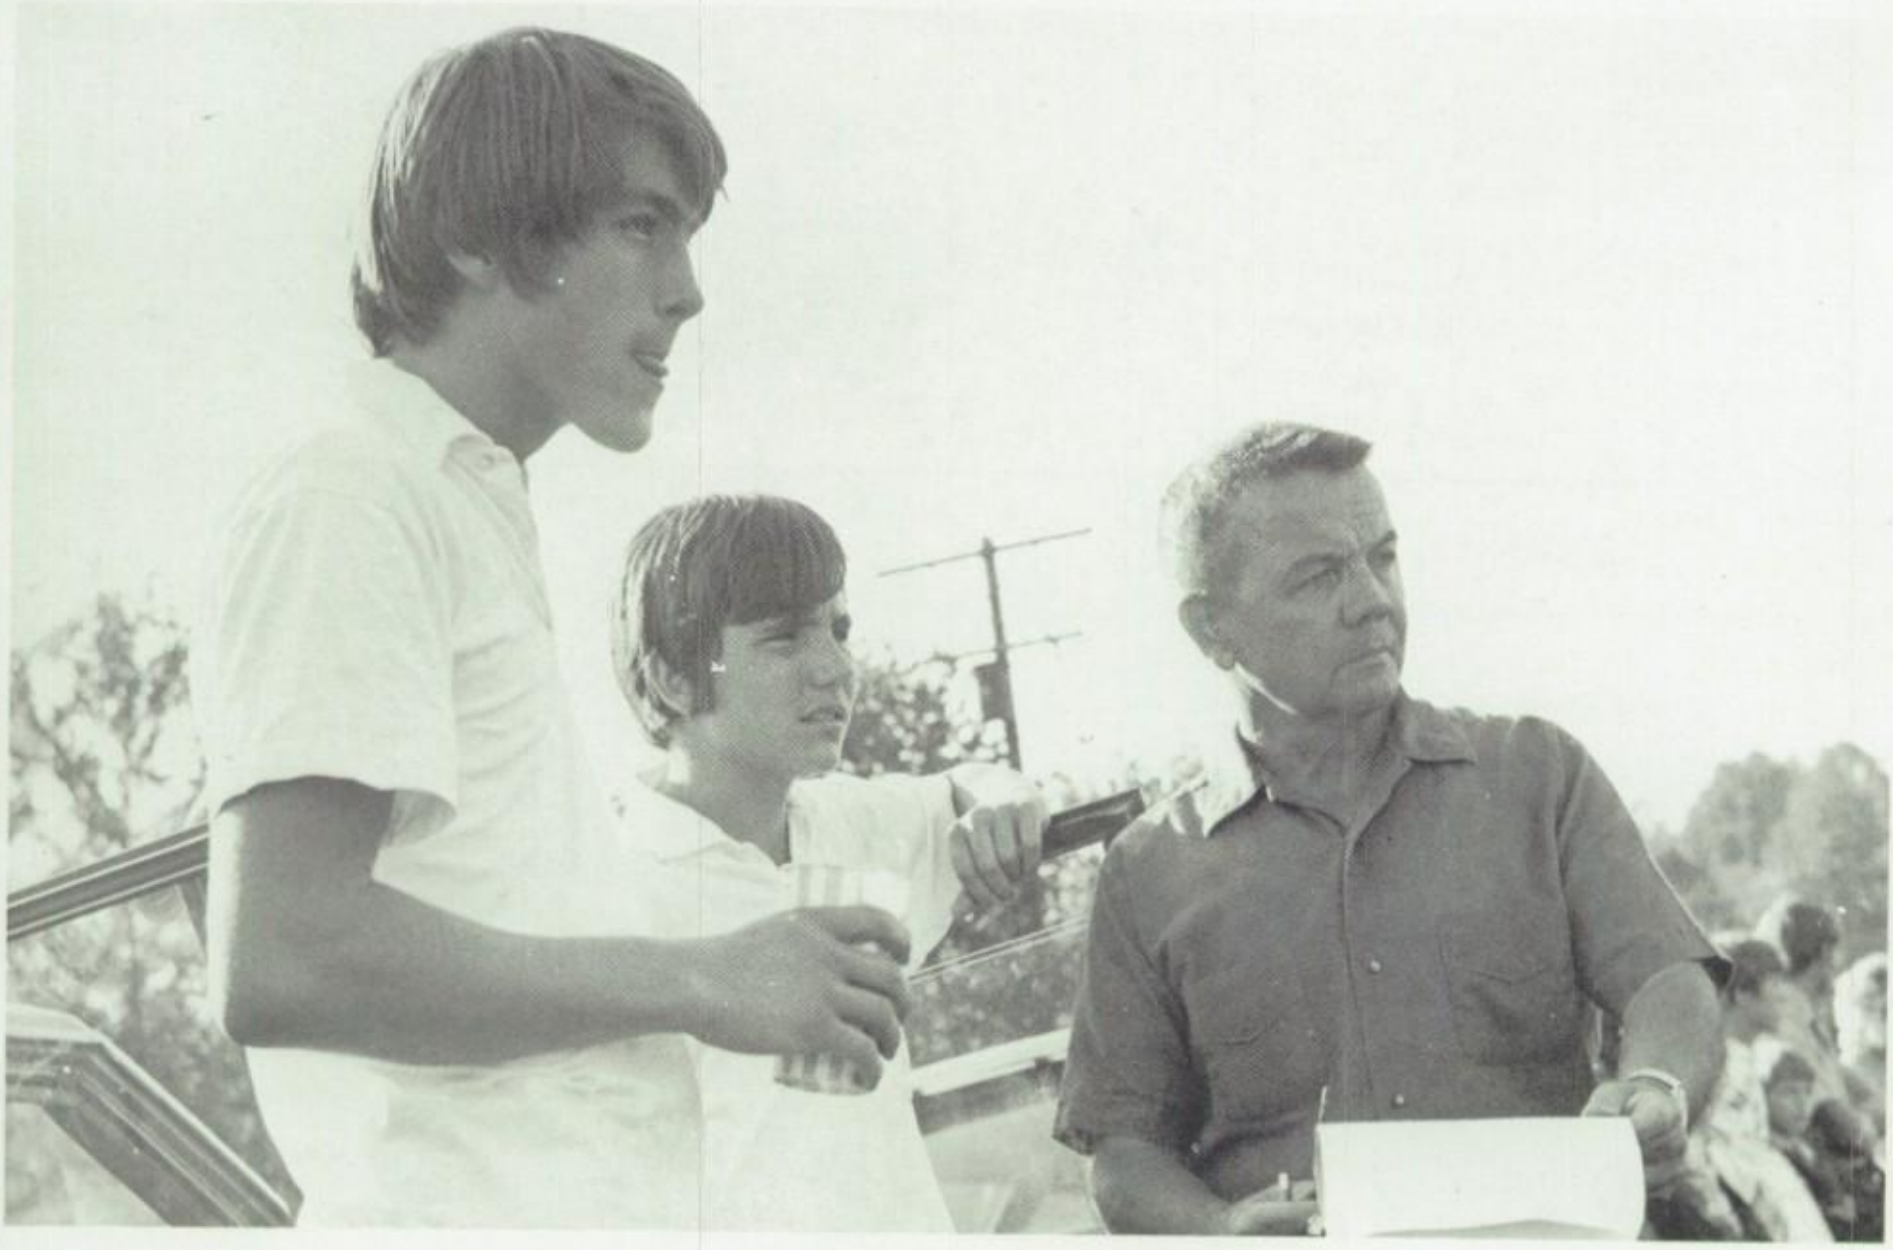
Reflecting on the efforts of individual team members, Coach Branch Blair said that Pete Gaily, a freshman who played well in singles, and Bill Long, a sophomore who played well in both singles and doubles, deserved special recognition for their performances.

Coach Blair is already looking forward to next year when he hopes Suburban will reclaim the county championship.

The standings were:

won	lost	tie	pts.
4	6	0	8





Basketball

For basketball fans and players the 1972 Suburban season was certainly one of which to be proud. With a gruelling schedule of 24 games over a twelve week season, it's easy for basketball players to lose momentum. But the Trojans paced the league throughout the season. After 8 league wins their first loss was an almost unbelievable 72-70 victory by Spring Grove.

In a quick comeback, however, the team was able to capture the Eastern Division championship.

Each game saw players with double figure scores, notably, Steve Czyzewicz, Rick Duker, Larry Myers, Scott Rath, Alan Spencer, and Randy Stetler.

After a crushing defeat by West York for the County Championship, the Trojans surprised everyone by nearly upsetting the state powerhouse, the Reading Red Knights, in play-off competition at the State Farm Show Arena.

Wrestling

The Trojan wrestlers were early leaders in the YCIAA circuit, registering wins in the first five matches. They ran into trouble, however, midway through the season, beginning with a loss to Spring Grove. The most exciting match of the season for Suburban fans was the 24-23 victory over Eastern, made possible by a first period pin in the unlimited competition. Several outstanding wrestlers earning special recognition at the Lititz Lions Invitation Wrestling Tournament were — Bob Kronenberg, Phil Hurlbert and Kim Wilkins.

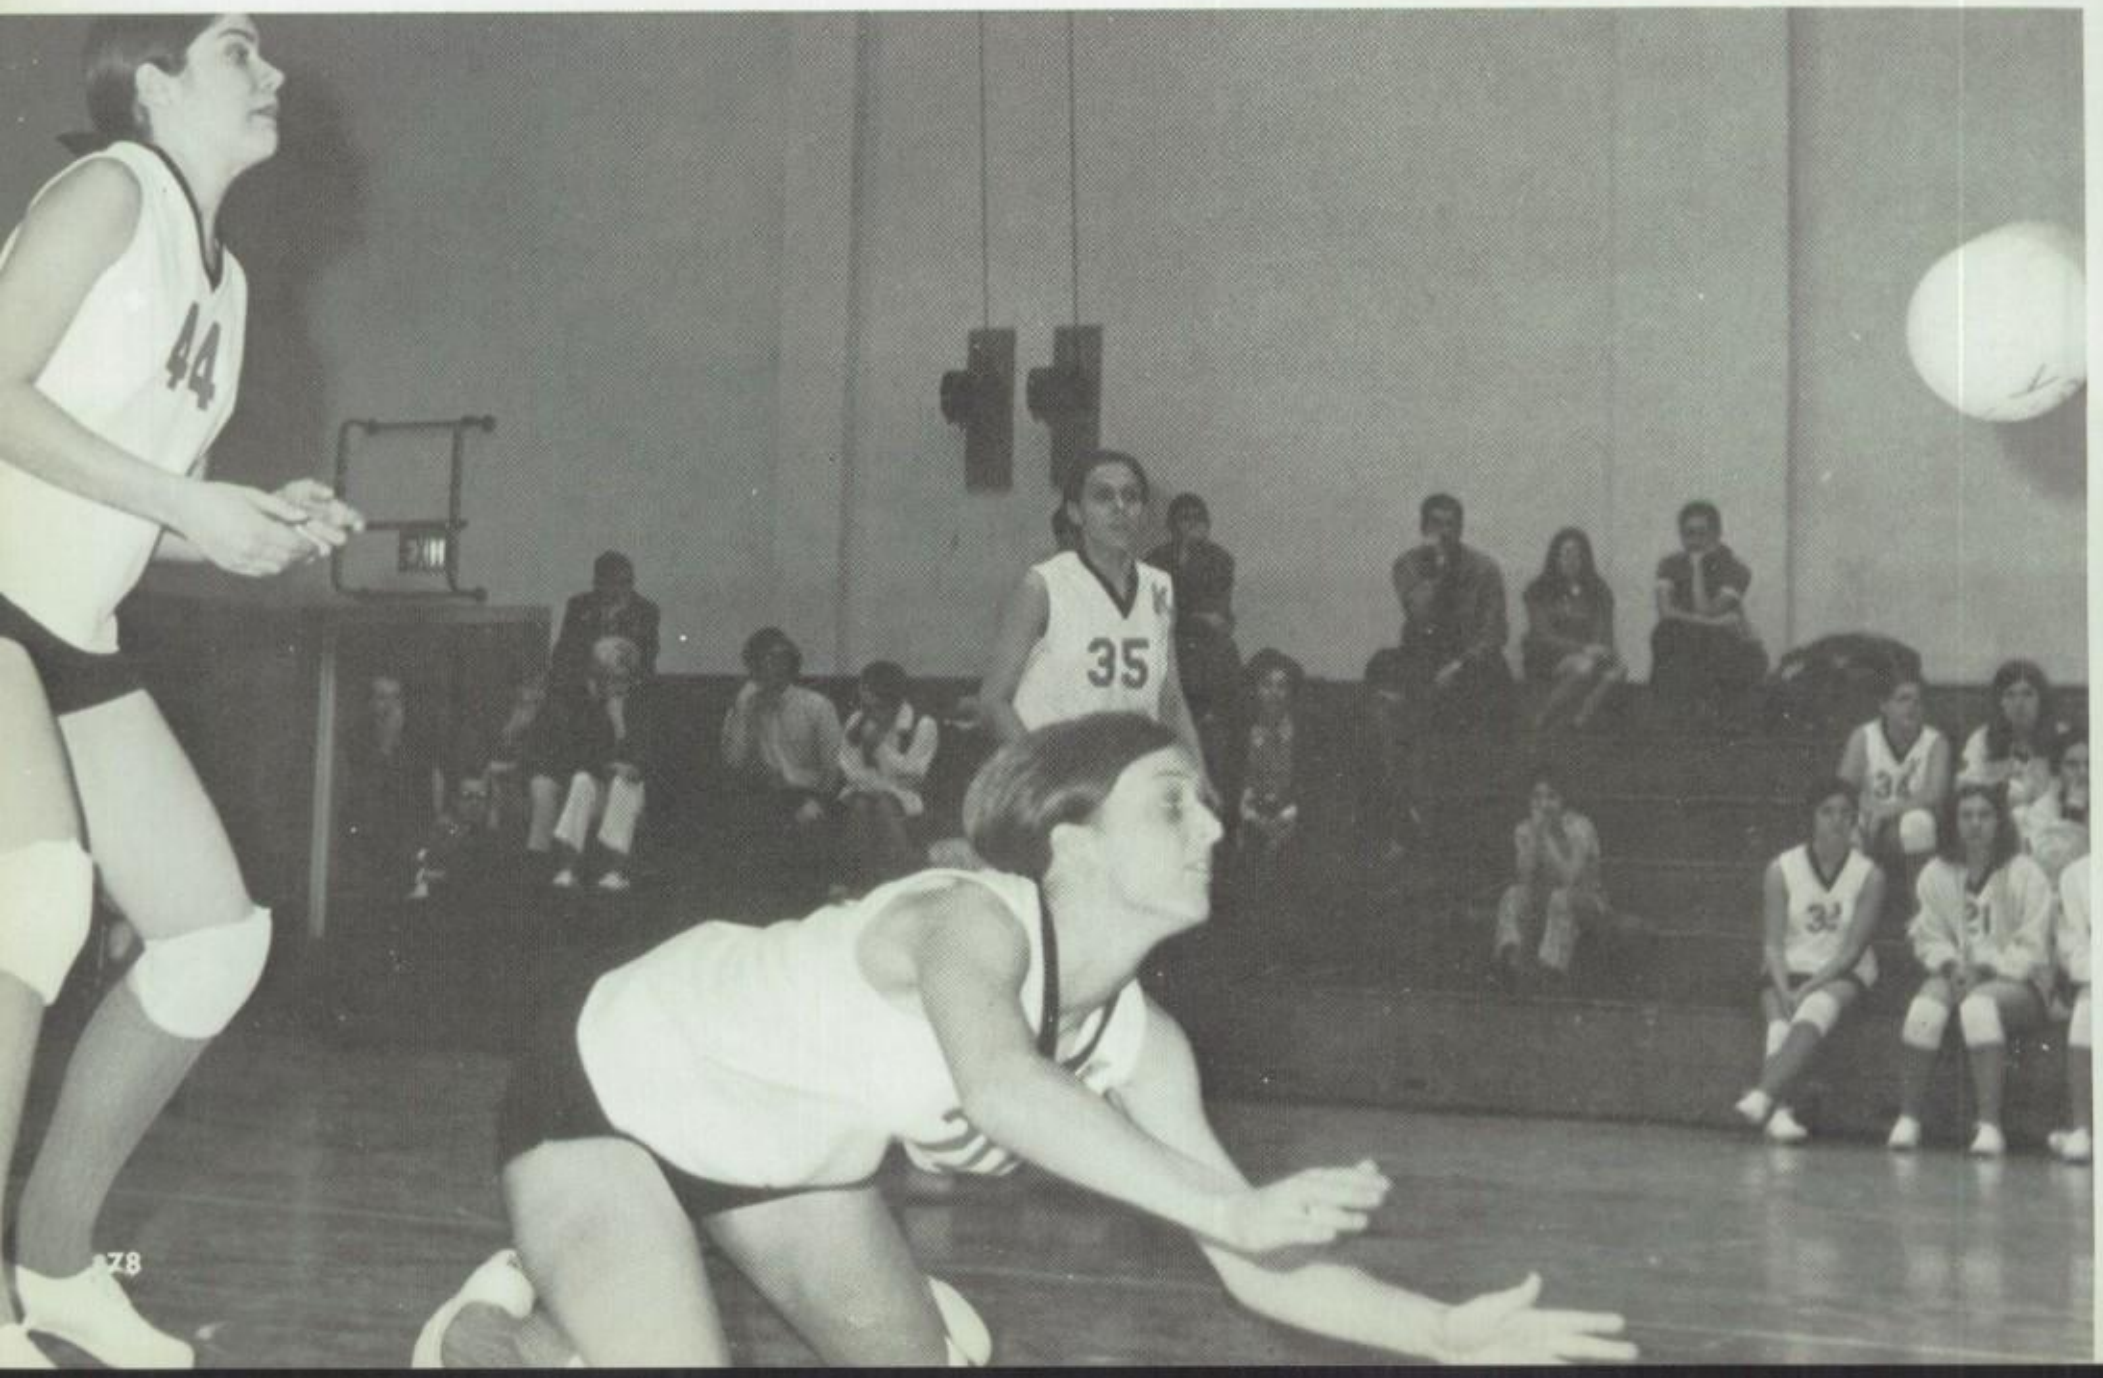
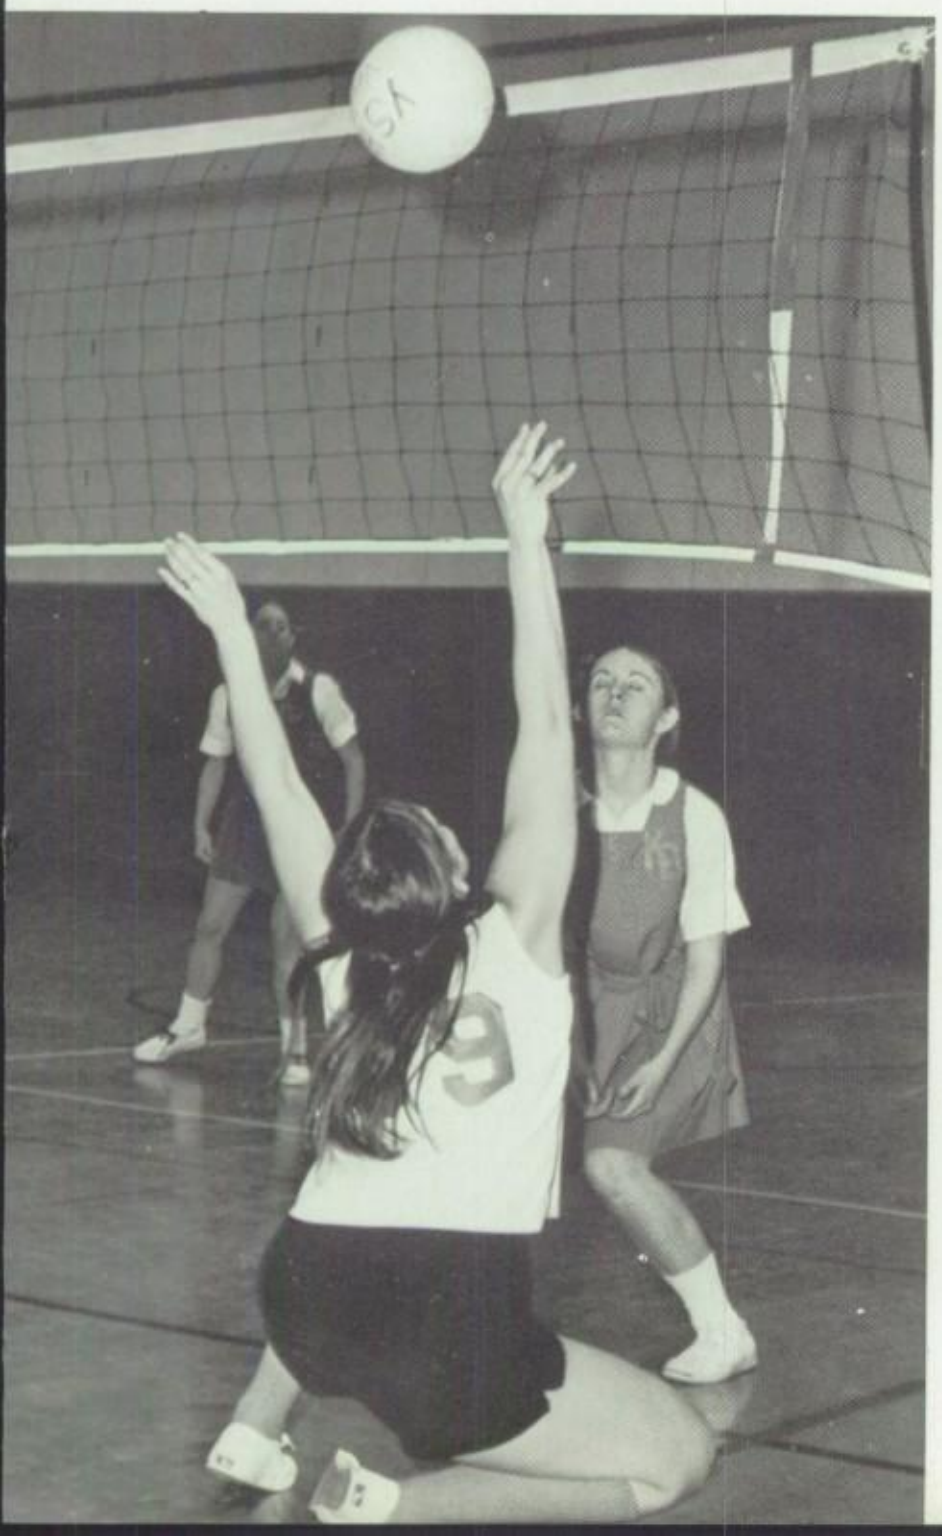
Swimming

Championship bound Guyer's Guppies shattered record after record during the 1972 season. In the 200 yard individual medley, Steve Stambaugh broke the former record he set last season three times. He also posted new times in the 100 and 200 yard freestyle events. Bob Wardell broke the 400 yard freestyle record; Bill Wagner the 100 yard breaststroke; and Rob Schaumann the diving record with 217.35 points. The old pool record, as well as the old school record, was broken in the 400 yard freestyle event by the team of Mike Young, Wagner, Walt Young and Stambaugh. Stambaugh, Wardell and Wagner also hold pool records at Governor Mifflin.

The season climaxed Jan. 21 in the meet against Wilson High. Wilson was the only stumbling block for the team last year, and the Guppies were determined to repay them. Included in the action were three new school records, a judge's decision and a new pool record. The meet was won by the Trojans in the final 400 yard freestyle relay.

Not only was Suburban the team to beat in the Central Penn League, but it also gave stiff competition to teams all across Pennsylvania. The team gained honors early in the season by placing second in the Western Pennsylvania High School Pre-Season Swimming Championships held at Clarion State College. On Jan. 15, the Guppies placed first in the Easton Relay Carnival out of a field of 14 competing teams.





Volleyball

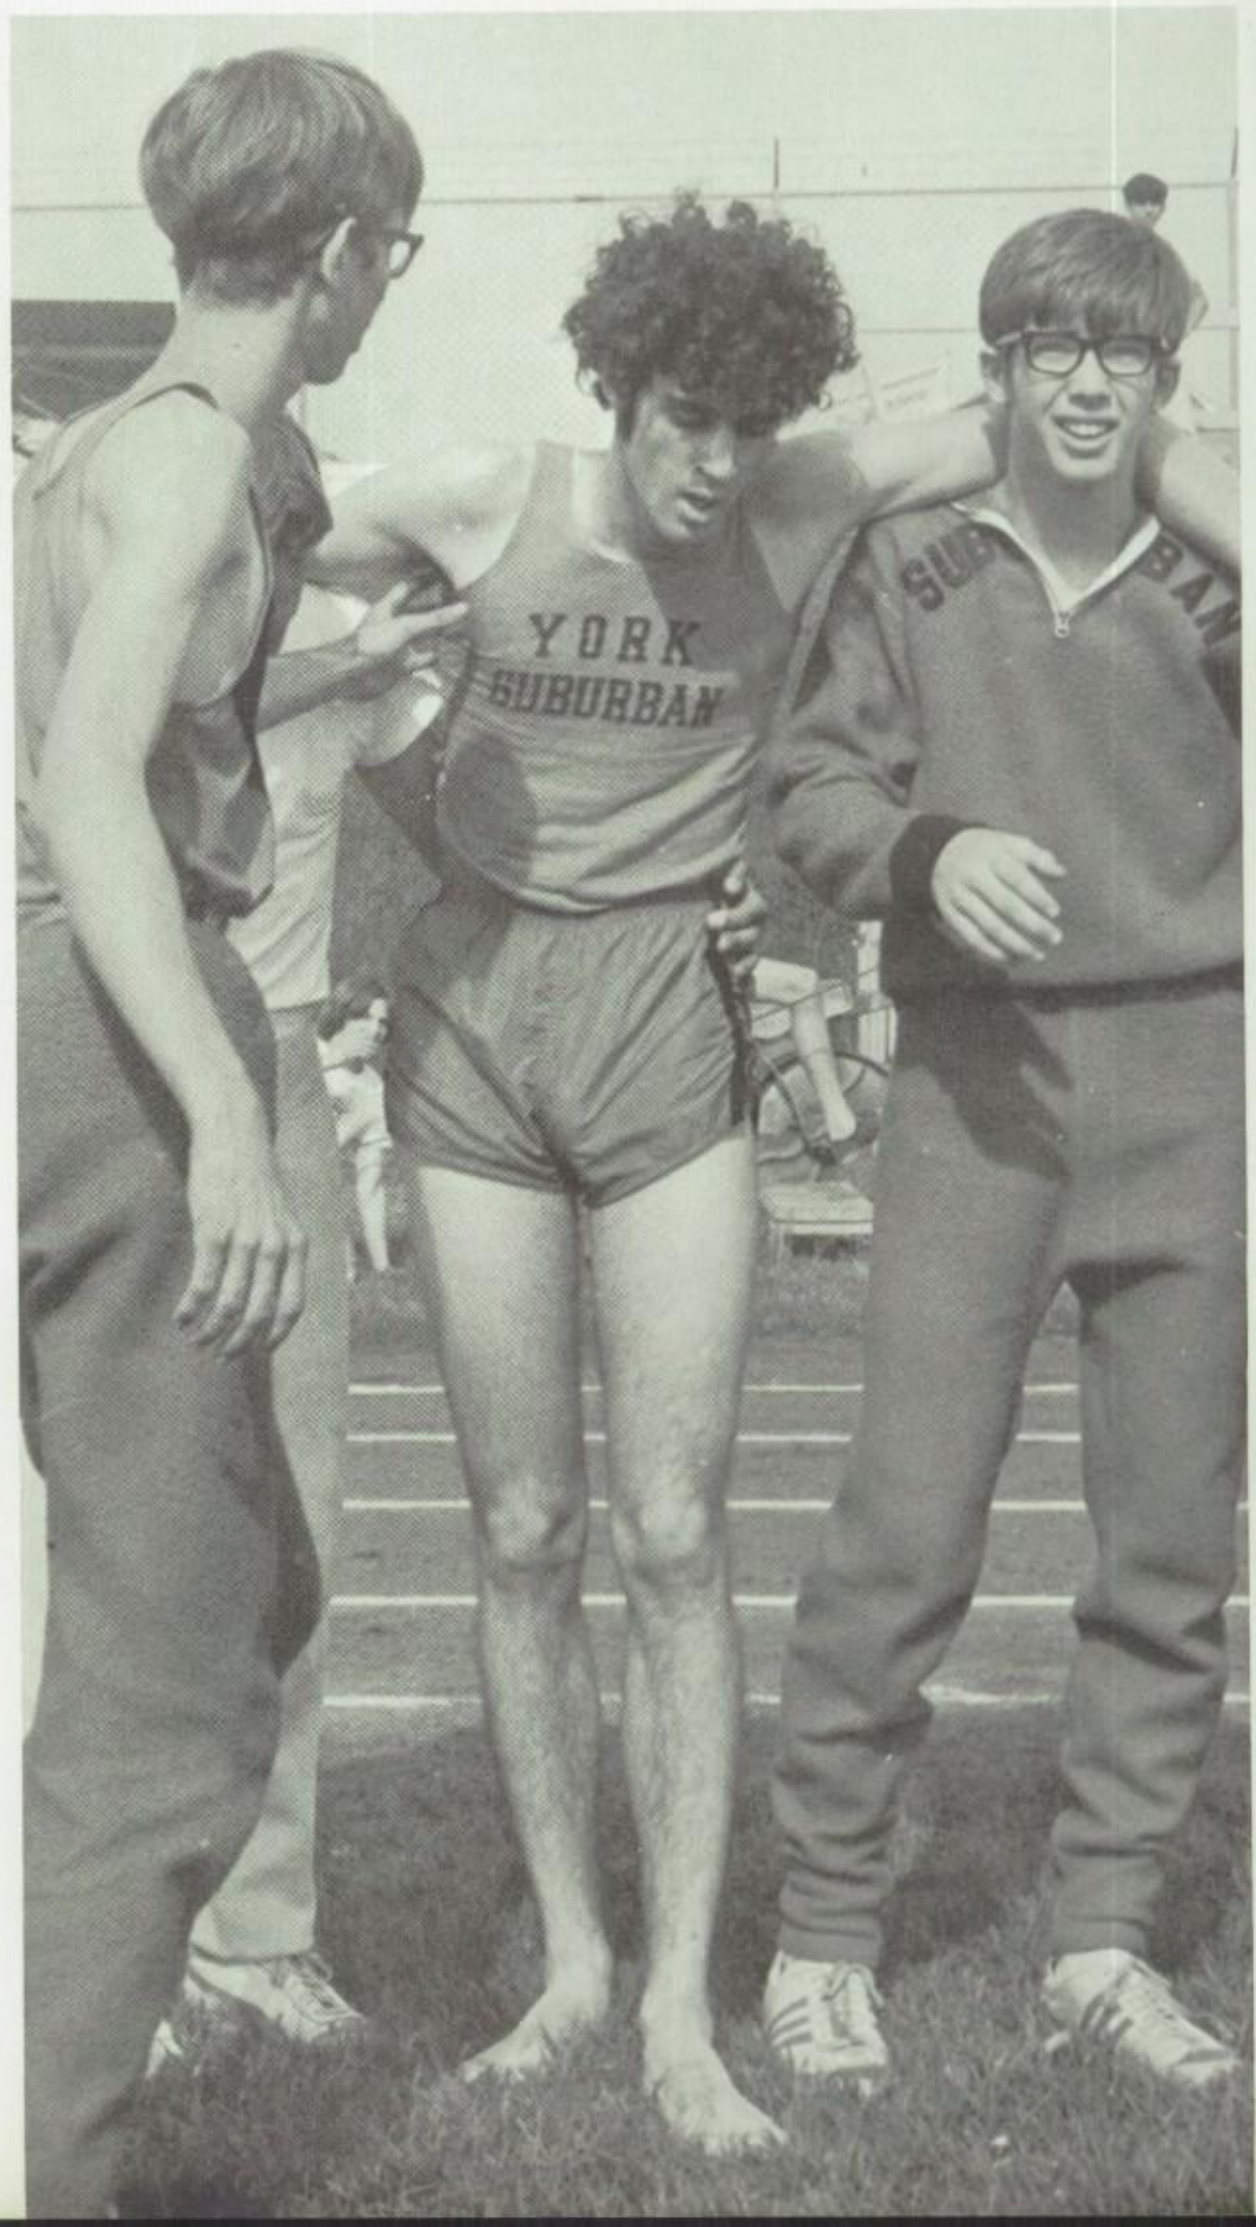
The 1971 YSH volleyball season proved to be an exciting and eventful one. After many weeks of rigorous training, Coach Jane Herman made the final cut. The team that was created rose to the heights of glory and stardom in our sports league. They were number one! The team acquired this title in April when they defeated West York by scores of 15-3, 1-15, and 15-12. Coach Herman attributed their victorious campaign to a great team spirit and long hours of work.

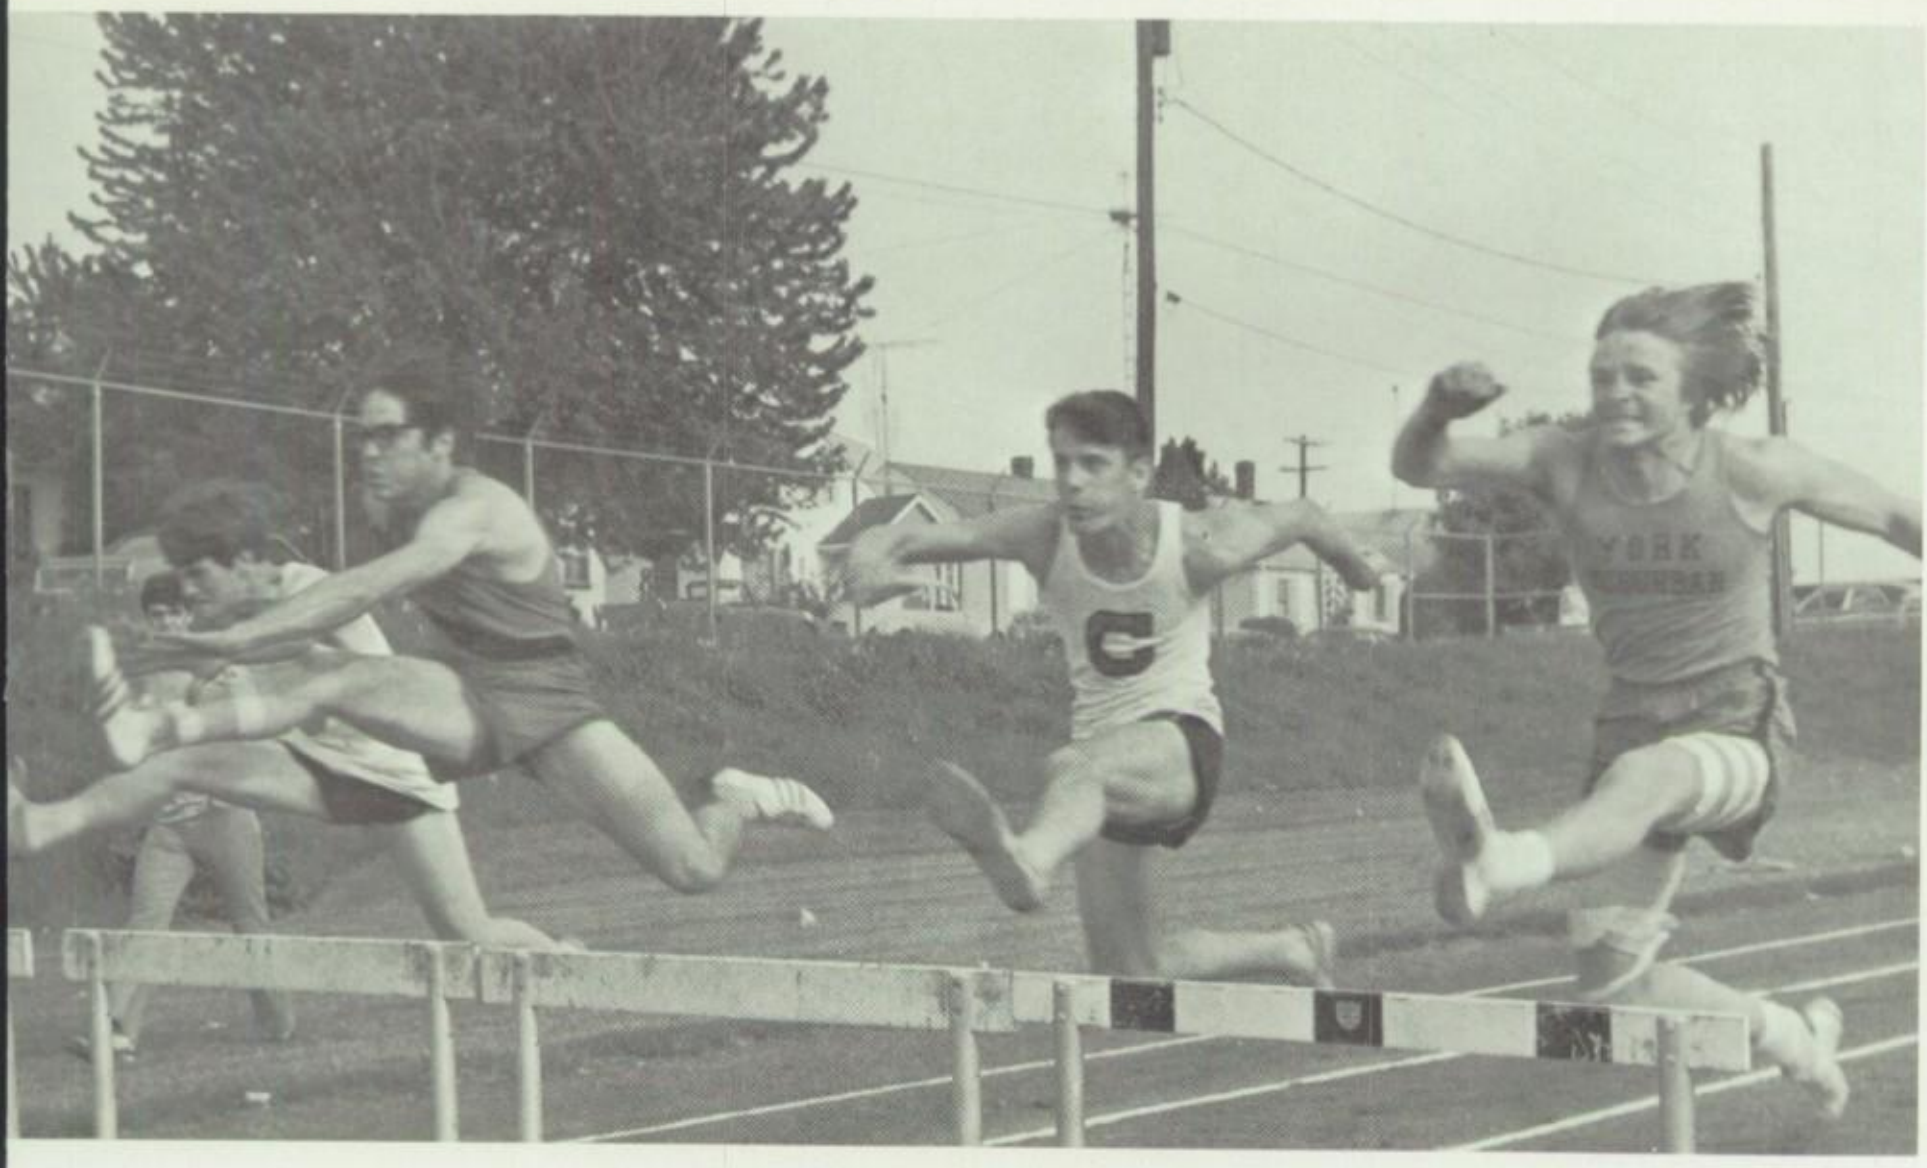
The standings were:

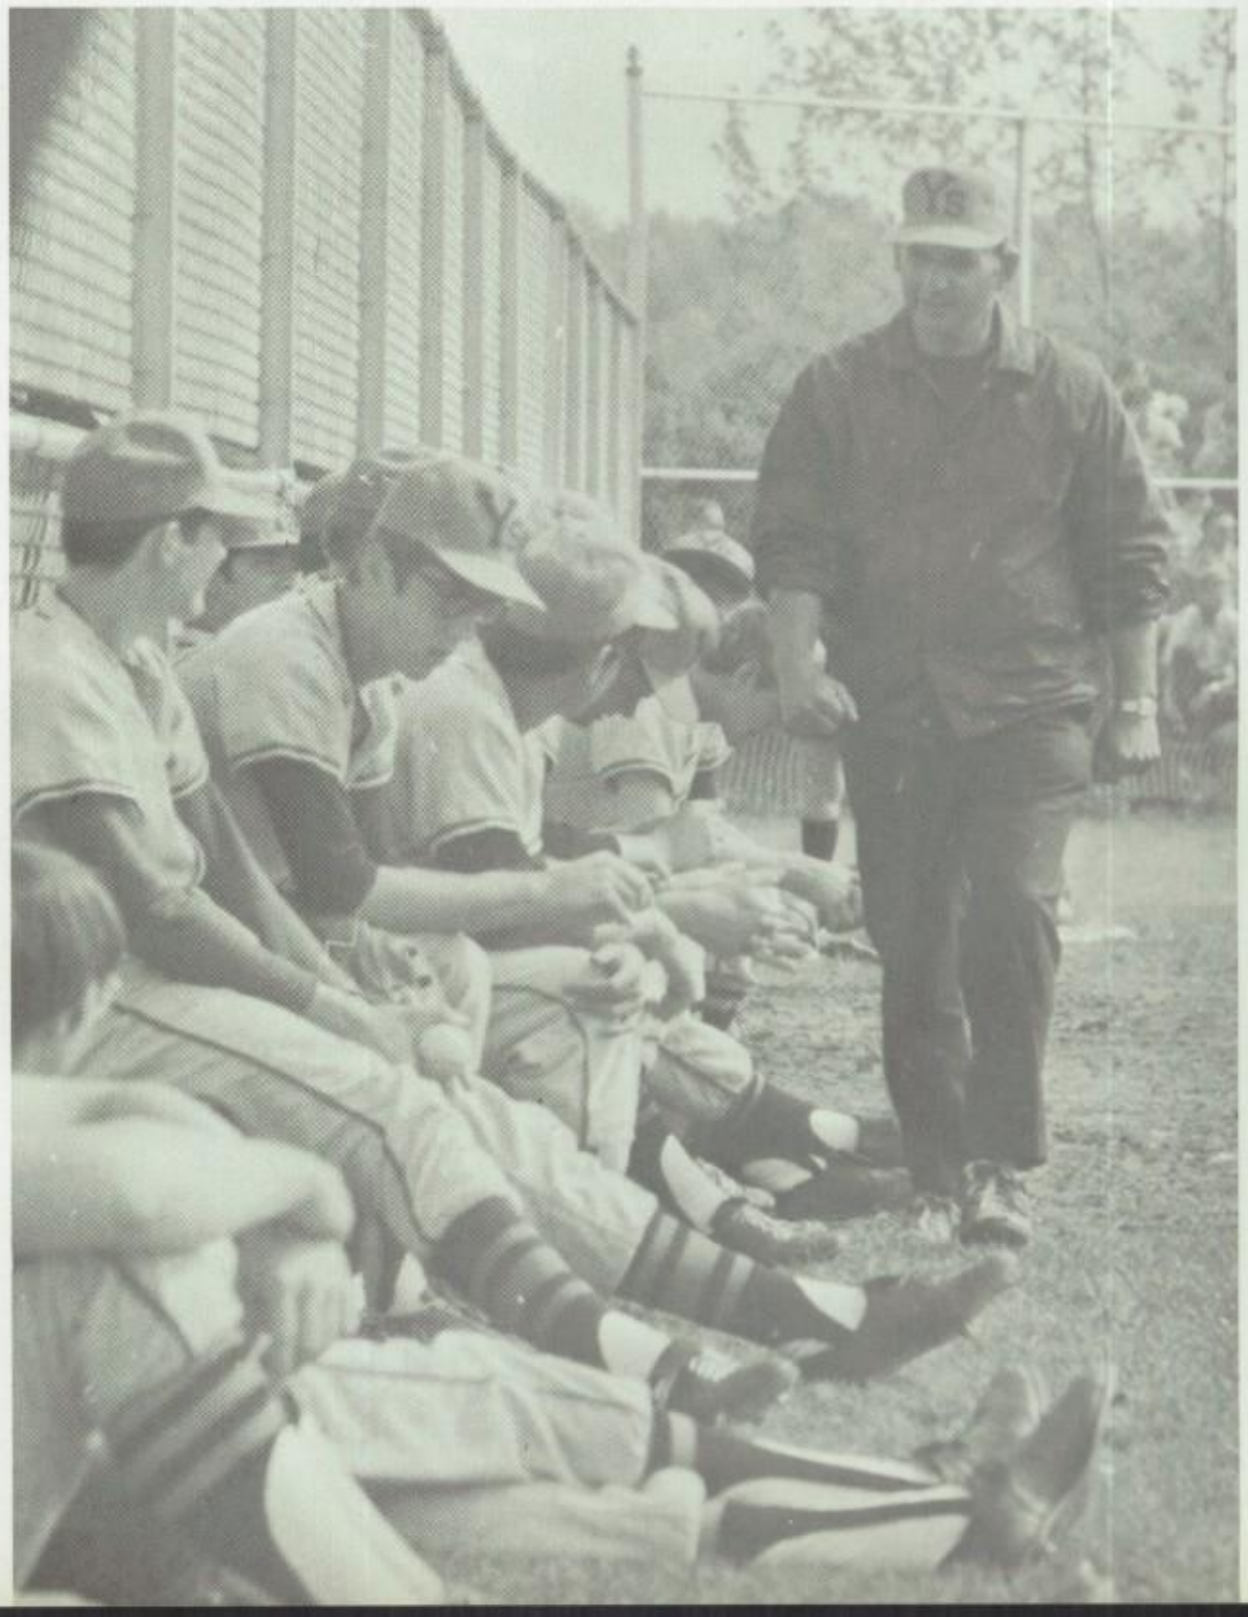
win	lost	tie	pts.
10	0	0	20

Track

With hard work and determination, York Suburban's track team fought its way into the finals in the county competition, only to be crushed by the Panthers of York Central High School. Posting six wins and two losses, the track squad also lost the division championship to Lancaster Catholic by the narrow margin of eight points. Coach Richard Guyer gave special recognition to Kirk Gibson, Roger Marshall, Darrell Kehr, Lou Hoover, Steve Czyzewicz, Dave MacDougall, and Allen Masenheimer for their performances during the 1971 season.







Baseball

This year was especially exciting for baseball fans. Even a loss was a major victory as Suburban's team made it to the finals.

To increase attendance at the games some changes were made, one of which included the addition of a bat-girl to the squad. Altogether, it was a worthwhile year with the baseball team finding new spirit and excitement in their game.

The standings:

win	lose	percentage
9	3	.750

Homecoming

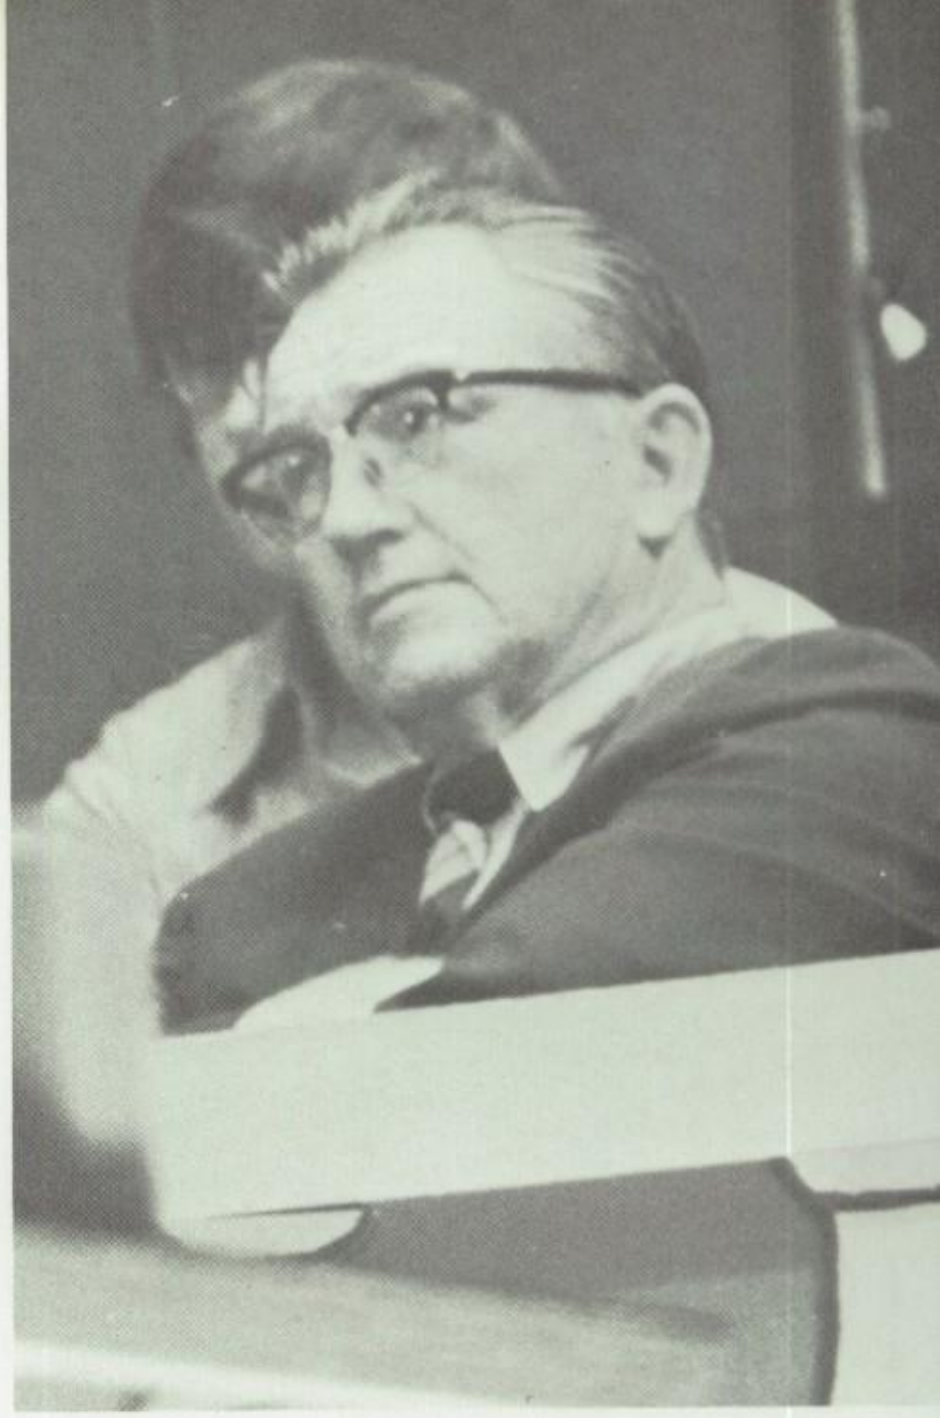
After a Trojan touchdown early in the Homecoming game of October 23, Trojan horseman Barb Pierce encircled the track while the band played Parade of the Charioteers. This was a first for our school and drove Suburban spirit to a peak. Consequently, the victory over Red Lion was no surprise to the fans of the orange and black.

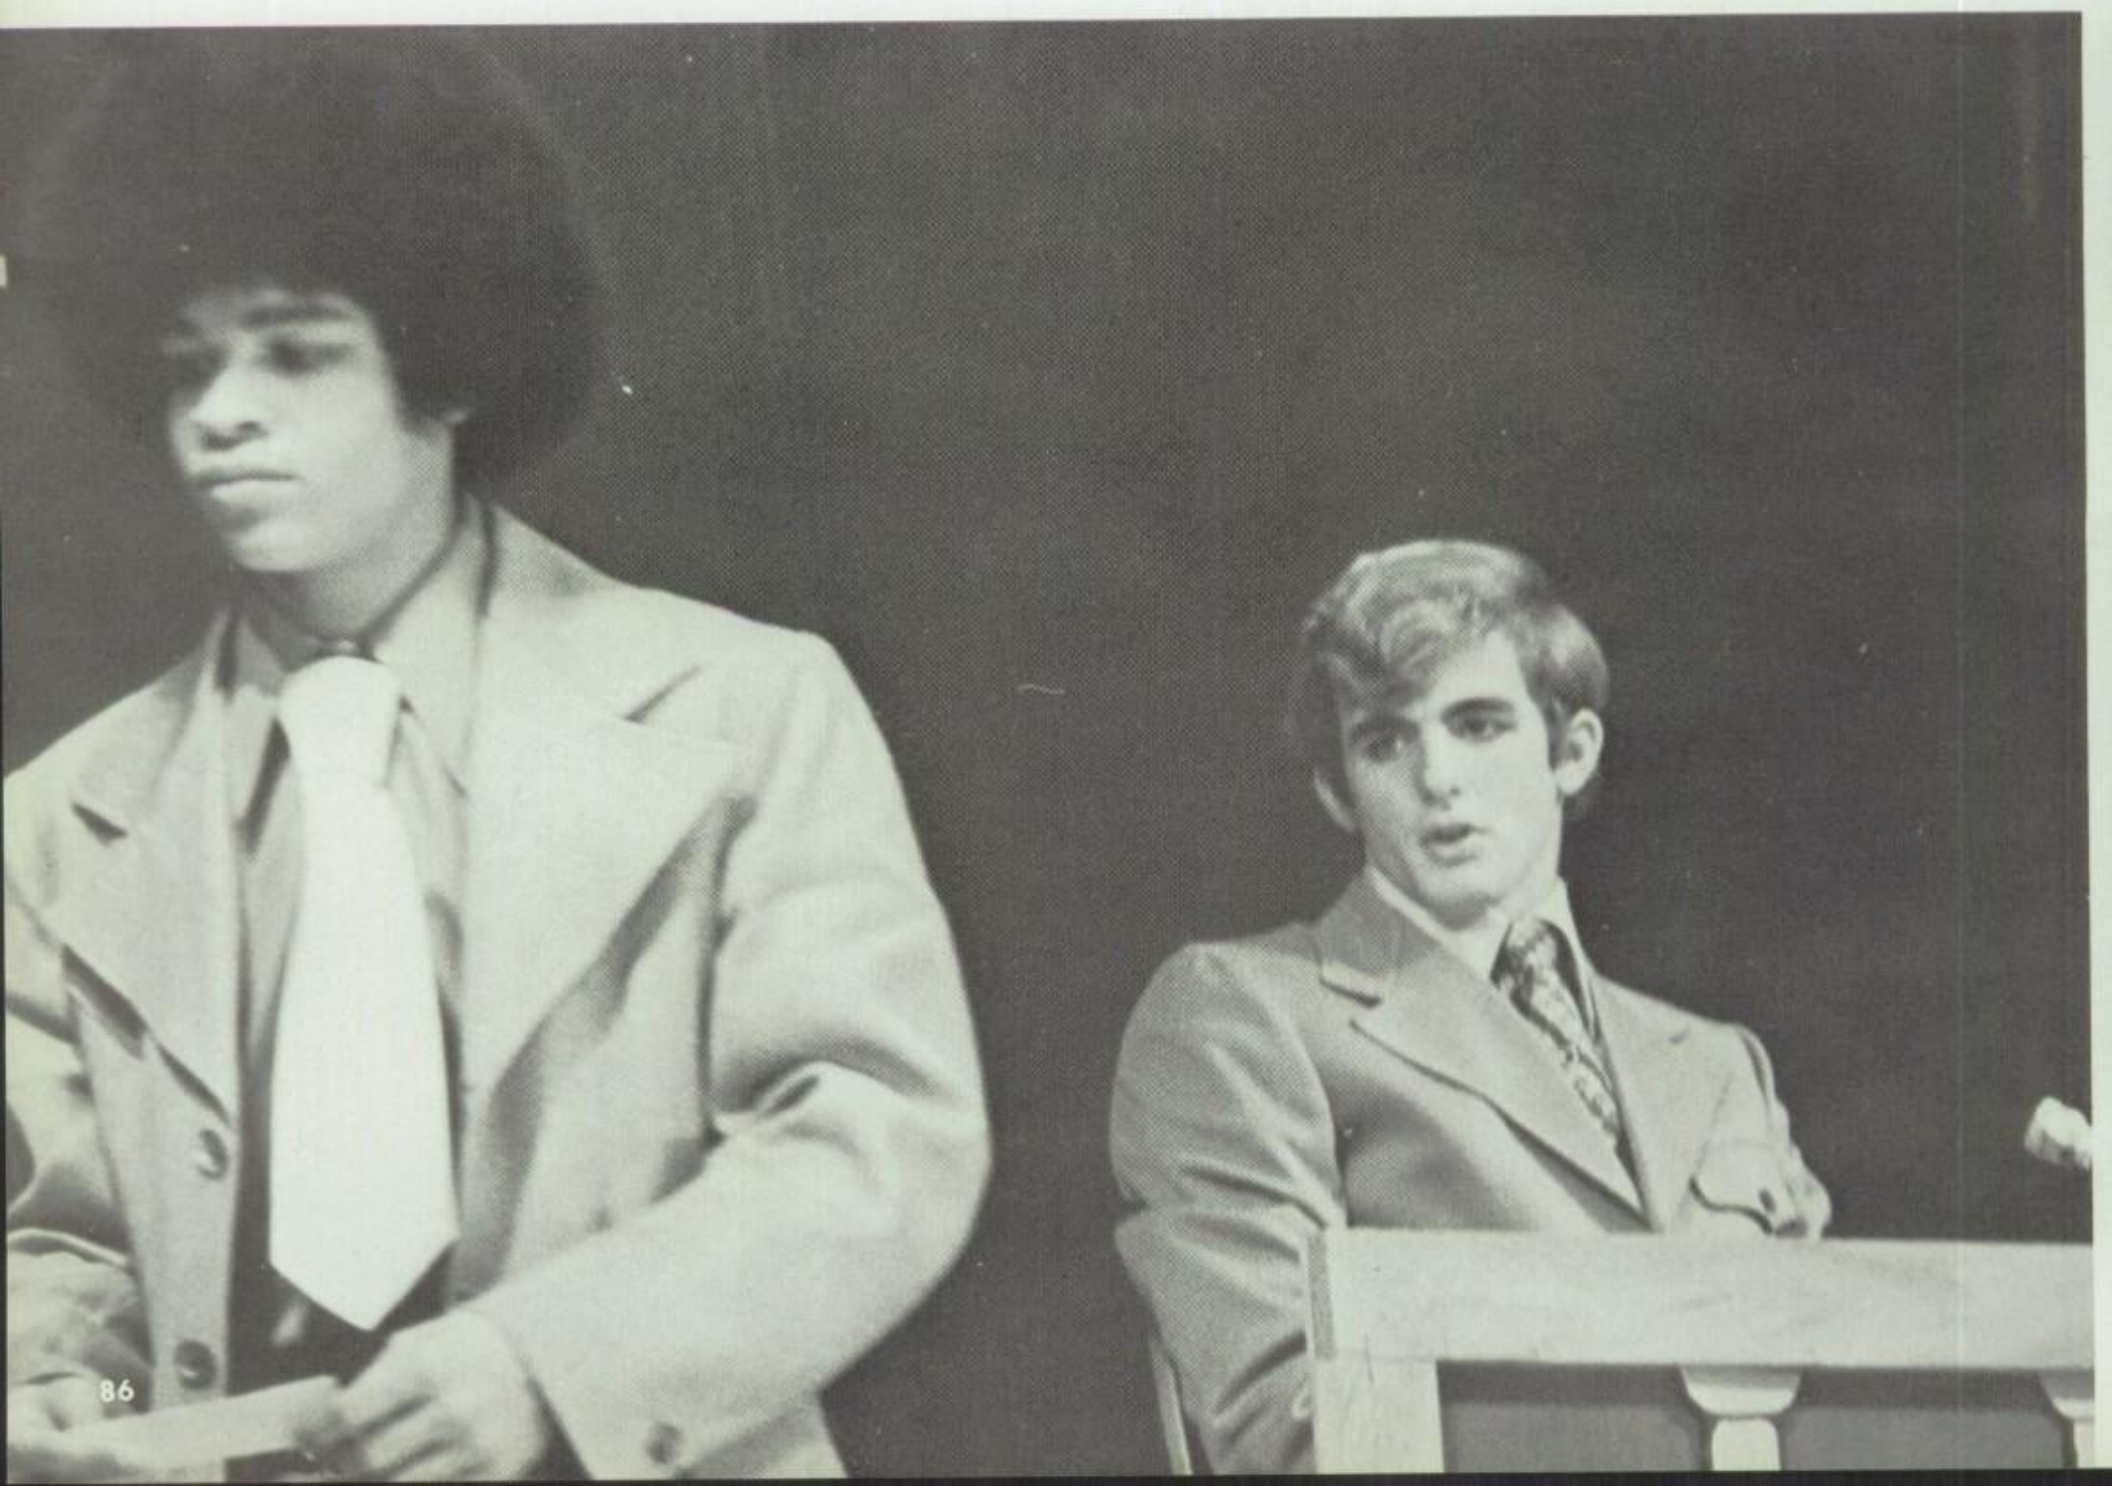
The York Suburban cafeteria was the scene of another unforgettable Homecoming Dance after the victorious football game Saturday afternoon. Creating a sustained explosion of music, Fred assisted in making the evening a success. The highlight of the evening came when Abbie Spinner received her crown as York Suburban's 1971 Homecoming Queen.

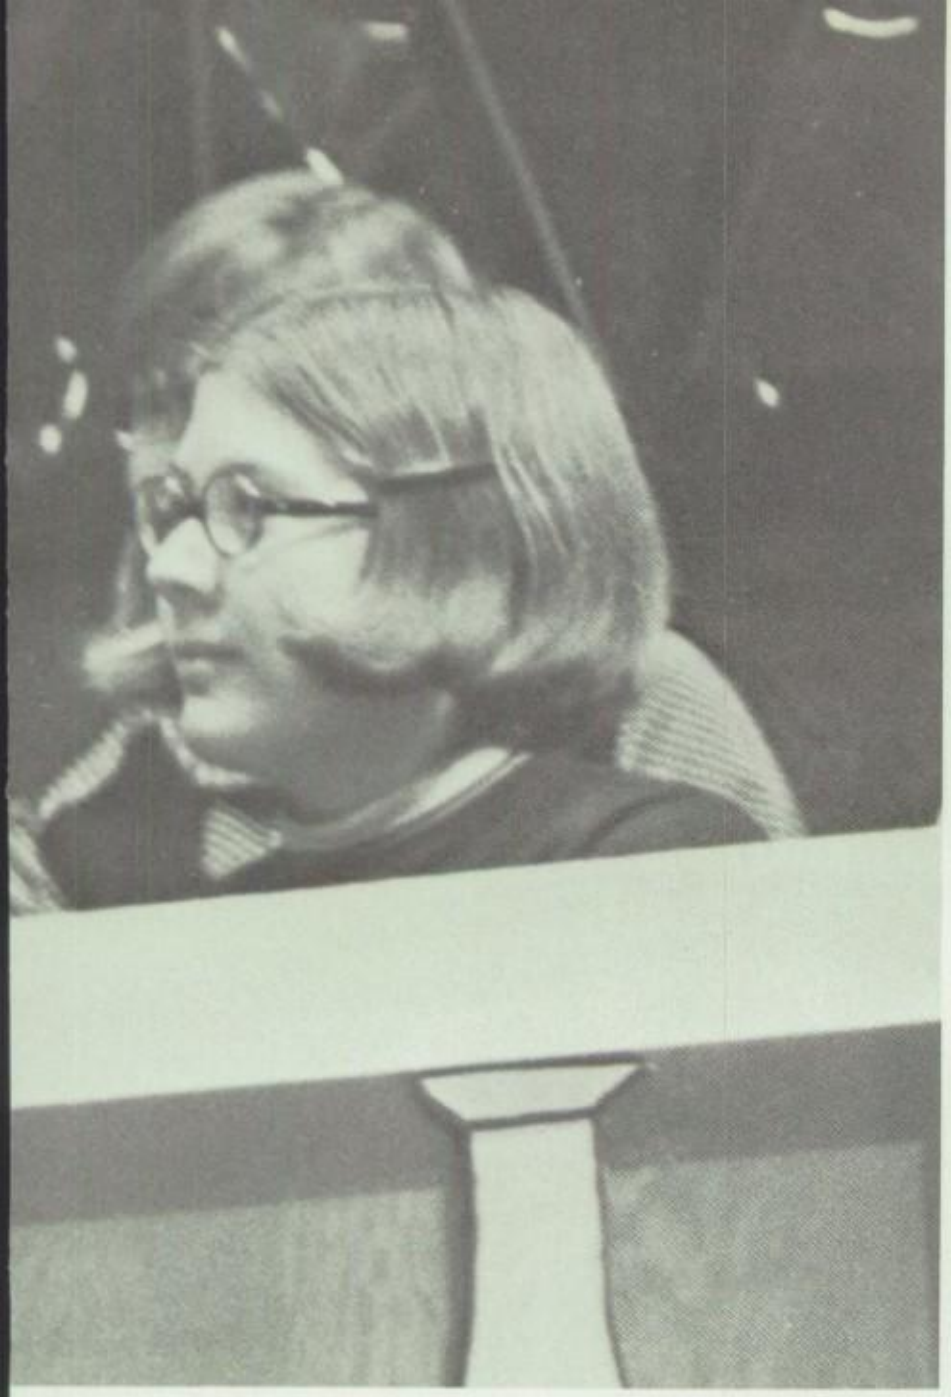
Senior Class Play

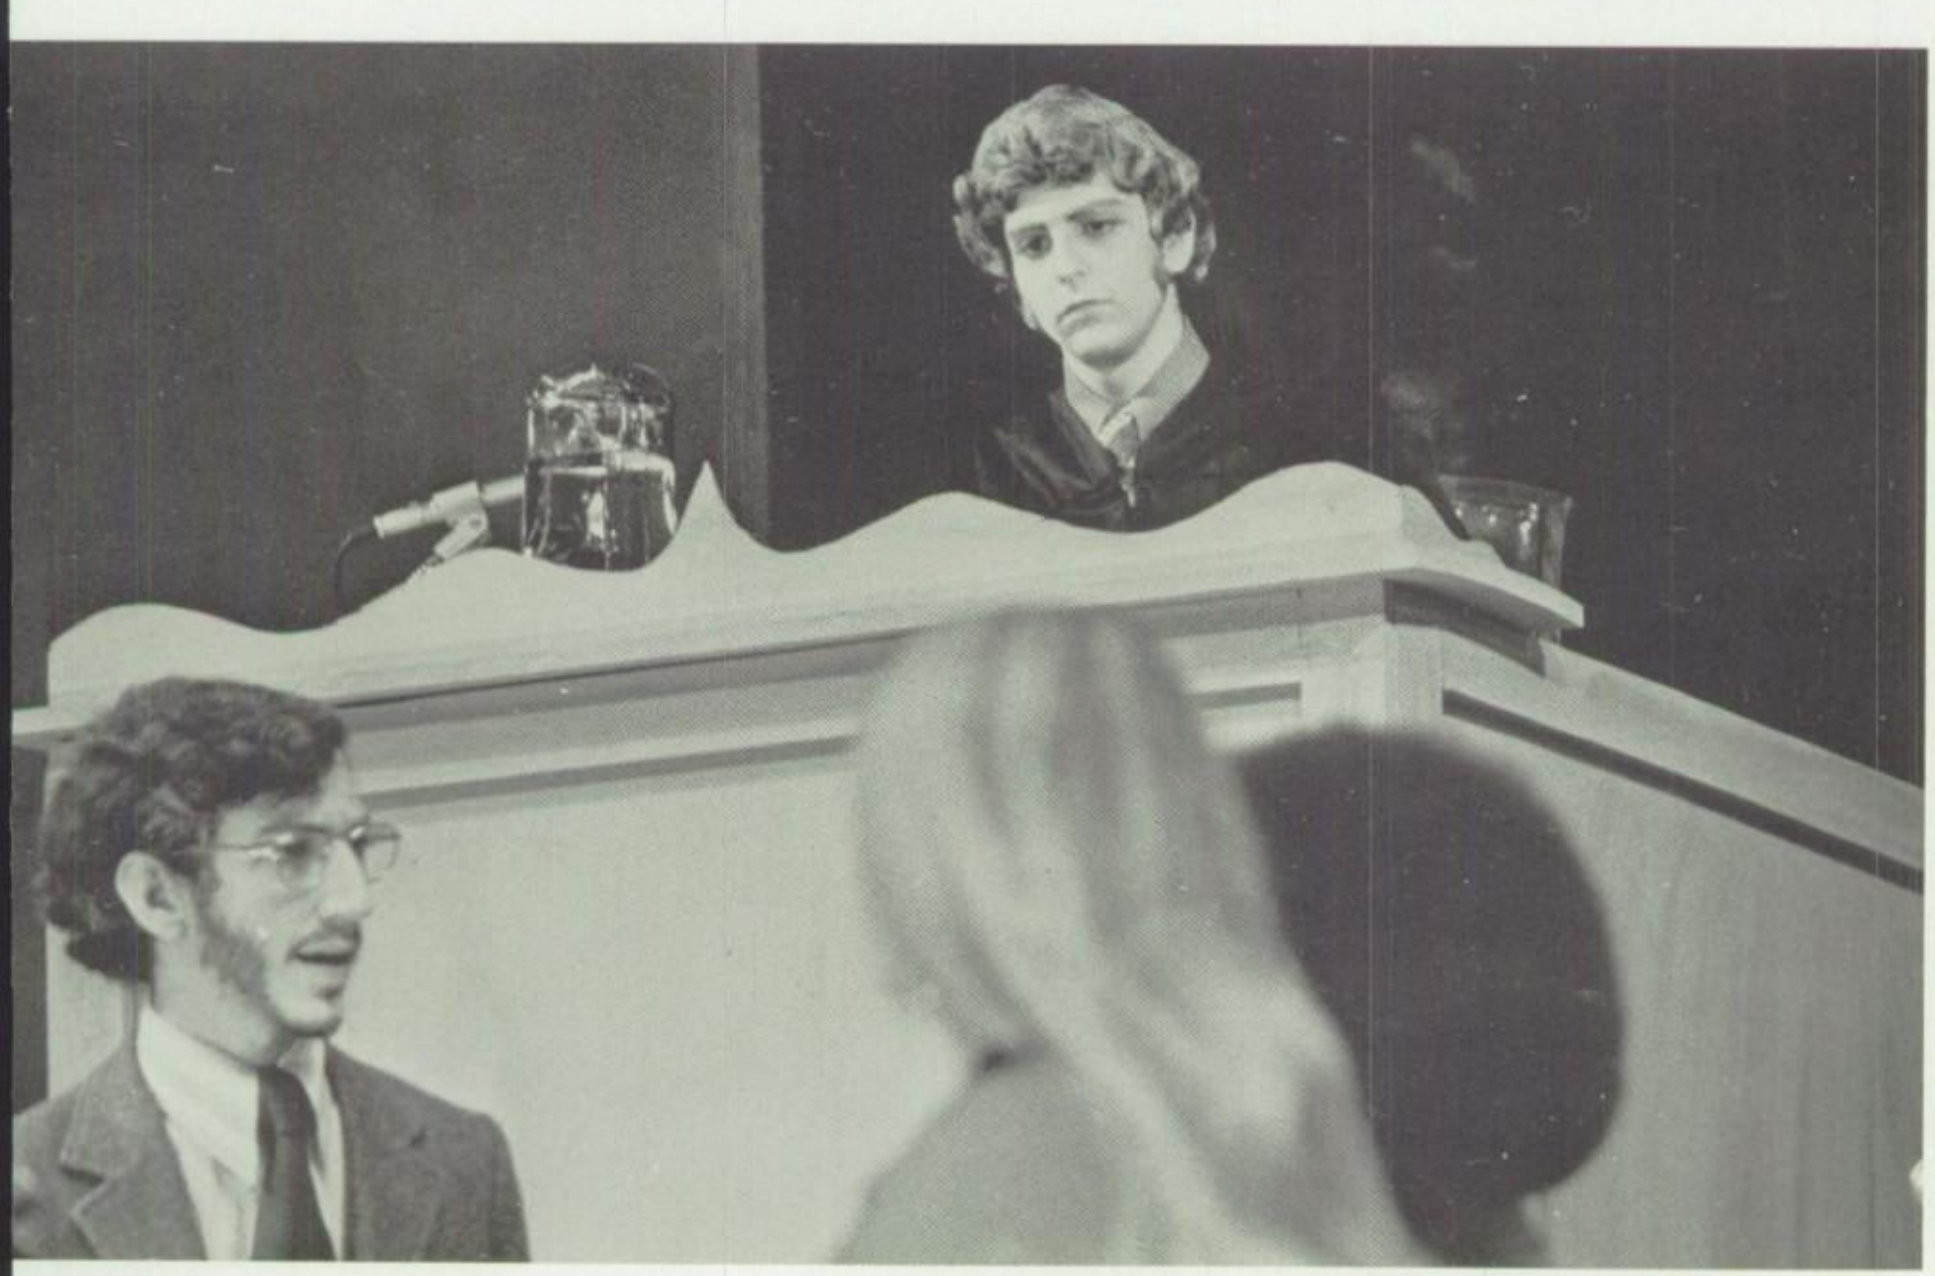
On the nights of December 10 and 11, the Senior Class presented "The Night of January 16," a courtroom drama by Ayn Rand. The drama centered around the trial of Karen Andree who was accused of murdering her millionaire boss and husband.

Each night of the performance, 12 members of the audience were selected to act as an impartial jury.









Musical

Suburban has seen many fine musicals under the able direction of Mrs. Edna Kraus, but Oklahoma was rated by many as one of the best ever. From a round of applause for the opening set to a rousing cheer at the finale, the audiences never failed to respond. The cast was superb and included many of Suburban's most talented students, notably Ayhan Zilelioglu and Mary Ann Cassimatis. But besides the thrill of performing, the cast and crew members noted that the close friendships that developed will never be forgotten.

Thespian Society Play

The 1971 production of the Thespian Society was "Flowers for Algernon," a two-act play based on the best selling book by Daniel Keyes.

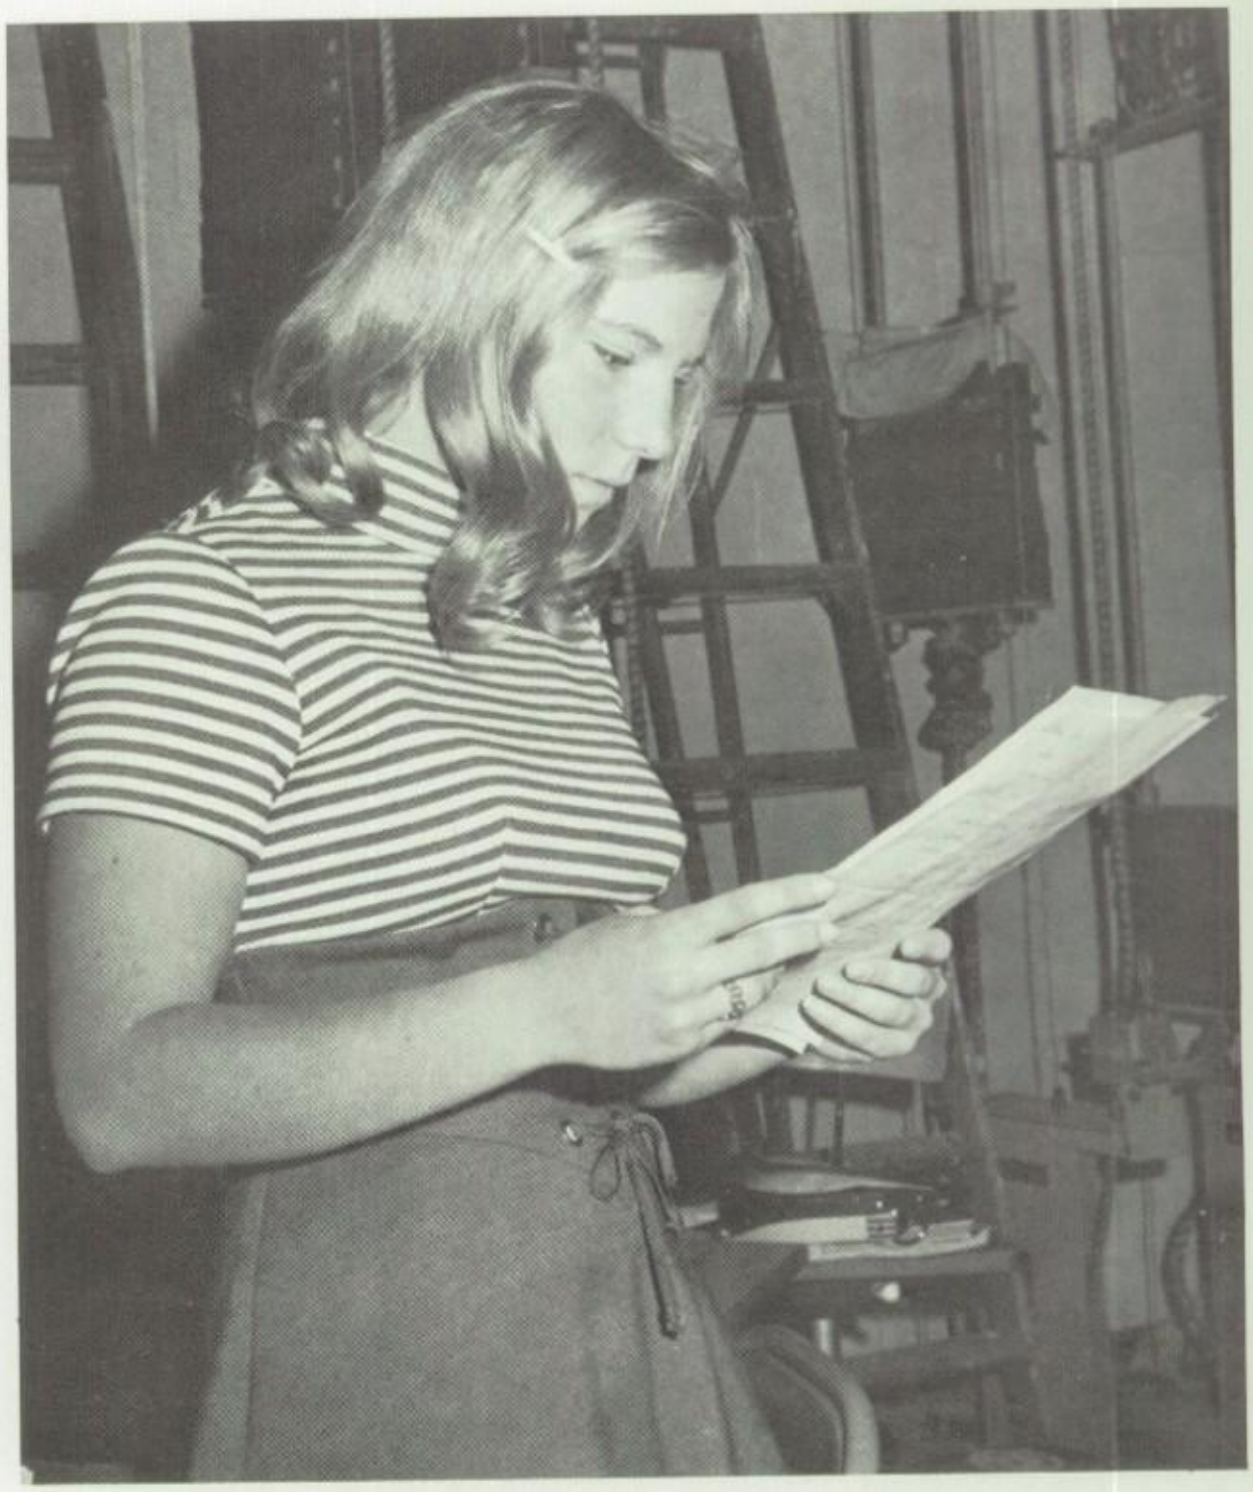
This play was different from other Suburban plays. With very few of the thespians showing up for practice several times, Miss Carol Lieb, the faculty director, was forced to shorten or even cancel planned rehearsals.

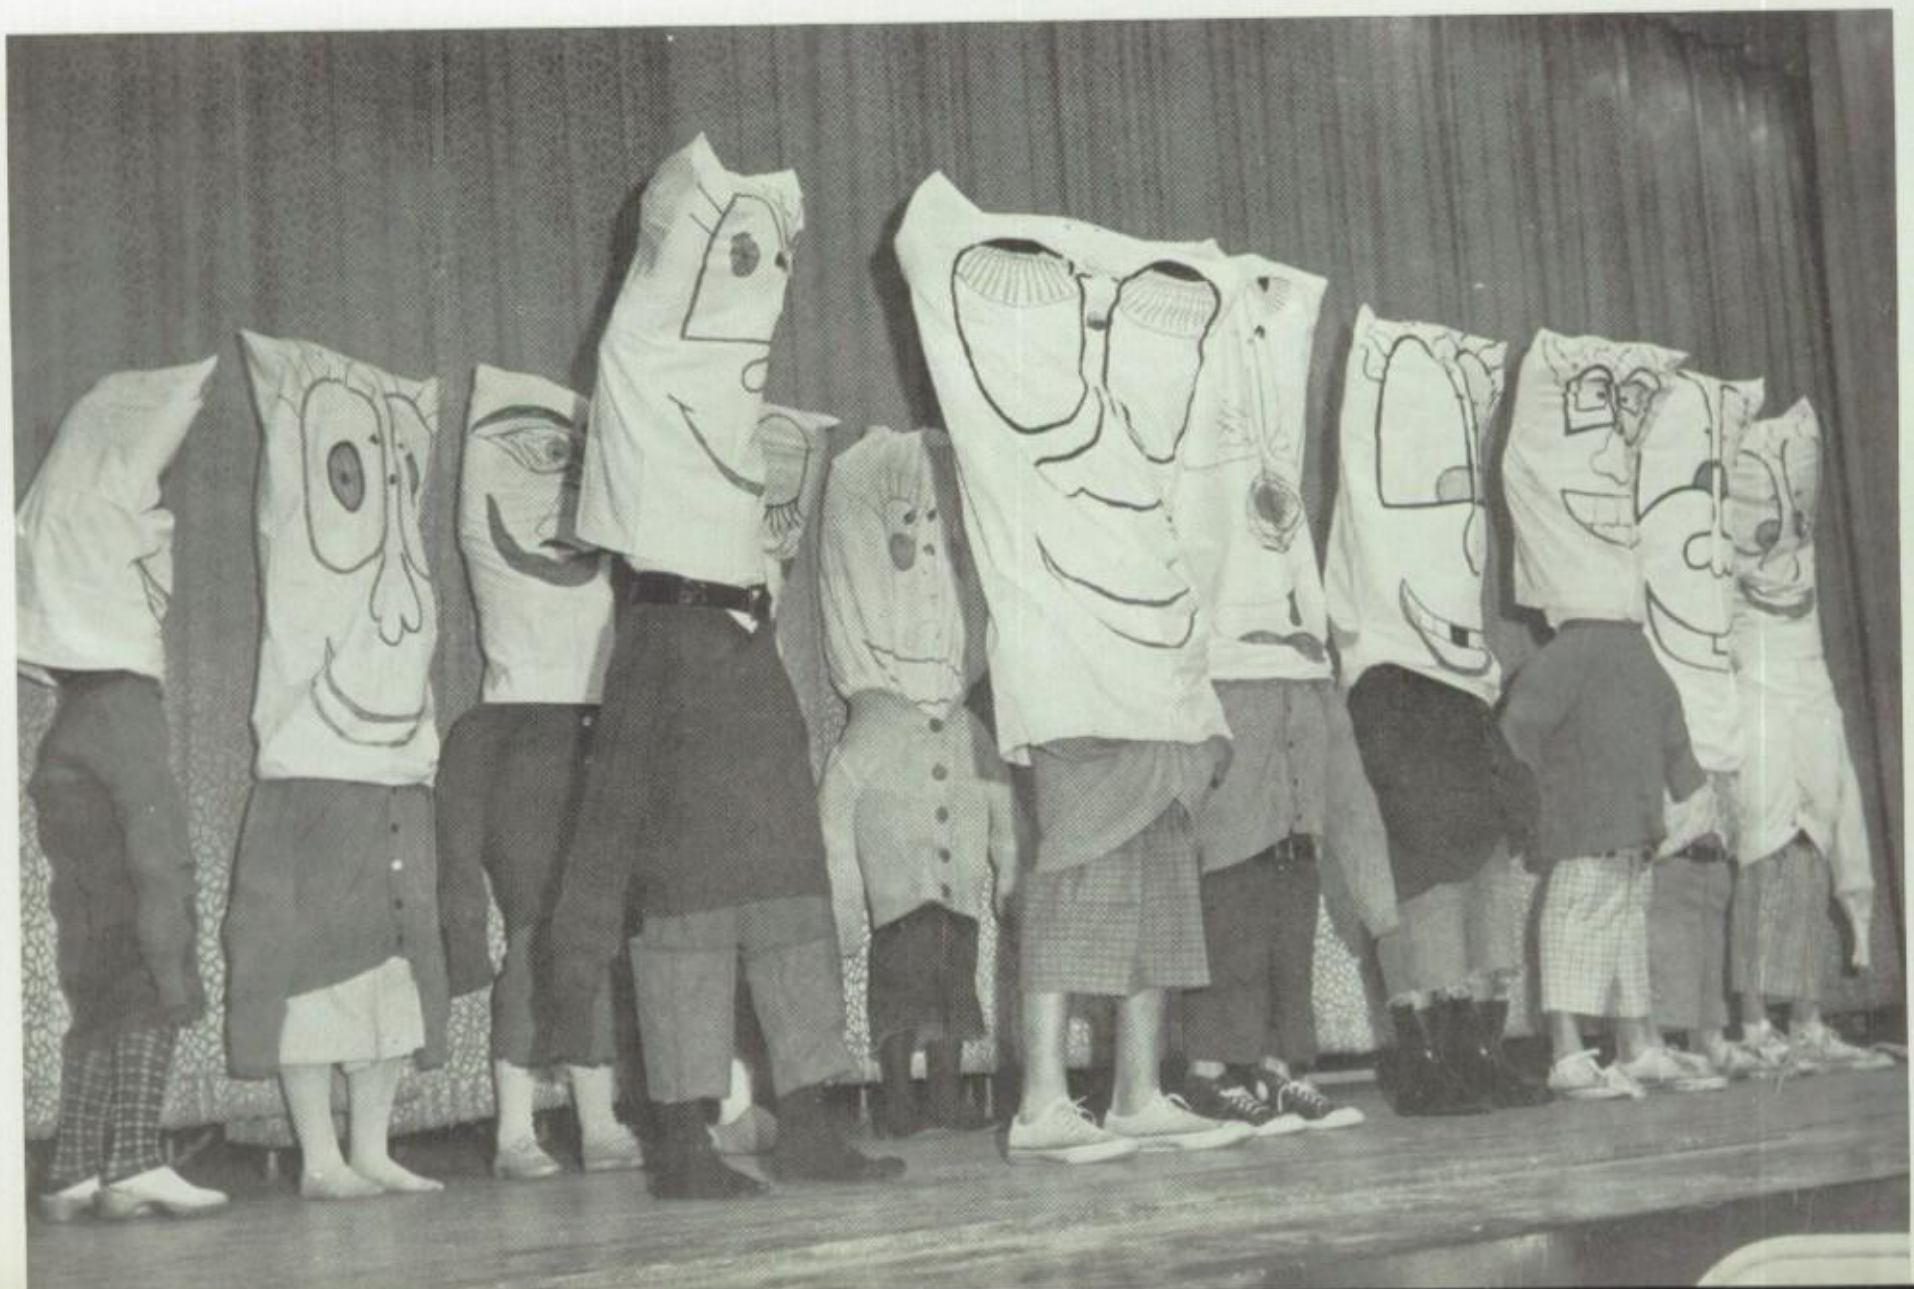
One week before the scheduled performance, difficulties came to a head. A mandatory meeting of the cast, which not everyone attended, was held and a vote was taken as to whether to cancel the play or not. It was decided to go ahead with the production and everyone came through in the end.

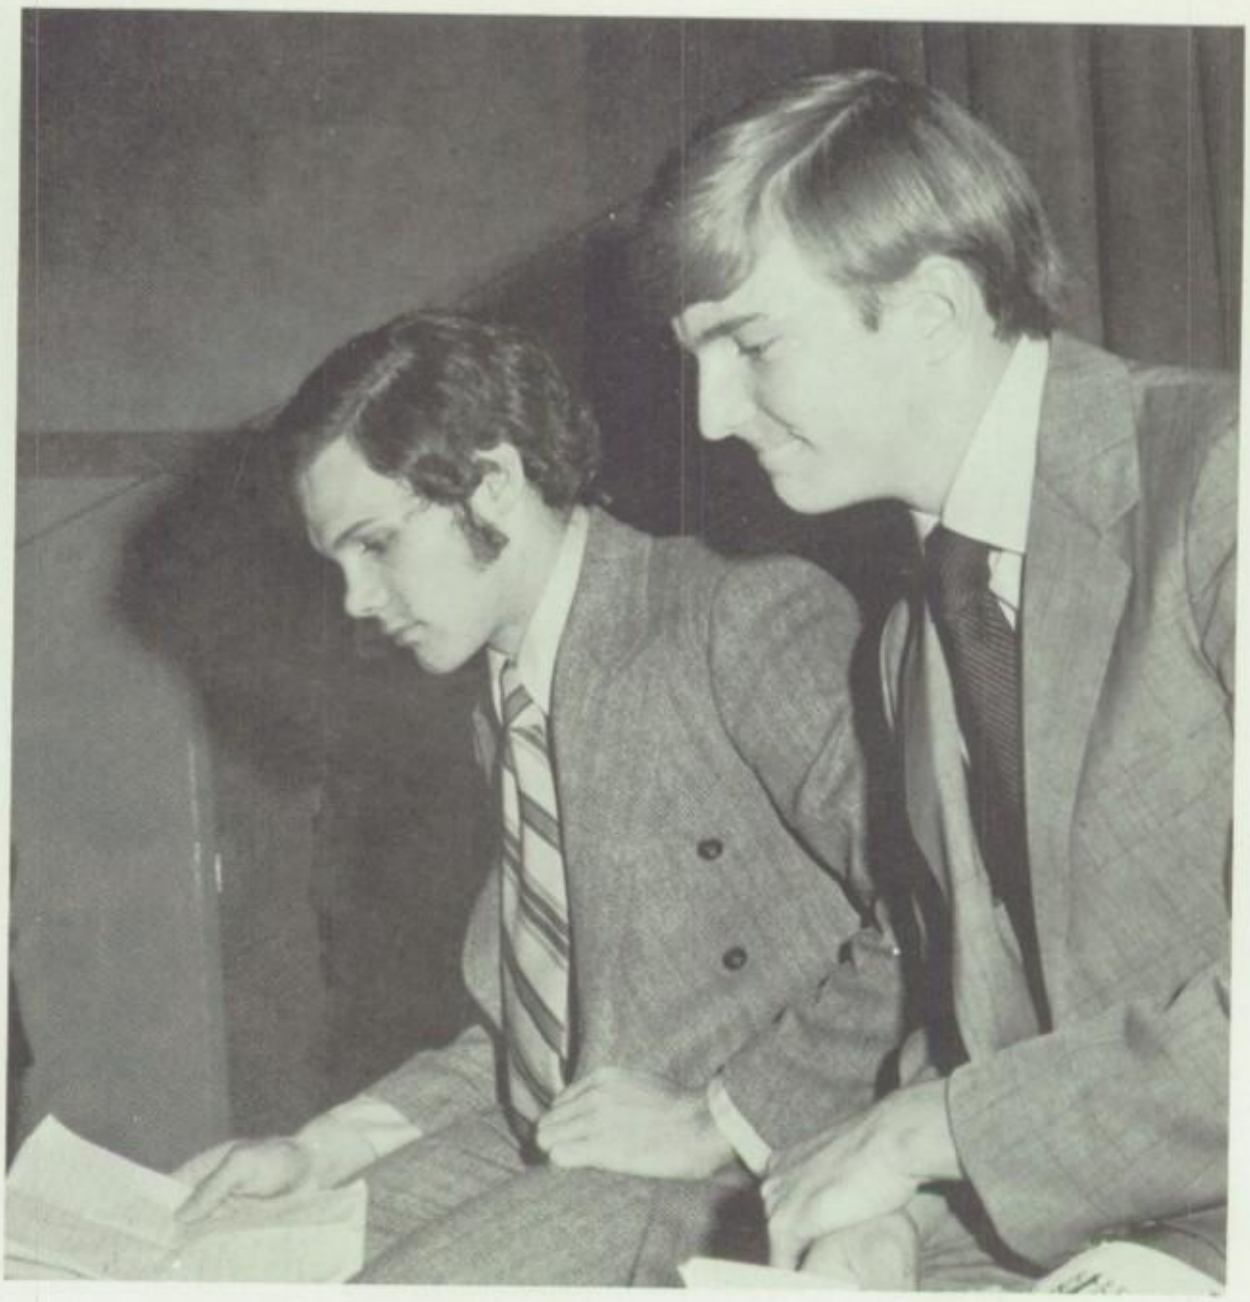
With the final curtain came sighs of relief and jumps of joy from the cast, and enthusiastic applause from the pleased audience.

Elections

The 1971 elections were the most unusual in Suburban's history with three of the five tickets being independent. The two full tickets were PSI or Chad Paul, Liz Serieno and Sue Irving; and, JTL, which was Jim Wisotzkey, Tom Myers, and Lynn Schneider. The independents were Jane Gunnet and Denise Cook running together as vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively. Marti Keiser ran for secretary-treasurer and Dave Hogg for vice-president. As election day drew closer, halls and books were covered with campaign materials, and people were telling others about their favorite candidates. At last, after a long week of campaigning, there was an assembly where each candidate tried for the last time to convince everyone that he would do the best job. Finally, that afternoon, the winners were announced — Jim, Tom and Lynn.

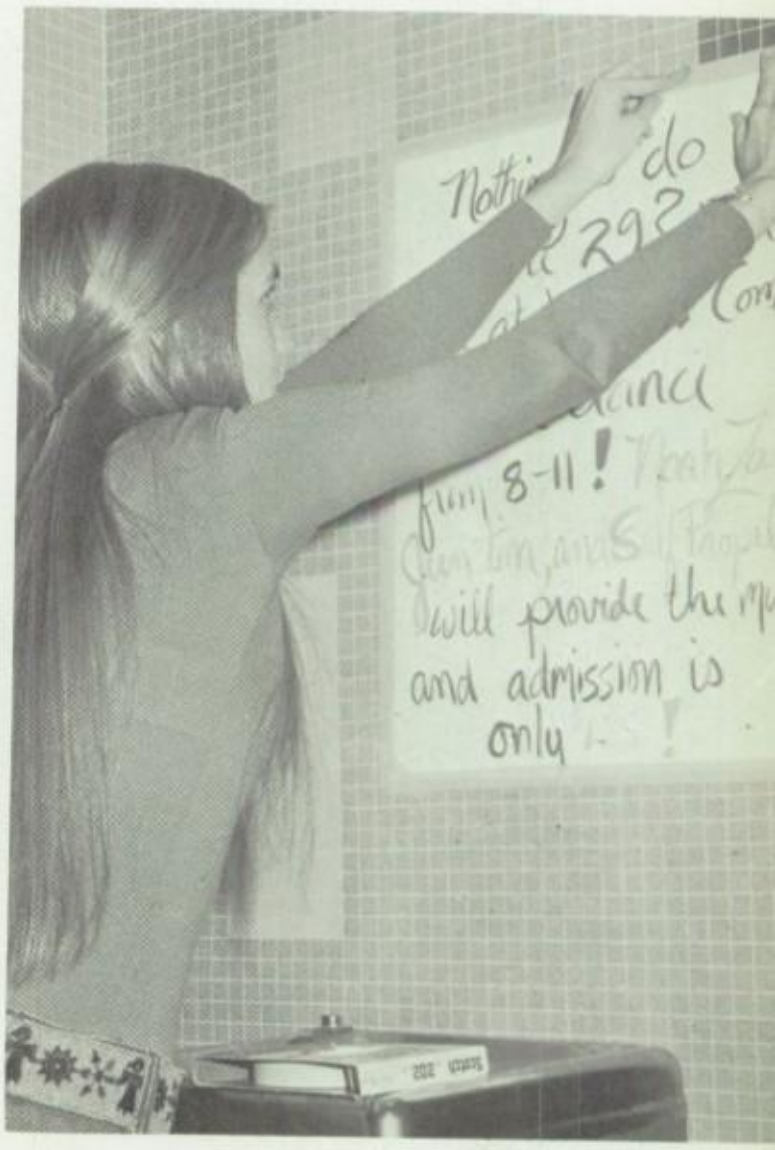






Student Council

The Suburban Student Council has initiated several new projects, as well as carried out the responsibilities traditionally deemed to be those of the council. The homecoming festivities, and the annual money-making project, the magazine campaign, were successfully sponsored by Student Council. Several activities nights were enthusiastically supported by the student body as was the collection of gum wrappers to be later redeemed for vaccine for disadvantaged children. A Student Union was formed by over 150 students to deal with problems within the school.

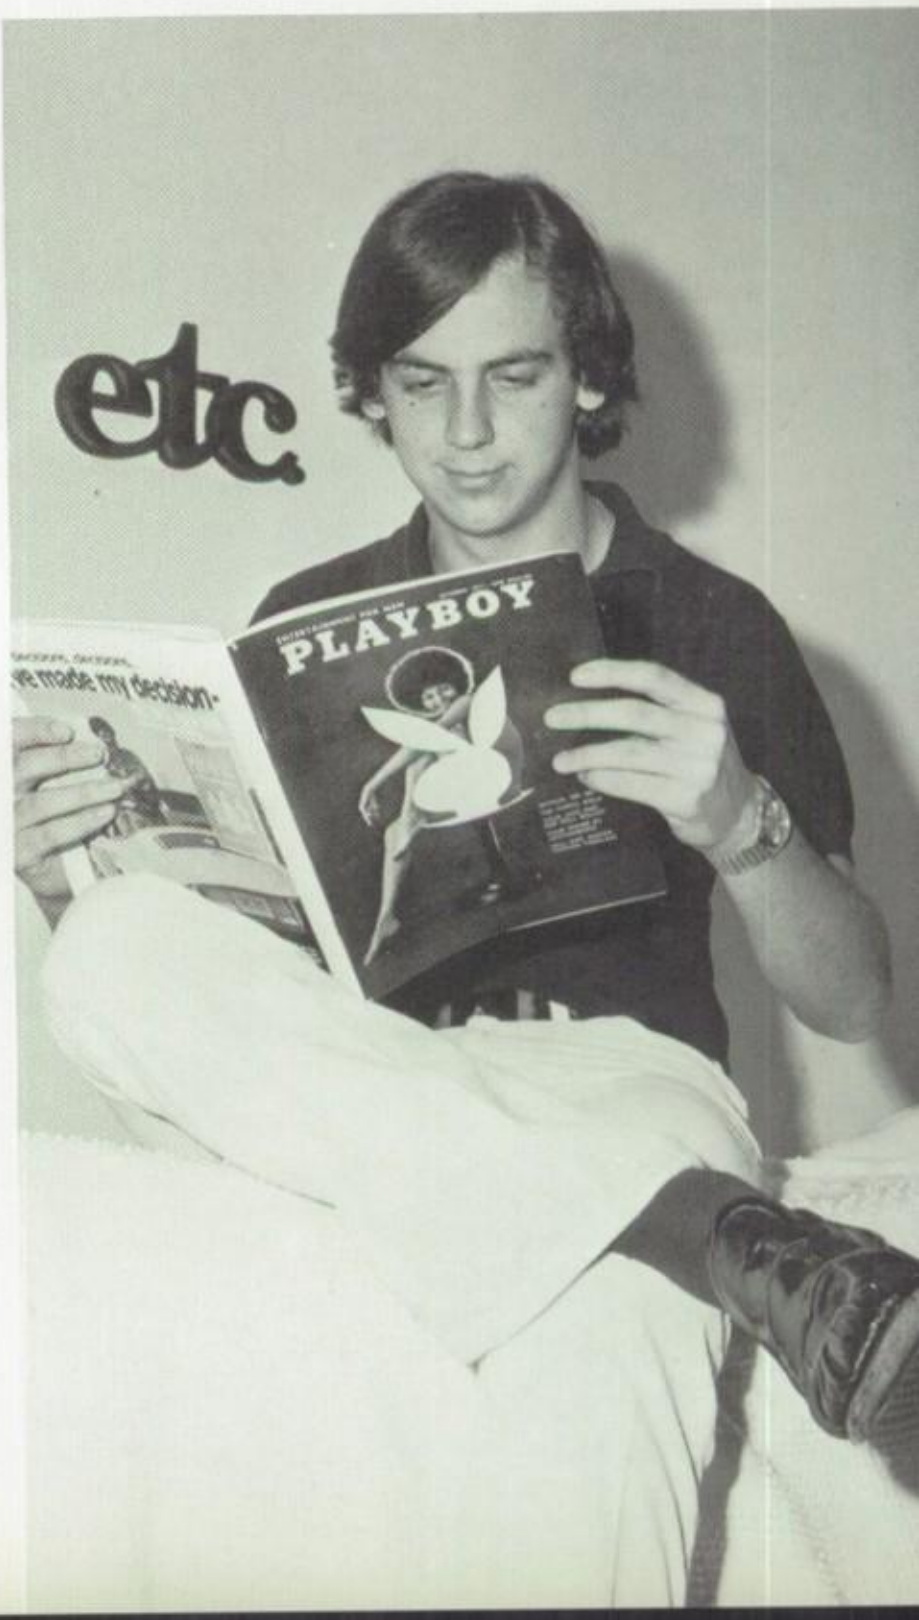


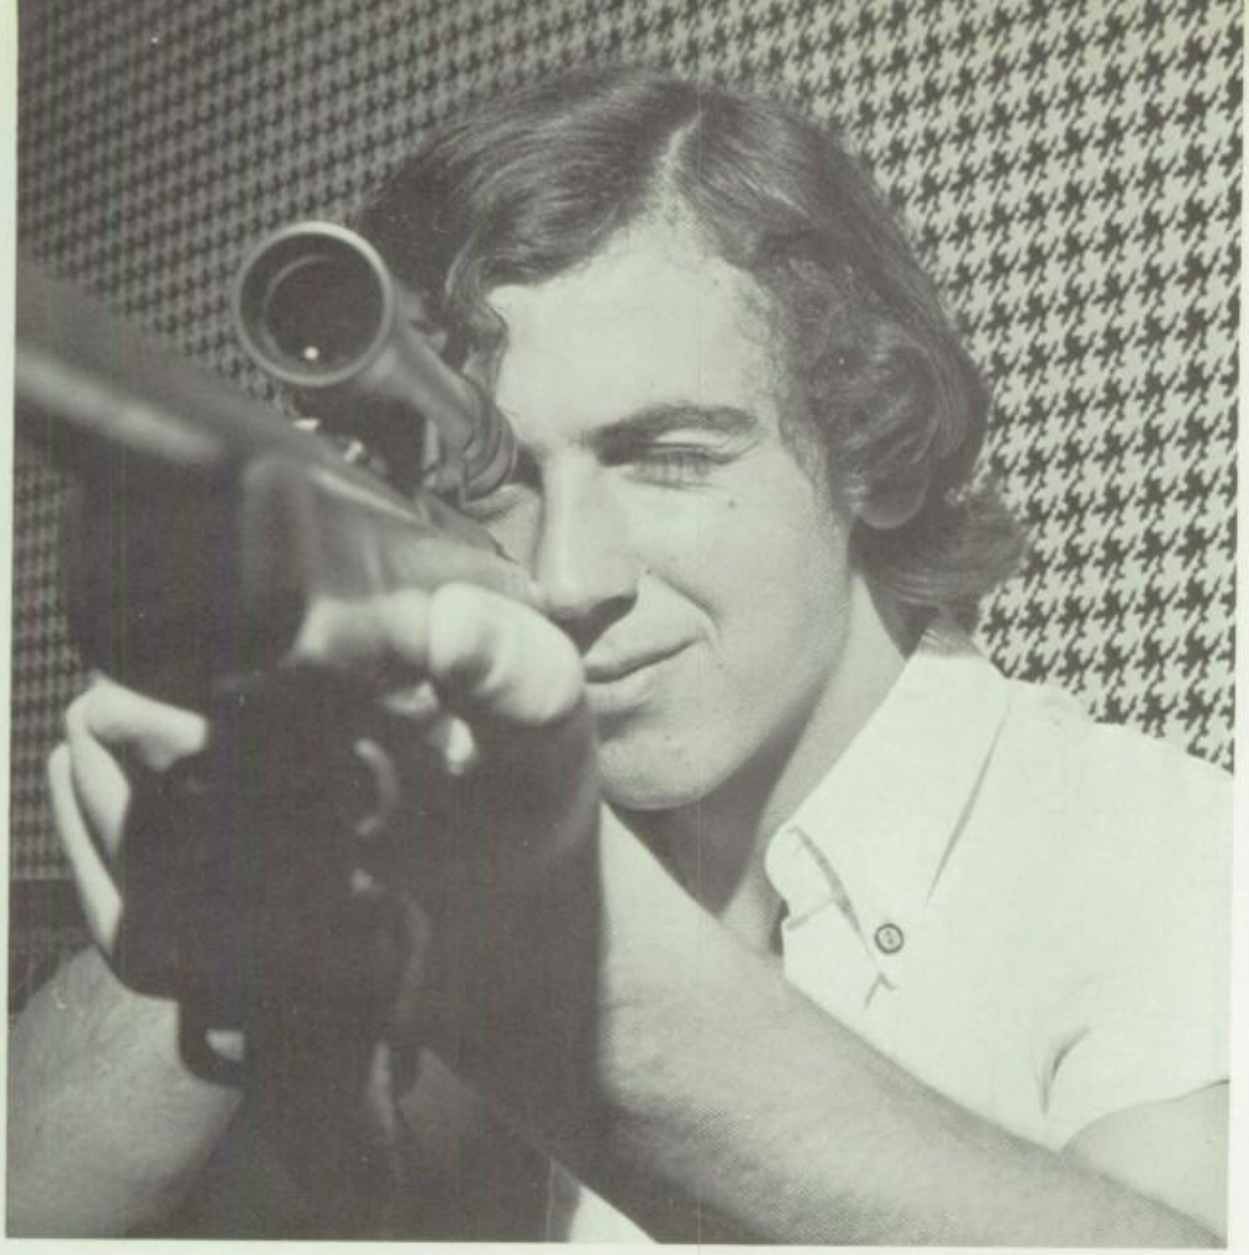
Exchange Student

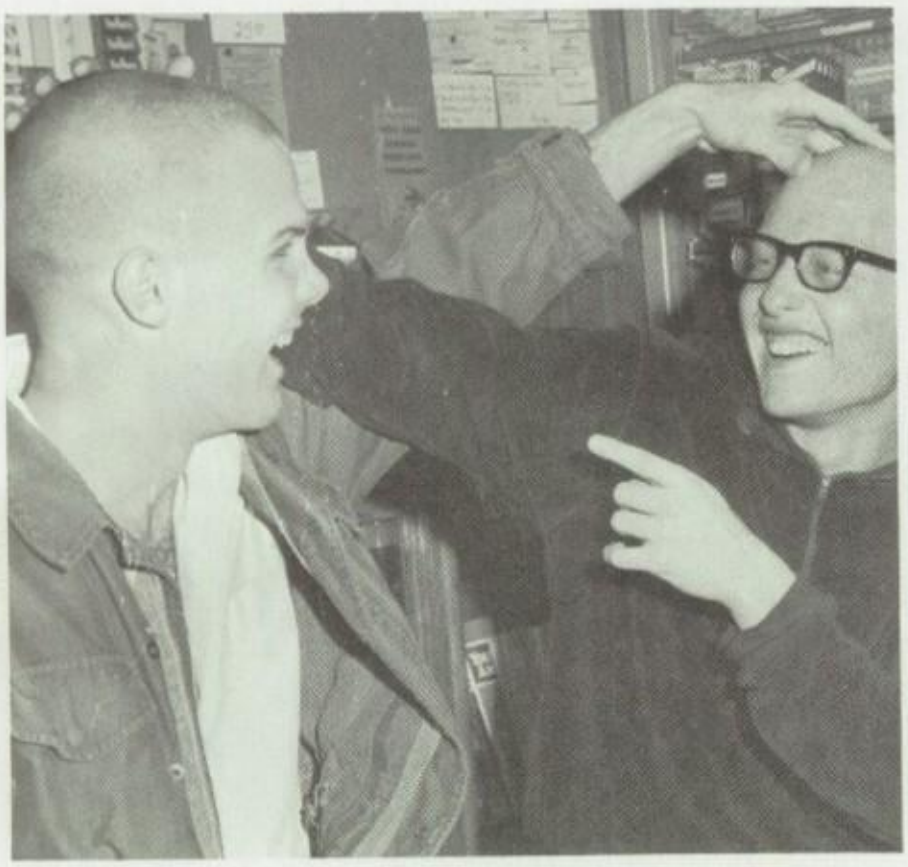
York Suburban's exchange student, Jose Leonardo Sant'Ana (Joe), adopted the family of Dave Hogg, the president of the senior class. At first Joe had some problems understanding his teachers and finding his way around the school, but he became adjusted in time.

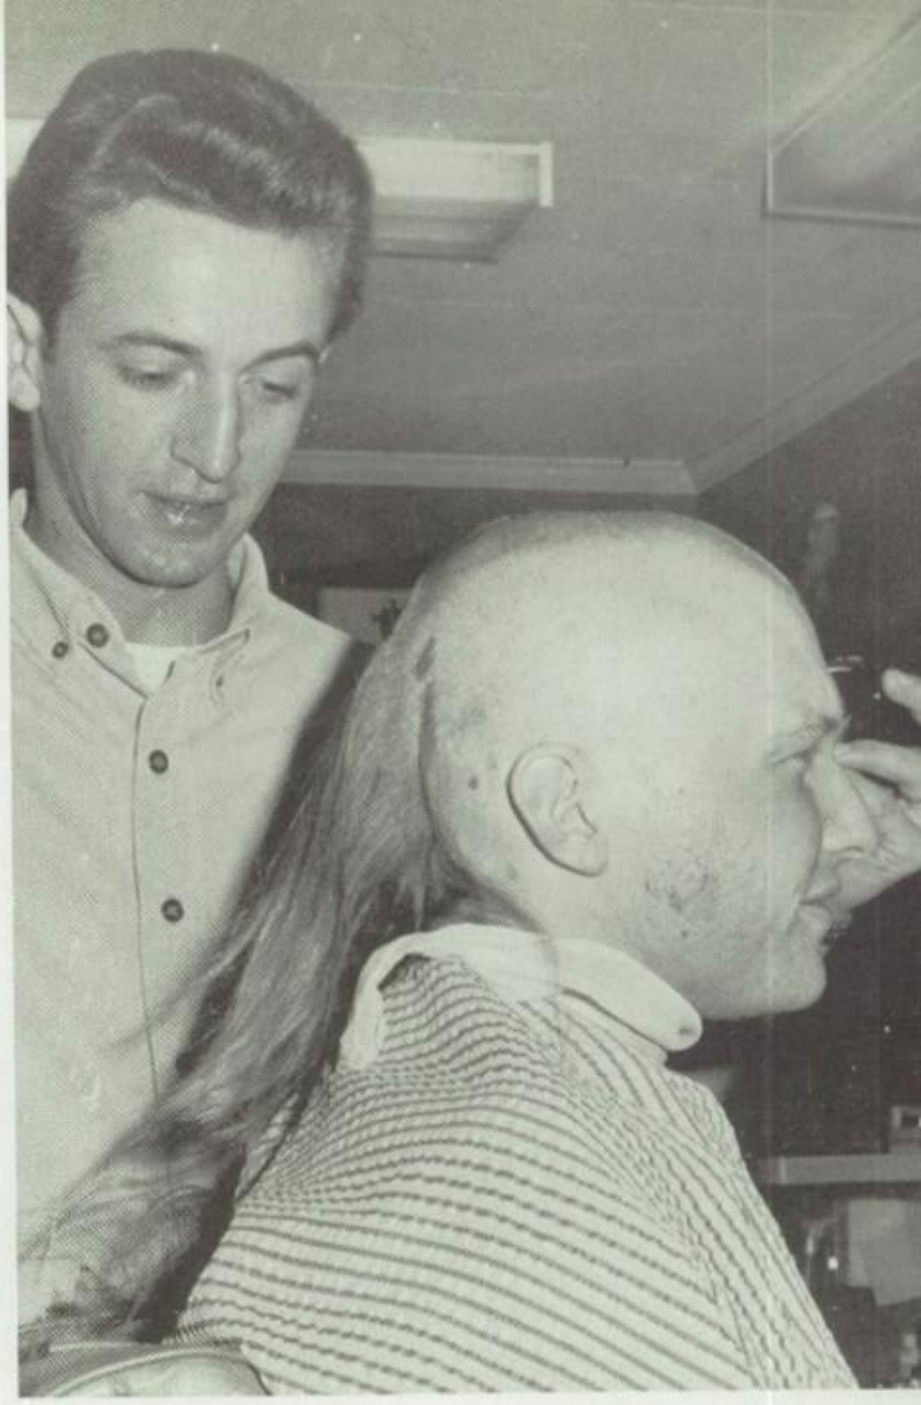
Joe is from the city of Curitiba in the Brazilian state of Parama; his native language is Portugese. He developed an interest in photography and playing bass guitar in Dave's group while staying with the Hoggs. The best things in America, according to Joe, are certain types of American girls and cupcakes.

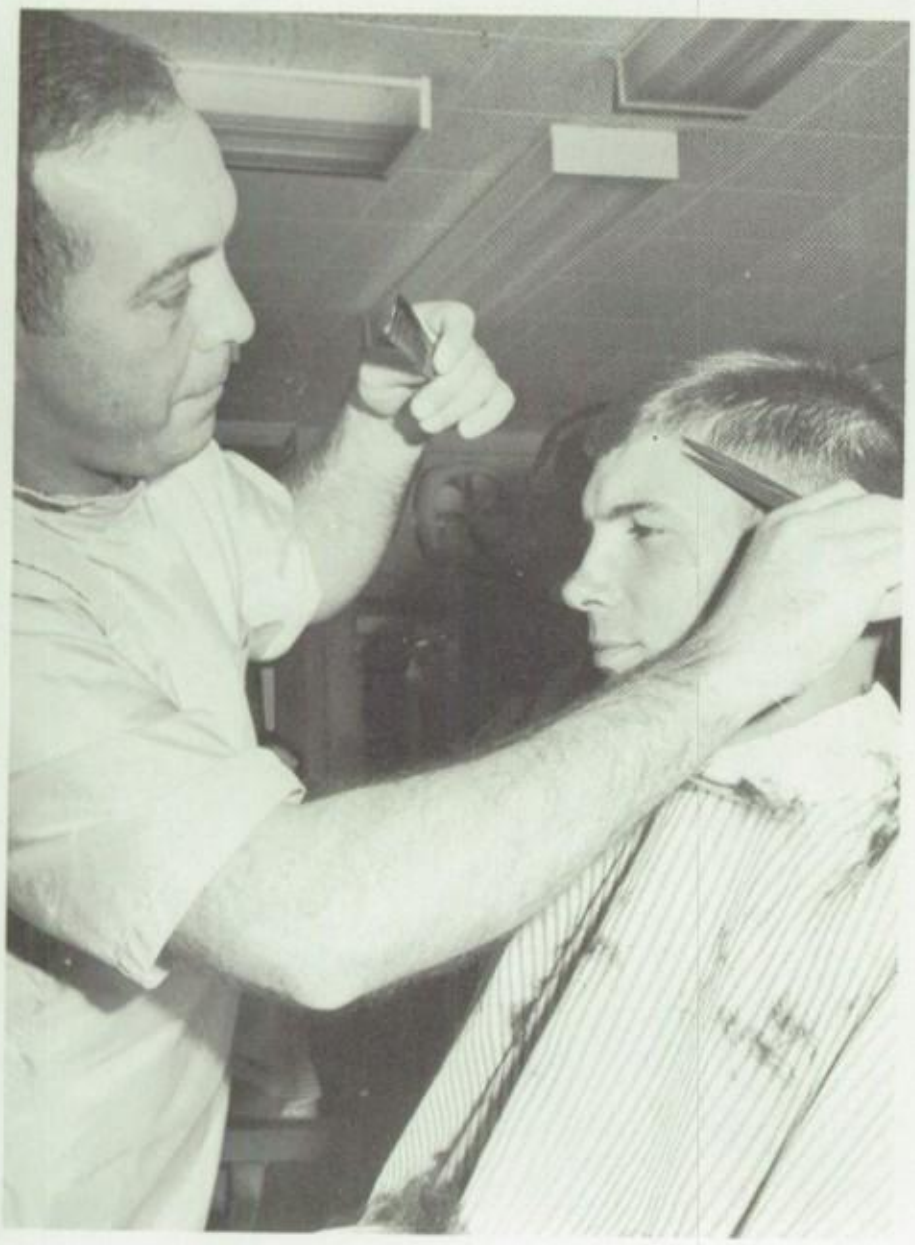
When he returns to Brazil, Joe eventually wants to become a business administrator and go into his father's lumber exporting business.











Swimmers Get Clipped

Guyer's Guppies of 1971-72 decided to use drastic action to increase their morale and unify the team. After practice on November 15, the team converged on the Stony Brook Barber Shop for their pre-season haircuts. Two hours later the boys emerged — minus most of their hair. The first view the student body had of the swimming team's new coiffures was a brigade of hats the next morning. Not only were the haircuts the talk of the school, but "before and after" pictures of the team appeared in newspapers all over the country.

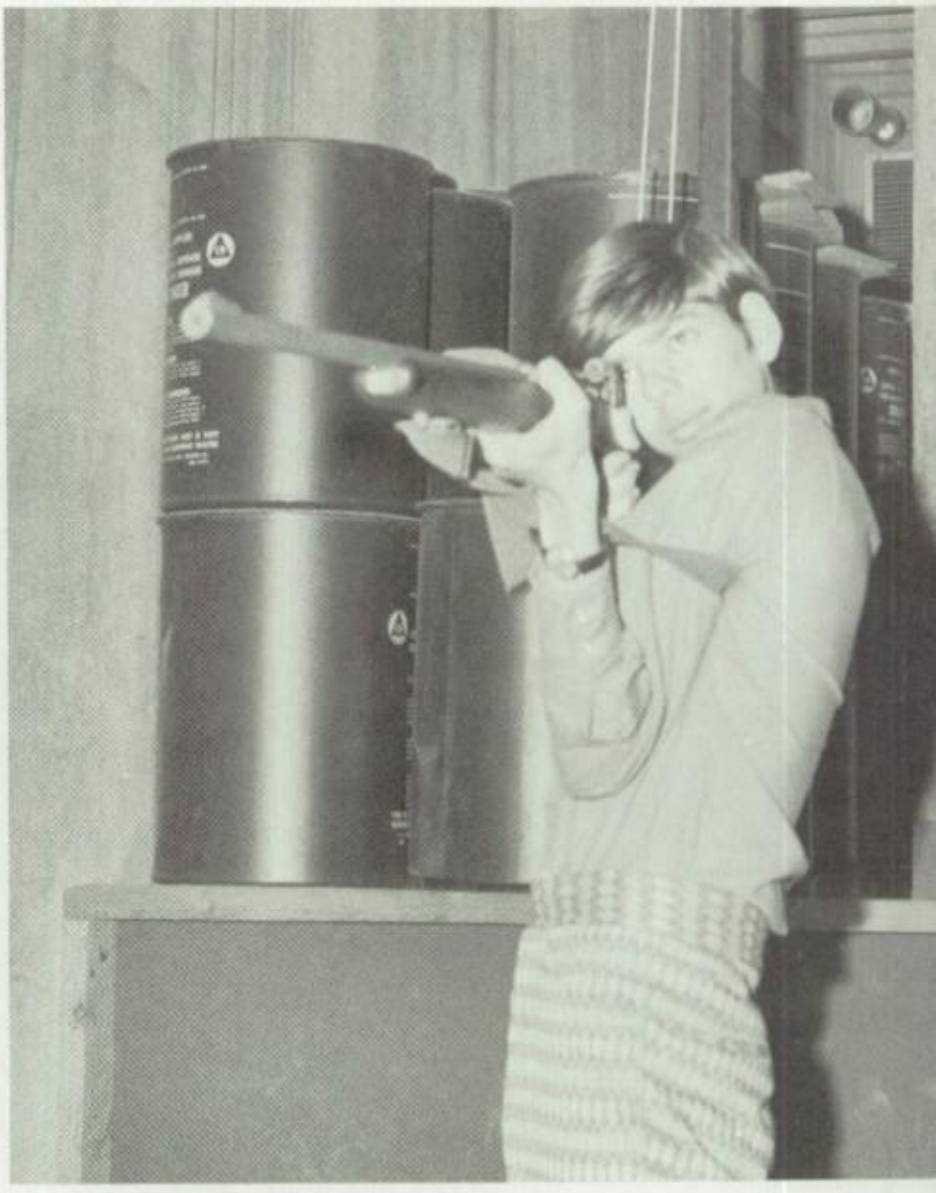
Clubs

Clubs at Suburban have traditionally played a practical as well as social role by providing an outlet for students' outside interests and talents. Some such clubs are rifle club, ecology club, stage crew, hostess club and A.F.S.

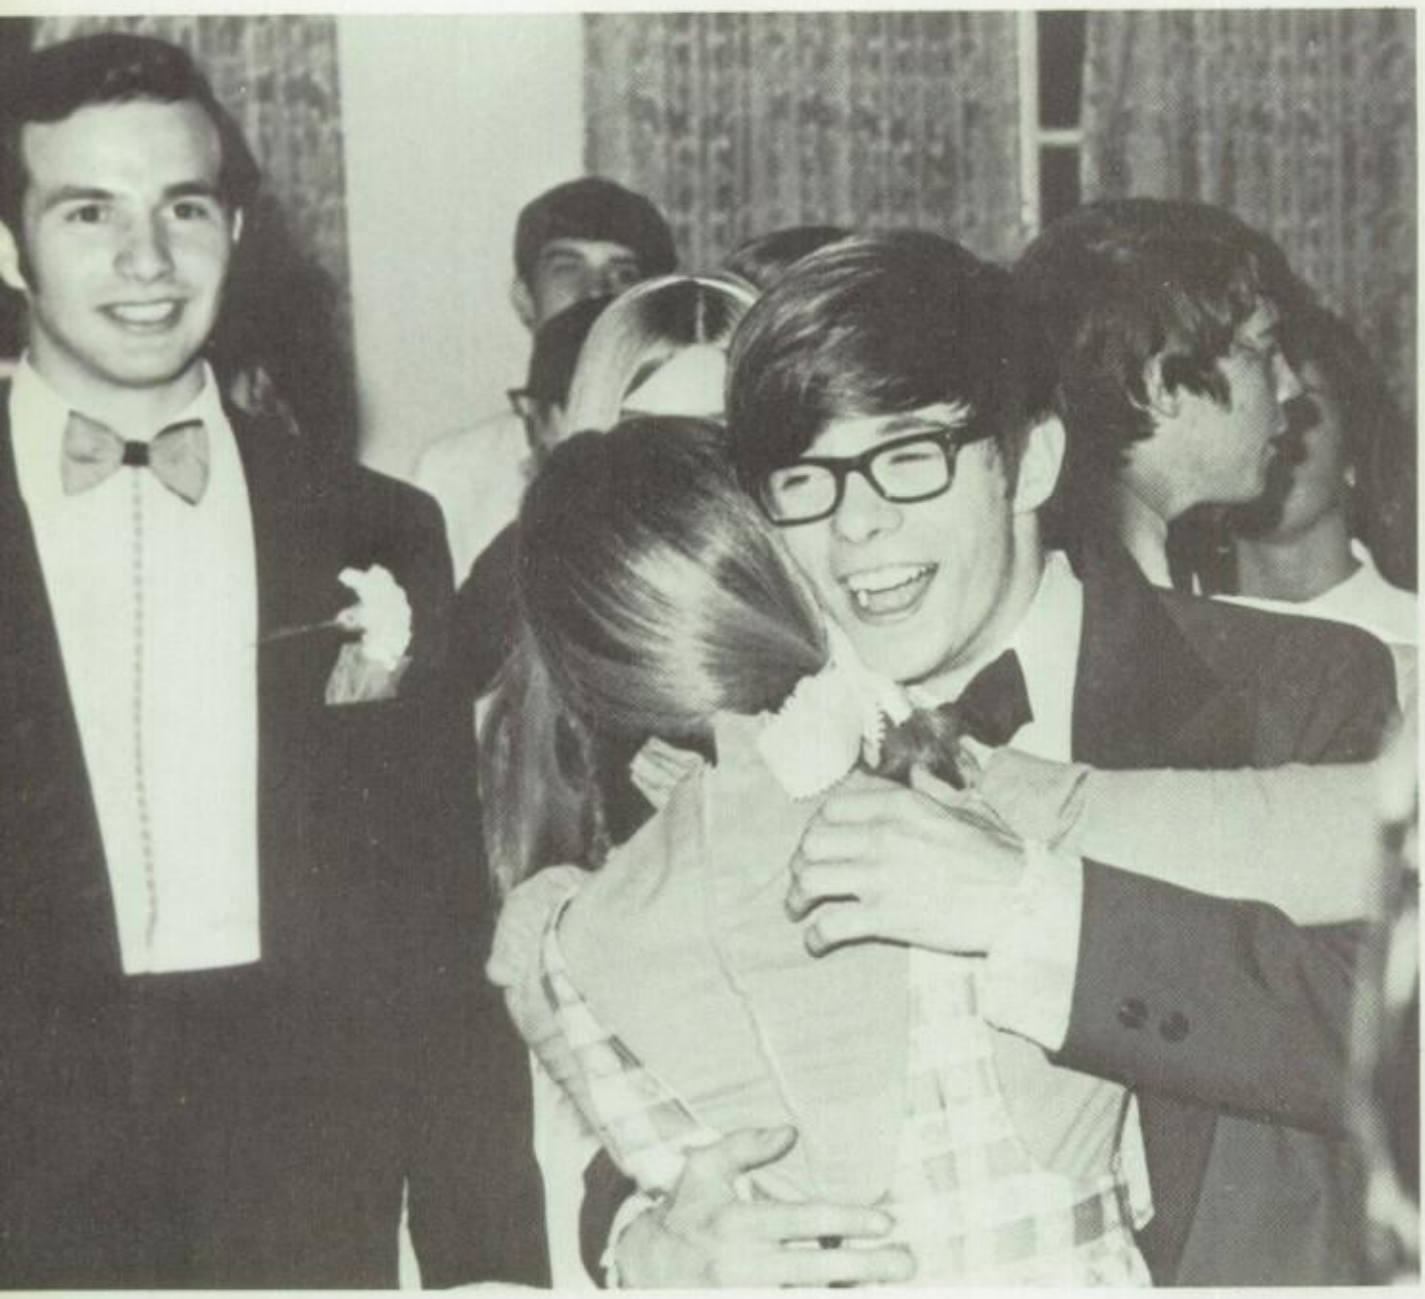
A.F.S. sponsored this year's exchange club, Jô Sant' Ana.

Other clubs help to familiarize students with various occupations, such as F.N.A. and F.T.A.

An unique program was established this year by the Future Teachers of America. The members of the club volunteered their time as "interns" to help various teachers in whatever way possible. The purpose of the program was to acquaint students with the many duties and responsibilities involved in the teaching profession.



SAFETY AND RANGE DISCIPLINE

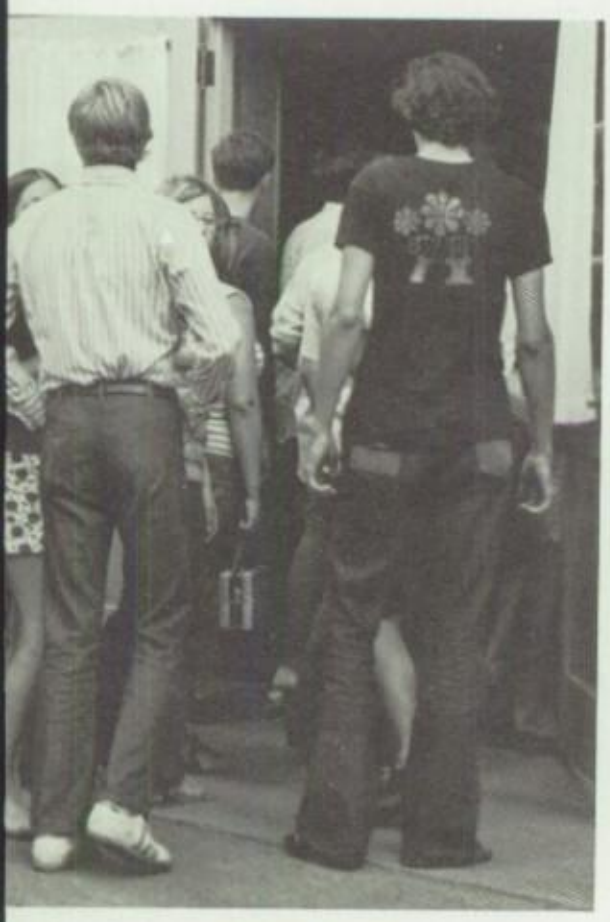


Prom

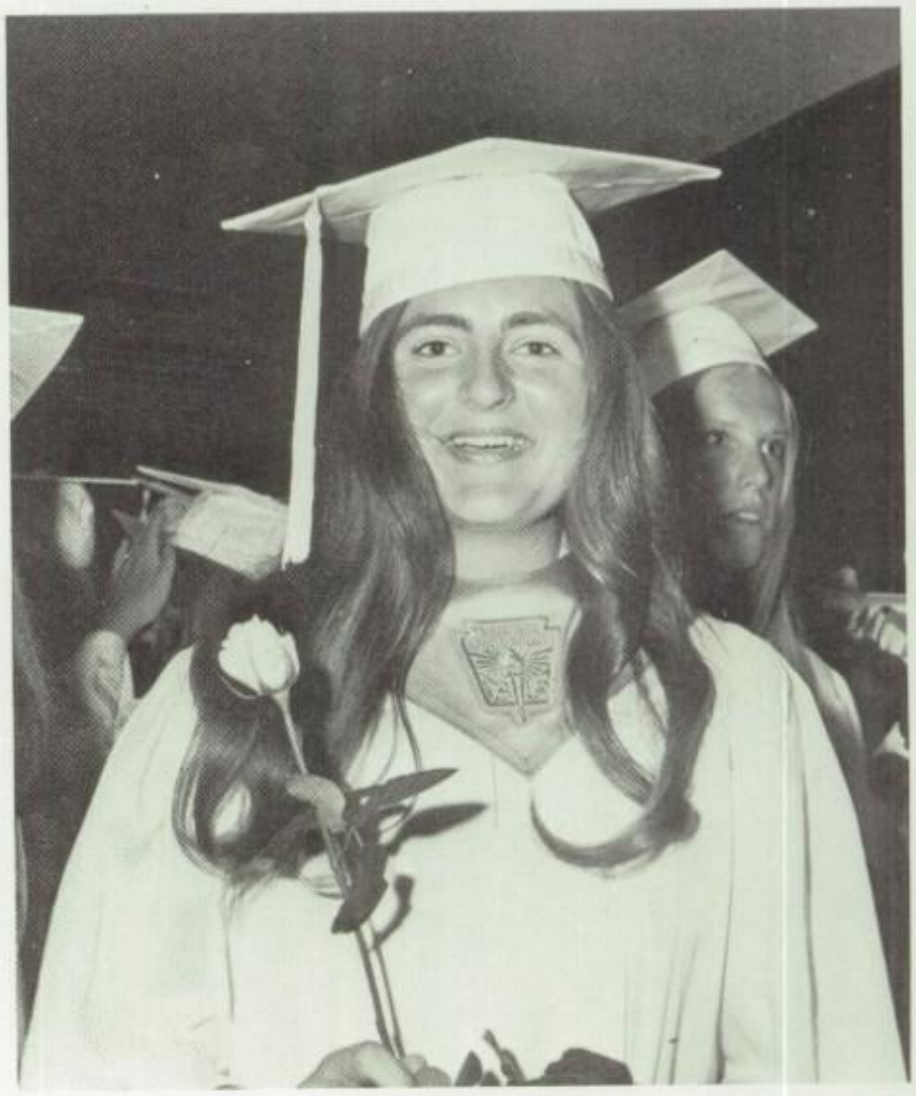
The Red Lion Country Club was transformed into Cinderella's Wonderland by the junior class for the junior-senior prom May 15, 1971. This was the first time the prom was held outside the school and except for the unexpected rain (and a broken ceiling) everything went well and a good time was enjoyed by all. "Airport" provided the music and Mark Keeney and Sue Thompson reigned as king and queen for the evening.

Senior Day

June seventh found the class of '71 at Allenbery for the annual senior day. The Suburban seniors enjoyed playing softball, swimming, eating, and sunbathing. The class met fellow seniors, some of whom proved to be almost total strangers, for one last time. This memorable occasion was climaxed by an evening dance and a tremendous amount of tears.



Graduation



While the band played the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" the class of 1971 walked their final steps as students of York Suburban High School. After a series of speeches by Frank Gerberick, the 1971 senior class president, the president of the School Board, and Rabbi Eli Cooper, the diplomas were finally distributed.

An insane race to ends unknown Ends.
Conclusion.

Race never seemed it would end —
Can't even quite remember how it all began.
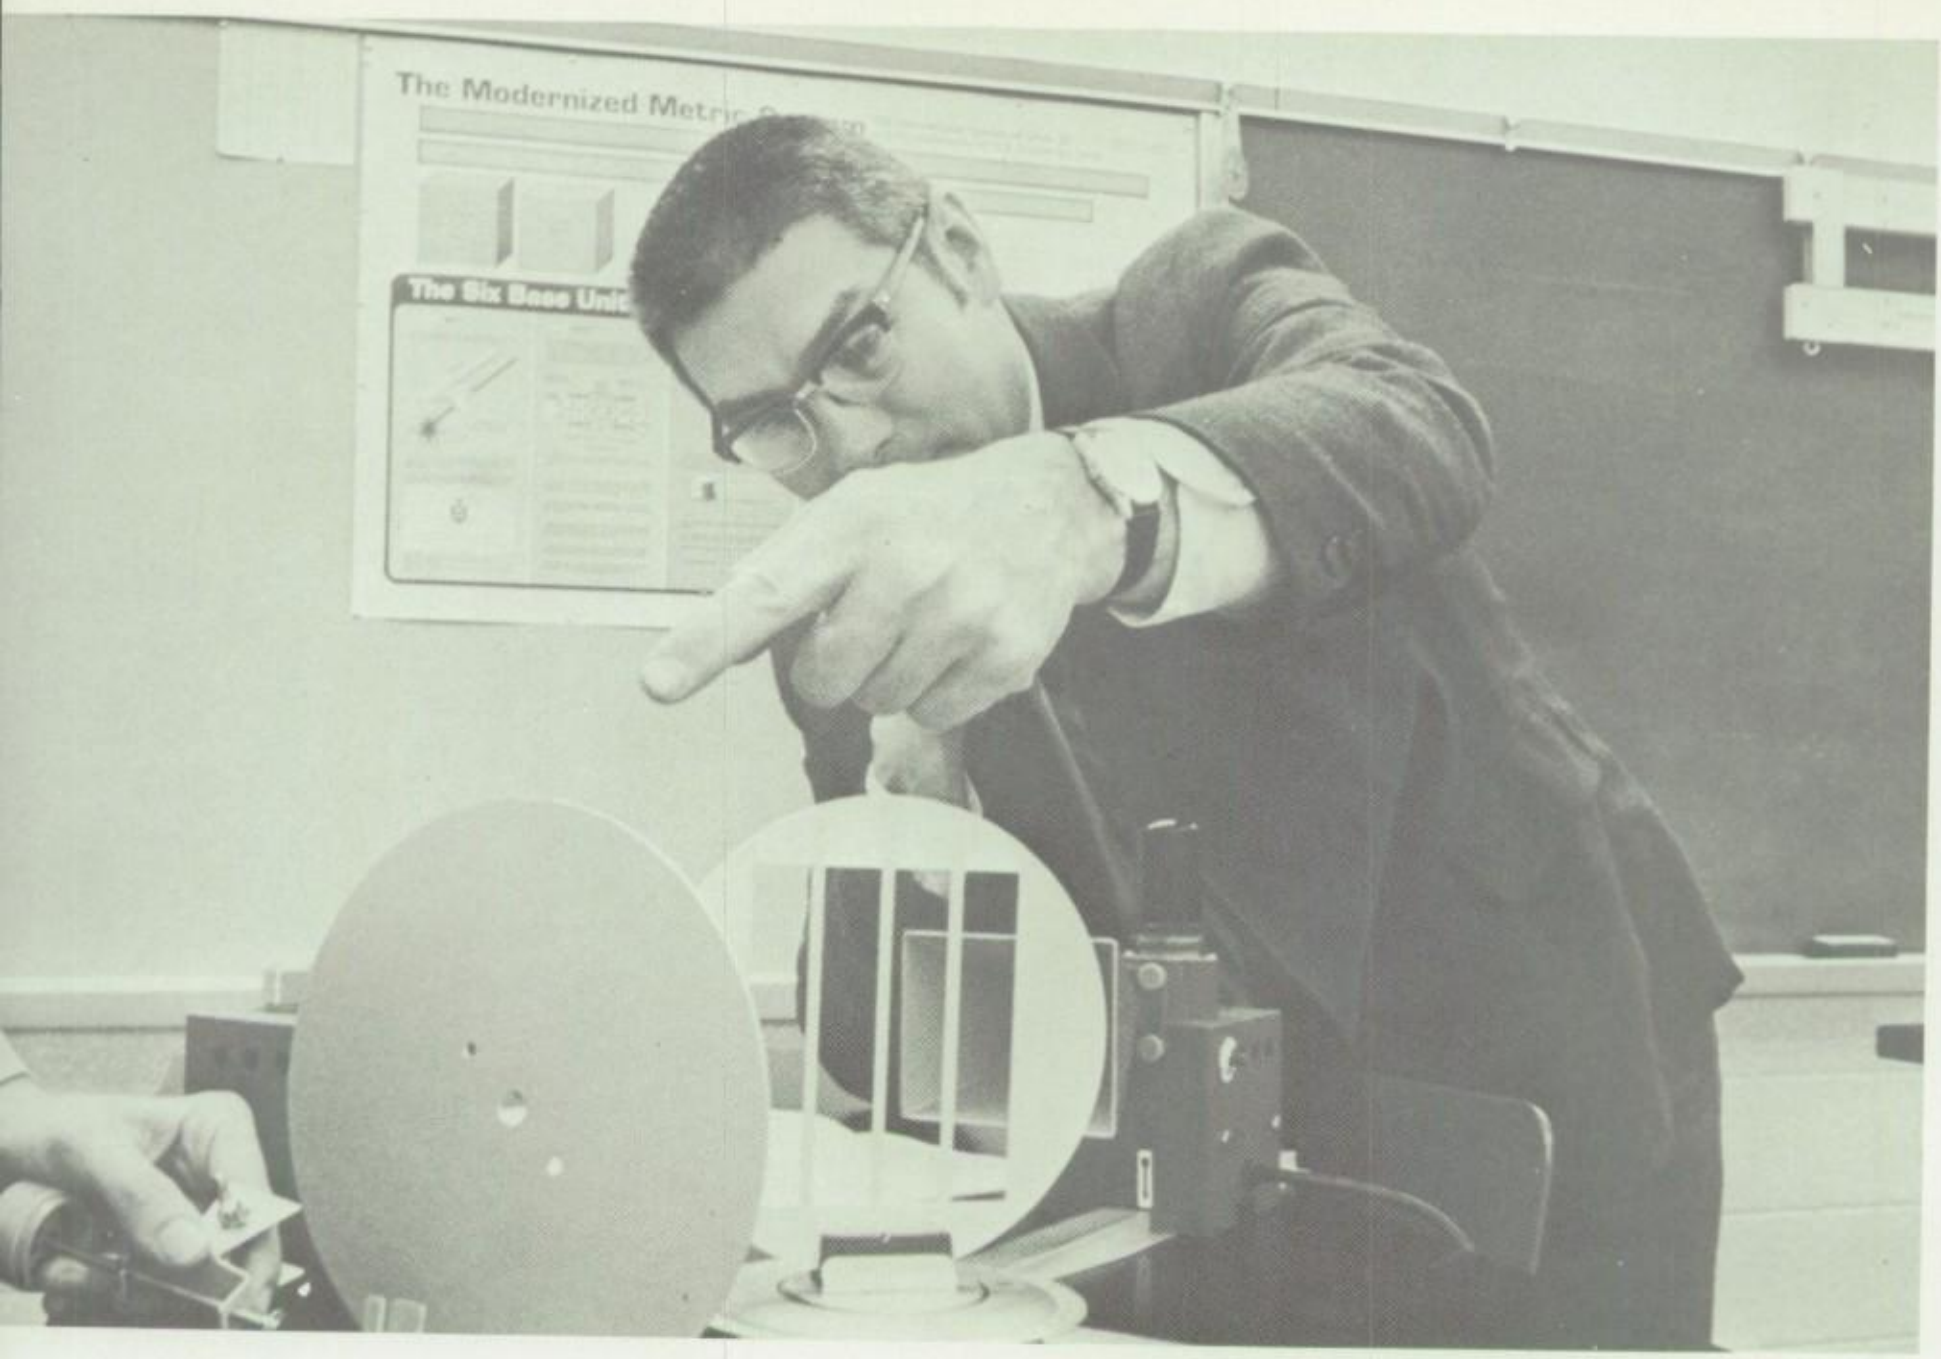
Now,
Abruptly, it's over.

And suddenly I miss it.
All of it.



The Modernized Metric
The Six Base Unit

What must remain behind
I shall miss.
What can be taken
I shall treasure.

Sometimes it felt like I was holding the entire world up. I guess that I wasn't. Somehow it has all been worth it, despite that. Or maybe because of that.

This book could not have been done without the cooperation of a great number of people. I'd like to take this space to thank you who have spent so many hours producing this book. You know who you are.

This book could have been done without the help of a few people. You know who you are. Thanks anyway.

The money you see in the picture below is real. The people are merely pieces of a monoply set.

The year has been good. It has been worth it. I shall miss it.

Jeff
